

Democrat and Sentinel.

J. Ellison Downes, Associate Editor.

BRIEF ITEMS.—We have been suffering from a spell of really cold weather. Overcasts are not at all uncomfortable appendages up here on the mountains. Quite a number of City visitors have taken up quarters at our hotels. They will find our town healthy, and cool enough, too.—A daily mail now runs between this place and Carrelltown.—"Mine Host" Blair, of the Union Hotel, is rejuvenating his house with an entire new coat of paint. Blair "knows how to keep a hotel."—Several interesting games of Base Ball have been played by the Ebensburg B. B. C., within the last week. Miles Upton, of the Brockport (N. Y.) B. B. C., an ardent lover of the noble game, acting as Umpire on the several occasions.—The Hiawatha B. B. C., of Kittanning, played a match game with the Keystone B. B. C., of Butler, on the grounds of the latter. The Hiawatha beat the Keystone 20. There's a bat "soaking" in Ebensburg for the Hiawatha.—Sam Hassinger, the gentlemanly clerk with Dr. Christy, spanned his ankle severely, on last Saturday, while coming in on a "home run."—Rev. R. C. Christy, who has been suffering from Neuralgia of the heart, contracted while he was in the service as Chaplain of the 78th P. V., we are happy to say, is recovering speedily. He had services on last Sabbath.

ADVERTISING.—There are comparatively few business men who understand the art of advertising. Some men advertise for a short time after they commence business, and think that is sufficient; others omit advertising after they have established a flourishing business by its aid. From the moment a house ceases to advertise, however large its reputation and standing, it begins to decline. The changes are so rapid in this country, the public mind is so constantly occupied by new applicants for its attention, that to be out of the papers, where everybody seeks information on every subject, is to be forgotten. The press is daily becoming a necessity, and its usefulness as an advertising medium is as constantly increasing. No man is wise or just to himself, who undertakes to do business without availing himself of its advantages.

A blacksmith would be looked upon as foolish, if he were to pile coal upon his forge, and neglect to blow. The merchant who fills his store, or the tradesman who opens his shop, and fails to keep the fact before his people, is equally short-sighted. The trade may come but it will be slow indeed. Be up and doing; show people that you are at work—striving to succeed, and we warrant you hard times will never knock very long or very loud at your door. Providence helps those who help themselves, and the largest crops come from the best tilled fields every time.

SOLDIERS' BOUNTY BILL PASSED.—We are gratified to learn that the Bill equalizing Soldiers' Bounties has at last become a law, notwithstanding the efforts of the negro-loving radicals to defeat it. It appears that this Bill was tacked on the Bill increasing the pay of members of Congress from $3,000 a year to $5,000 a year—and the Democrats and Conservative Republicans would have defeated that measure, if the radicals had not consented to do justice to our returned soldiers, by equalizing their bounties.

The following definition of the rights of women, is given in a Vermont paper: "To love her lord with all her heart, and her lady as herself—and to make good bread." The women of this vicinity differ from those of Vermont in one respect: They insist on buying all their Dry Goods and Groceries at V. S. Barker's Store.

TAX ON SMOKE.—The "act to protect the revenue, and for other purposes,"—the only tariff measure adopted by Congress before its adjournment—went into effect August 1st. The first section raises the duty on cotton from abroad from two cents to three cents a pound, to correspond with the excise or internal tax on our own cotton. It also raises the duty on Havana and other foreign cigars to three dollars a pound, (net weight) and fifty per cent. ad valorem on the foreign invoice value, and port and shipping charges and freight and commissions added. The same charges by the ninth section of the act, are to be added to all foreign importations where the duties are made on the ad valorem, or specific and ad valorem combined. The act also levies additional duties, equal to the internal tax on spirits, on "all compounds or preparations of which distilled spirits is a component part or chief value."

The Crops.—As we advance into the summer, the reports of the prospects of the crops in all parts of the country become better and better. Throughout the United States there will be a bountiful yield of nearly everything planted, whilst of the cereals, wheat will produce a full average yield, and corn will make the largest crop ever yet grown in the country.

THE BOUNTY BILL.

The following is the bill to equalize the bounties of soldiers and sailors who served in the late war against the rebellion, as it finally passed both Houses of Congress:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That to each and every soldier who has enlisted into the army of the United States after the 19th day of April, 1861, for a period of not less than three years, and having served his enlistment, has been honorably discharged, and who has received, or is entitled to receive from the United States, under existing laws, a bounty of one hundred dollars and no more, and that any such soldier enlisted for not less than three years, who has been honorably discharged on account of wounds received in the line of duty, and the widow, minor children or parents in the order named of any such soldier who died in the service of the United States, or of disease or wounds contracted while in the service and in the line of duty, shall be paid the additional bounty of one hundred dollars hereby authorized.

SEC. 2. That to each and every soldier who was enlisted into the army of the United States after the 19th of April 1861, during the rebellion, for a period of not less than two years, and who is not included in the foregoing section, and has been honorably discharged therefrom after serving two years, and who has received or is entitled to receive from the United States, under existing laws, a bounty of fifty dollars and no more; and any soldier enlisted for less than two years, who has been honorably discharged on account of wounds received in the line of duty, and the widow, minor children or parents, in the order named, of any such soldier who died in the United States, or of disease or wounds contracted while in the service of the United States, and in the line of duty, shall be paid the additional bounty of fifty dollars hereby authorized: Provided, That any soldier who has bartered, sold assigned, transferred, loaned, exchanged or given away, either his discharge papers or any interest in any bounty as aforesaid; and no claim for such bounty shall be entertained by the Paymaster General or other accounting or disbursing officer, except upon receipt of the claimant's discharge papers, accompanied by the statement under oath, as by this section provided.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That in the payment of the additional bounty herein provided for, it shall be the duty of the Paymaster General, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, to cause to be examined the accounts of each and every soldier who makes application therefor, and if found entitled thereto, pay said bounty.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That in the reception, examination and settlement and payment of claims for said additional bounty, due the widows or heirs of deceased soldiers, the accounting officers of the Treasury shall be governed by restrictions prescribed by the Paymaster General by the Secretary of War, and the payment shall be made in like manner, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury.

We would call the attention of our patrons, the public in general, and discharged soldiers in particular, to the fact that our townsman, George W. Oatman, Esq., Attorney at Law, and Licensed Claim Agent, is prepared to collect Bounty for all persons entitled thereto under the foregoing Act. He is trustworthy and prompt, and very successful in collections of this kind. His postoffice address is Ebensburg, Pa. We feel satisfied that all persons entrusting their claims in his hands will receive prompt attention.

FRESH FISH will hereafter be received at Harry Wilson's Cheap Store, in the hall of McDonald's brick building, on Thursday of each week. We are now buying large supplies of ice and small supplies of fish, so that the fish reach us as fresh and pure as they appear in the Philadelphia Market.

WANTED. $27.60 per day.

AGENTS wanted, ladies and gentlemen, in every County in the United States, to sell the Ink Powders of the American Ink Company. The powder sells for forty cents per package, and will make ink enough to fill fifty bottles of the size usually retailed at ten cents per bottle. A smart agent can sell a gross of this every day, and clear $27.60. The ink can be made from the powder in three minutes in common boiling water. It is a perfect black ink, the best in the world. It flows easily, does not corrode the pen a particle, never gums up, is not injured by freezing, and its color will last forever. Every family in America will buy it, as a package will last a family for years, and ink can be made in small quantities as wanted. With each gross we send a thousand circulars, with testimonials from theologians, lawyers, teachers, merchants, commercial clubs, editors, &c., and the agent's name on the bills. Only one person will be made agent for a county. The first one sending $30 for a gross of the powder will receive it by return express, together with one thousand circulars and the right to sell in the county he or she designates. If others send for the same county, the money will be returned to them free of expense. To make sure, one had better designate several counties, either of which he or she will take. Send for trade list and circulars if you dare run the risk of waiting, or send the money for a gross. Letters addressed to the Mayor, Postmaster, cashiers of the banks, or the express agents of this city, will show that the business is honorably and squarely conducted. An Ink Powder will be sent by mail to any address, free of charge, on receipt of forty cents.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Man wants a tonic—no uncommon want— And every year and month brings forth a new one, Which, after cramming the gazettes with cant, The age discovers to be not the true one. Of such as these let their concoctors vaunt, I'll sing the bitters that have credit due won— The world's great Tonic, which no skill can better— I mean the matchless BITTERS of HOSTETTER.

Doctors were living long before old Galen. And since, exceeding learned, grave and serene; But the stomachics they were bound to fail in; Success came not until this later age, Now is the era sick folks are made hale in, And dread dyspepsia driven from the stage, Agnes, remittents, headaches—real head-splitters— Vanish like smoke before HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

Herbs, barks and roots compose the rare infusion; No mineral poison mars their juices pure, And Rye's mild essence holds them in solution. The taste is pleasant, the effect is sure, Ne'er have the bitters proved a delusion; Try them in time, and health and strength secure. The dragon-slayer figures on the label, And they, like him, to save the weak are able.
