LOCAL ITEMS.

Court is in session this week. It will in all probability adjourn to-day. The "days in blue" had not time to attend the negro circus on Tuesday. The steam saw-mill of Henry Hopple in Carroll township was consumed by fire on Saturday last. We sincerely sympathize with Mr. Hopple in his loss. Dr. J. C. Wilson of Ebsensburg has been appointed an Examining Surgeon by the Commissioner of pensions. The Johnstown glad club should learn that beautiful song entitled, "We are coming Andrew Johnson." It would certainly command more applause than "Rally 'round the flag" which is now becoming stale. Hon. Henry D. Foster of Greensburg paid our town a flying visit on Tuesday. We do not know whether he was invited here to speak at the meeting which took place on that day. One Democratic speaker should have been in attendance to accommodate the Democrats, who composed the principal portion of the audience. The Radicals will hold a meeting in Wilmore on Saturday. It is currently reported and generally believed that the immortal J. N. has in consideration of a certain sum, undertaken to stump the State for Geary. What is the reason some of our Summerhill subscribers do not receive their paper? They are sent from this office. Can not the Post Master there enlighten us on the subject? Hereafter no job work will be done at this office unless paid for when delivered. We are under obligations to Mr. George W. Oatman for the proceedings of Court up to this day. Want of space prevents us from publishing them. They will, however, appear in our next issue. We had intended to issue no paper this week as it became necessary to move our fixtures. However, we have issued one and we now inform our readers that they will receive none until the week after next, as it will take us some time to get our machinery in running order in our new quarters.

Thad-poles!

The Thad-poles are trying to woo the soldiers to an endorsement of their treason by pointing triumphantly to the act passed by the last Congress to give soldiers an additional bounty. Has any soldier got that bounty? We guess not. In the same bill which gave the soldiers bounty was a provision given to each member of Congress $2800, extra pay. Have the Congressmen got their $2800? Yes, every one of them except the conservative members who drew and returned it to the treasury. Why are they able to get their money and the soldiers unable to get any? Because they took care to provide a fund to pay themselves and were equally careful to provide nothing to pay the soldiers. Ask Senator Kirkwood about this, while he is stumping. Ask him if he, who went to the Senate late in January, drew his pay for a whole session including the $2800? Ask him if he is so much better than the soldiers that he must be provided for, and they left out in the cold?

The revenue act, as amended by the Ramp Congress, takes the tax off pianos, but it don't take it off matches, cheap cottons wookings and medicines. People who could pay tax on luxuries and elegances are not to do so, while those who can scarcely "scrape along" must pay tax on all they eat, use and wear. This is Rumpery, as endorsed by No. Prefix Geary.

We had the pleasure of meeting our old friend James Wilkison of Loretto in town on Monday. James keeps a Marble Yard there, and all work done at his establishment gives entire satisfaction. We have examined specimens of his workmanship in the graveyard at Wilmore and find them to be perfect. Persons wishing to honor their departed friends by placing a beautiful headstone over them, should call on him and secure one.

Geary's Speeches.

The Radicals are greatly distressed at the humiliating spectacle presented by General Geary as an orator. They feel that every time he makes a speech, he makes Democratic votes. In order to break the force of the thud which his recent effort in Baumgardner's woods, near York, is giving the disunion cause, the Press, on Friday last, offered this apology and excuse for it. In publishing his Doylestown speech, it said: General Geary's speech, taken down almost literally as it fell from his lips, shows that some of his other addresses have either been badly reported or misrepresented.

This is simply absurd. Geary's address in Baumgardner's woods was as his oratorical performances at Reading, were copied literally from Radical journals. The report of the first appeared in the daily Press, and some days afterwards was published in the weekly issue of that newspaper. Ample time was given the statesman of New Cumberland to revise it, and omit the objectionable and ludicrous passages. But this was not done, and the Press report stands as official and uncontradicted. In that speech he denounced all the soldiers and sailors who composed the great Harrisburg Convention as "shysters, cowards, skulkers, and hospital-bummers." Does the Press now deny that shameful utterance? He also announced, with magnificent emphasis, that "he was a soldier—that he had set squadrons in the field—that he had never met defeat." Did the Press misrepresent him in that bravado, also? —Philadelphia Age.

Also, in the 4th section of the Act of Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to elections and for other purposes." Also, that in the 61 section of said Act it is enacted that "every General and Special Election shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten o'clock in the forenoon and shall continue without interruption or adjournment, until seven o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Man wants a tonic—no uncommon want—And every year and month brings forth a new one, Which, after cramming the gazettes with cant, The age discovers to be not the true one. Of such as these let their concoctors vaunt, I'll sing the bitters that have credit due won— The world's great Tonic, which no skill can better— I mean the matchless BITTERS of HOSTETTER.

Doctors were living long before old Galen, And since, excelling learned, grave and sage; But the stomachies they were bound to fail in— Success came not until this later age, Now is the era sick folks are made hale in, And dread dyspepsia driven from the stage, Agues, remittents, headaches—real head-splitters— Vanish like smoke before HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

Herbs, barks and roots compose the rare infusion; No mineral poison mars their juices pure, And Byle's mild essence holds them in solution. The taste is pleasant, the effect is sure, Ne'er have the bitters proved a delusion; Try them in time, and health and strength secure.

The dragon-slayer figures on the label, And they, like him, to save the weak are able.
