Our Candidate.

The District Conference which met at Tyrone on last Thursday week, nominated R. L. Johnston of Cambria county as their Standard Bearer in the coming contest. A better selection could not have been made.

Democrats arouse! Do not slumber while the Wolf and the Lion are at your doors seeking admission. Remember that "eternal vigilance is the safeguard of liberty."

Let us set our sister States an example of our love for the Constitution and the Union, by electing men who will fearlessly stand by Andrew Johnson and endorse his policy as long as it tends to the public welfare.

THE TURN.—Last Friday was a day of considerably excitement in Ebensburg; it having been understood for some time that a horse race would take place at Kayler's, (near the Poor House) on that day.

Mennecke & Brother, 804 Arch Street, Philadelphia—Dealers in Berlin Zephyrs, Domestic Zephyrs, etc., offer great inducements to the Trade.

Consistency.

The Johnstown Tribune (Morell's Organ) seems to take a fiendish delight in blackguarding Andrew Johnson and every person favorable to his policy.

There are other men who have not been found wanting in patriotism and self-sacrificing devotion to their country. Many of them deserve the undying gratitude of their countrymen.

There are other men who have not been found wanting in patriotism and self-sacrificing devotion to their country. Many of them deserve the undying gratitude of their countrymen.

"Gallant Andrew Johnson is our choice." "He deserves it as a man." "He has proven himself a patriot."

dignant and naturally, and at once, turn at bay in defence of the men who led them so frequently to glorious victory. Every day their determination to stand by those whose name is inseparably connected with their own noble record is becoming more and more apparent.

SEE THAT YOU ARE ASSESSED.—Every Democrat should see that he is assessed. Saturday the 29th of this month is the last opportunity. Embrace it fellow Democrats if you wish to redeem our country.

Not content with slandering the President, the Johnstown Tribune in last weeks issue makes a side thrust at Mr. James Myers the able and efficient Sheriff of this county.

Tribune vs. Myers. Not content with slandering the President, the Johnstown Tribune in last weeks issue makes a side thrust at Mr. James Myers the able and efficient Sheriff of this county.

In conclusion we would say that no blame can be attached to Sheriff Myers for failing to perform his duty. He sent this infamous document to this office on the very day that he received it from the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Who it was, so wise in his own conceit, as to counsel the Mayor and Councils of the good old city of Philadelphia to bite off its own nose by insulting the President and General Grant, Secretary Seward, and Admiral Farragut, and other honorable and distinguished men, we know not.

sufficient to show to those distinguished visitors that their city fathers had done them great injustice. Some of the Republicans in Philadelphia regret the course that was taken, and fear, justly, that it will lose their party a great many votes at the coming elections.
