The South will not Adopt the Amendments.

We consider it to be settled that no single Southern State will voluntarily endorse the proposed amendments to the Constitution. The objections which they urge cannot be overcome. The action of several of the States, and the tone of the Southern Press, almost without exception, lead us to that conclusion.

Geary Nominated for Vice President.

General Geary's besetting sin is his vanity. Having dyed his hair and whiskers, and gotten himself up regardless of expense after he had secured control of the electioneering fund of the Radicals, he strutted through the recent campaign with the air of a peacock.

"An Iron Man in Congress."

The Johnstown Tribune came to us last week with an article of which the above was the heading. It purported to come from the New York Iron Age, a paper which is entirely controlled by a rich and prosperous company of Iron Lords.

"The circumstances attending the election of D. J. Morrell, Esq., of the Cambria Iron Works, for the Seventeenth Congressional District of Pennsylvania, are exceedingly flattering to himself personally, and we feel honorable to the trade."

If the Iron Age regards the circumstances as "exceedingly flattering," it is sufficient; but we would inform them that they are mistaken in their calculations. D. J. Morrell was elected under circumstances disgraceful to himself and injurious to his party.

"We can well understand how many sensible Democrats and grateful workmen voted for a gentleman, the practical effect of whose principles they saw in the prosperity in the locality in which he resides, and whose genial kindness had endeared him to many a 'Democratic' employee."

It is all very well to congratulate the trade, but as for the country it is entirely different. While the Iron Trade will be eventually benefited by it, the country and its interests will certainly suffer.

The Boston Evening Journal confirms the telegraphic announcement of the nomination of C. L. Mitchell, a negro, as a candidate for a seat in the State Legislature by the Republican Convention. The editor says: "It is one of the practical results of the political creed which Massachusetts has been foremost in advocating, and though it may strike some with surprise, it is certainly creditable to the district which made the nomination."

For our own part we heartily endorse the nomination. It shows the sincerity of the Republicans, and is a proof of their intention to carry out to the letter the political professions which they have been making.

Later news from Boston shows, however, that Mr. Mitchell, by some sort of Radical gerrymandering, has been "chiselled" out of the nomination, as a certificate has been given in favor of a white man! Alas! the poor negro.

The N. Y. Herald's Washington special claims to give the reason for the resignation of Mr. Stanton as Secretary of War. If the true one, and it is not at all improbable, it affords another evidence of the despotic nature and instincts of the evil genius of the War Department, once the possessor of more than autocratic power.

The actual facts regarding the resignation of Secretary Stanton were as follows: He is now engaged in making out his report, and as soon as it is finished he will undoubtedly retire. His resignation has been precipitated by the discovery lately made, that Mr. Stanton has filled nearly all the vacancies in the regular army without the knowledge or assent of Mr. Johnson.

A special dispatch from Baltimore to the Press boldly announced on Saturday last that if Governor Swann was elected United States Senator by the Legislature of Maryland, the Radicals would not permit him to take his seat. The only reason given for such a course is his removal of the Baltimore Police Commissioners, and his refusal to act with the "Torch-and-Turpentine" organization. These are the men who profess to belong to the party of law and order.

Progress of the Vote in all the Gubernatorial Contests.

The following interesting table shows the result of the vote for Governor of Pennsylvania, from the first contest in 1790 to the present time:

The Disunion Programme for Starting a Civil War.

The New York Herald has the following startling announcement:

When President Johnson was on his late trip in the West, a United States Senator and two major generals of the army, who belonged to his party, were approached at Indianapolis by a prominent conservative Republican, who had been colonel of an Indiana regiment during the late war and who is now a captain in the regular service, and who made the following statement: He had been making speeches for the Republicans in Indiana in August last, and at the request of Gov. Fletcher, of Missouri, visited that State and made one or two conservative speeches.

A few nights subsequently he was present on invitation at a secret meeting of radical leaders at the Lindell Hotel. About fifty prominent radicals were present, including Governor Fletcher of Missouri; Governor Oglesby, of Illinois; and Senator Yates and John A. Logan, of Illinois.

The following is an incident of the late canvass in Pennsylvania: Simon Cameron, in speaking at the late Radical meeting at Harrisburg, seeing Gen. Knipe in the crowd, said: "There's your postmaster, Joe Knipe. I made him a general, and no sooner had he uttered the words than there rung out in a clear voice from the audience 'You are a liar!'"

Reverend Colonel Chivington, of Sand Creek Indian massacre notoriety, recently addressed some of his admirers at Council Bluffs, Iowa. The following is given as one of the gems of his discourse: "If we go to Heaven, and any Democrat dare intrude there, we will kick him out. If we go to hell, we will help fire and brimstone on them. Yes, I would start on the battlements of Heaven and kick democrats into hell; and if I go to hell, I will pour a cauldron of red-hot iron upon them."

This language would sound strangely from the mouth of a true Christian soldier; but coming from Chivington, whose sole military exploit was the cold-blooded massacre of the Sand Creek Indian women and children, it is just what might be looked for.

Governor Swann, of Maryland, says that Baltimore contains more than five hundred thousand inhabitants, which would, excluding blacks, make a voting population of sixty or eighty thousand. There are only 24,000 registered voters, however; all who participated in the rebellion having been excluded from registration. Of these 24,000 registered voters, however, only 7,993 were allowed to vote at the late election, and less than 6,000 of them were Radicals.

BRUTAL MURDER.

A shocking murder was perpetrated in West Hartford, on Saturday night. The victim was a Mr. Julius Thompson, a bachelor, 40 years of age, who lived with his mother and sister on the road leading to Talcott Mountain. Between 7 and 8 o'clock, a young man called at the house, and requested Mr. Thompson to assist him, as his wagon had broken down. Mr. Thompson went out with the stranger, and was found by his street gate about an hour afterwards, under a tree on the highway, brutally murdered. His skull was broken open with some instrument or club. No arrests were made, but the Hartford police are on the track of the supposed murderer.

"Twenty tyrants," said Jefferson, "are worse than one." The rights and liberties of the American people have been guarded by a written Constitution. That is their charter of freedom. Abrogate that, and we have anarchy or despotism. Its violation is a crime, and that may be committed as flagrantly by usurpation of power as by open and armed resistance.

The following is an incident of the late canvass in Pennsylvania: Simon Cameron, in speaking at the late Radical meeting at Harrisburg, seeing Gen. Knipe in the crowd, said: "There's your postmaster, Joe Knipe. I made him a general, and no sooner had he uttered the words than there rung out in a clear voice from the audience 'You are a liar!'"

The Irish citizens of Washington City in public meeting tendered their thanks to President Johnson for his intercession in favor of the Fenian prison 27s.

The Season of Storms.

The blasts of Autumn and the chill storms of early winter are apt to make sad inroads upon the constitutions of the feeble. In old times at the commencement of every season it was the fashion to take a strong cathartic as a safeguard against a change of temperature. It was a worse than useless practice. The people of our day understand the matter better. Instead of depleting the system they reinforce it. In the method they adopt they exhibit a wise discrimination.
