

Democrat and Sentinel.

W. H. M'ENRUE, Editor & Publisher. EBENSBURG, NOV. 15, 1866.

All is Over.

The elections are over and Radicalism has triumphed. The base and unprincipled means resorted to by our antagonists, has yielded to them a glorious victory.

The rights, liberties and privileges of the people are now placed in the hands of Radicals. Deep and damning guilt will mark the course of these nigger loving officials.

Maryland.

One effect of the result of the late election in Maryland, as the Baltimore Sun remarks, is to relieve the Radical leaders of that State of the necessity for further duplicity, in regard to negro suffrage.

OF THIS KIND ARE THEY MADE UP.

Gen. W. H. Davis, editor of the Doylestown Democrat, gives the following piece of history of a Radical candidate for Congress, in New York.

The election in Missouri was a most disgraceful farce wherever Radicalism had control. Everything—black, white and convict—was allowed to cast Radical ballots, whereas the most respectable and upright Conservatives were disfranchised upon the most frivolous pretexts.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

WHEREAS, It hath been the good and worthy custom of the Commonwealth to set apart, annually, a day for the special acknowledgment of the goodness of the Almighty, and for expressing, by the whole people, at one time and with a common voice, the thanks and praise which throughout the year are springing from the hearts of men; therefore,

I, ANDREW G. CURTIS, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do, by this my Proclamation, recommend that the good people of the Commonwealth observe THURSDAY, the 29th day of NOVEMBER next, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, and do then assemble in their respective churches and place of worship, and make their humble thank offering to Almighty God for all His blessings during the past year.

For the abundant gathered fruits of the earth;

For the thus far continued activity of Industry;

For the general preservation of Health; And especially for that in His divine mercy he hath stayed the threatened Pestilence.

And, moreover, that they do beseech Him to continue unto us all His blessings, and to confirm the hearts of the people of these United States, that by the lawful force of their will, deeds of good, justice, wisdom and mercy may be done.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this twenty-ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and of the Commonwealth the ninety-first.

By the Governor:

ELI SIFER, Sec'y Com'w'th.

THE LATE ELECTIONS.—New York is claimed for Fenton, Radical, by 5,000—a loss of 3,283 on 1864. It is probable that three Conservative Members of Congress have been gained. New York city gave Hoffman 46,425—a Democratic gain over 1864 of 9,935. This gain was, however, overcome in the counties which had been colonized by the Radicals.

Maryland is carried by the Conservatives. Baltimore gives 1,600 Conservative majority. Four out of five members of Congress have been elected—a gain of three. The Conservatives have swept the whole State, and carry everything. Democrats and Conservatives, united, will have in the next Legislature 15 Senators to 9 Republicans, and the House will stand 55 Democrats to 25 Republicans, a clear majority on joint ballot of 36.

Delaware is Democratic to the core—Governor and everything else having been carried.

Massachusetts is Radical as usual. Bullock has been re-elected.

Banks and Butler have been elected. Mitchell and Walker, the colored Radicals, have been elected to the Legislature.

Returns from Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Missouri, Vermont, Connecticut, and Kansas are meagre, but may be counted as having gone Radical, as usual.

In the 4th District, New York, Greeley is defeated for Congress. In the 6th District, Mrs. Cady Stanton received three votes.

The Germans of New York cast their vote solid for the Democracy.

A. J. Rogers is reported defeated for Congress in New Jersey, and John Hogan in Missouri.

FORNEY ON MARYLAND.—The dead duck wrote from Washington City, on the 4th instant, as follows: "Yesterday's experience justifies the hope and sanctions the prediction that Maryland may henceforth be classed and held as one of the sternest Republican States of America. Nothing can stay the progress or prevent the fulfillment of the Radical triumph."

The election event of the 6th not justifying this confident prediction of that defunct and well-stuffed ornithological specimen, he found it necessary to fix it up as follows, on the 7th:

"The hope of victory in Maryland sprang entirely from the admirable manner in which the Radicals had counteracted the intrigues of Swann and his partisans in the city of Baltimore. We will not insult them by condolence; rather let us hail the spirit with which they have risen from their defeat, and unfurled the banner of impartial suffrage."

In other words, the Rads went out to shear and get shorn. Good for them. They attempted to disfranchise the loyal majority of the people, but failing, have now declared openly for negro suffrage. This shows, conclusively, that the Radicals of Baltimore (of whom there are less than six thousand) are almost entirely made up of Yankees and Northerners, of the old Abolition persuasion." With all the power of the State in their hands once more, the people of Maryland will no longer submit to the lawless tyranny of Forney's traitors. With or without the "banner of impartial suffrage," the rascals will never smell the flesh-pots more.—Thank God and a little pluck for that.—Let us pray for more of both these blessings.

—The Chambersburg Repository gives the following "probable vote" for United States Senator: Curtis 29; Cameron 11; Stevens 7; Grow 7; Doubtful 20.

ITS MISSION ENDED.—The mission of the Republican party was to destroy slavery.

It had not another idea or principle. Its mission has been fulfilled and its purpose accomplished. The death of slavery was the death of that party. There never was gathered within its folds a sufficient number of men of decided ability to entitle it to be regarded as a great national party. The materials were too incongruous to insure that cohesion which would secure harmony of counsel and unity of action, after the primal necessity of its creation had passed away.

False issues and the love of plunder are the only bonds which now cement or bind its members together. True, there is a wing of the party who, under the false plea of clarifying a spirit of the highest civilization, that seeks to mould its ideas of negro equality into the practical institutions of the country. Universal suffrage is the watchword. No matter how ignorant, or degraded, or unprepared by educational advantages, the black man must hold the ballot. To this end everything seems to be tending. The only hope left the country—the only bow of promise which spans the political horizon—is the evidence afforded by the recent elections of the existence of a very large conservative element in all the States of the Union. It is to the conservatives of America we must look for these wise and prudent measures of national policy to reconstruct the Union and perpetuate the institutions of the land.—Republic.

Christie Van Poole, who died at his residence in Half-Moon township, Center county, Pa., on the 22d ult., was probably the oldest man in the State, being born on the 6th day of June, 1754, and was consequently 112 years, 4 months, and 16 days old. He assisted to cut and carry the poll to which was fastened the first copy of the Declaration of Independence, made public in Philadelphia, and through the entire Revolution, drove his father's team, hauling provisions, clothing, &c., for the "rebel" troops. At the time of his death he was as sprightly as many a man of sixty-five—both mentally and physically, and could describe events which transpired a century since, under his own observation, with a correctness that was surprising.

BUTLER.—A Richmond paper says this of Ben. Butler: "Talk about pelting Butler with sweet, mellow apples! Why, he ought to thank God that he was not crushed beneath damaged buzzard eggs and overwhelmed by a ship-load of spoiled fish and live skunks!" For saying it, however, it gets particular fits from the radical press, and no doubt all the Southern States will be kept out of the Union three months longer in consequence. Ben. is a sacred personage. If not akin to royalty—which is supposed to be born with a silver spoon in its mouth—he has spoons enough anyhow.

It is said that the apple which was shied at B. F. Butler in the City Park on Saturday last, when he was endeavoring to address a Radical meeting, was one that grew upon the veritable "soul apple tree" upon which he is anxious to hang Jeff Davis. Curses, like little chickens, sometimes do come home to roost!

ACCIDENT.—On Monday night last a wheel of the local freight train going west broke in the neighborhood of Bell's Mills, and James Manelie, a brakeman, was almost instantly killed. Deceased resided in Altoona, and leaves a wife and three small children.

Rev Chas. B. Smyth gave his views of marriage and divorce at the Cooper Institute, New York, on Sunday evening. He thought the only penalty for adultery was the death of the guilty parties.

A Washington dispatch announces that "the President has appointed Hon. George Hillard, the eminent lawyer and author to be U. S. District Attorney for Massachusetts, in place of Hon. Richard H. Dana, resigned.

DR. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.—These Pills are composed of various roots, having the power to relax the secretions of the liver as promptly and effectually as blue pill or mercury, and without producing any of those disagreeable or dangerous effects which often follow the use of the latter.

In all bilious disorders, these Pills may be used with confidence, as they promote the discharge of vitiated bile, and remove those obstructions from the liver and biliary ducts, which are the cause of bilious affections in general.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills cure sick headache, and all disorders of the liver, indicated by sallow skin, coated tongue, costiveness, drowsiness, and a general feeling of weariness and lassitude, showing that the liver is in a torpid or obstructed condition.

In short, these pills may be used with advantage in all cases when a purgative or alterative medicine is required.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor—one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health—are on the Government stamp.

The Season of Storms.

The blasts of Autumn and the chill storms of early winter are apt to make sad inroads upon the constitutions of the feeble. In old times at the commencement of every season it was the fashion to take a strong cathartic as a safeguard against a change of temperature. It was a worse than useless practice. The people of our day understand the matter better. Instead of depleting the system they reinforce it. In the method they adopt they exhibit a wise discrimination. Instead of resorting to the vitiated stimulants of commerce, or any of the compounds derived from them, they put their faith in the only absolutely pure invigorant procurable in the market—HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Their faith is well founded. Never has any tonic medicine been prepared with such scrupulous precision and conscientious care. It is a vegetable compound of which every ingredient is sound, wholesome, and medicinal in the true sense of the word. Now we have three prominent national complaints. One-half of the adult population of the United States suffer more or less, either from diseases of the stomach, derangements of the liver, or affections of the kidneys. In no other land under the Heaven are these maladies so general as in this country, and Hostetter's Bitters is a specific for them all, unless organic in their origin, and, therefore, beyond cure. And let those who are fortunate enough to be exempt from them at present understand one great fact, viz: that an occasional use of this vitalizing tonic will as certainly prevent them as the sun will prevent the earth from freezing where its genial beams descend.—Communicated.
