EBENSBURG & CRESSON RAILROAD.

On and after Monday, May 21, 1866, trains on this road will run as follows: LEAVE EBENSBURG—

LOCAL ITEMS.

A CURIOSITY.—Through the kindness of Mr. James Farren, of Washington tp., this county, we have been furnished with a paper printed at Kingston, Ulster co., New York.

"On Wednesday last, the mortal part of WASHINGTON, the Great—the Father of our Country and the friend of Man,—was consigned to the tomb, with solemn honors of funeral pomp."

"A multitude of persons assembled, from many miles round, at Mount Vernon, the great abode and last residence of the illustrious dead. There were the groves—despotic avenues, the beautiful and sublime scenes, the noble mansion—out, alas! the august man himself was not there."

"The following little incident was related to us by an employee on the branch train; it was certainly a laughable occurrence: A young man and the object of his affection, left town on Saturday morning, for a short excursion into the country; returning home by the same train in the evening, the young man pulled out his pocket-book to pay the conductor their passage money, to which the young lady refused, and used the following logic: 'Look here, now, it is my turn to pay, you've expended entirely too much money on me to-day, and I should certainly have an opportunity to do my share.' After considerable squabbling, the young lady carried her point, to the great amusement of the passengers. Clever young lady that."

"GENERAL GEORGE WASHINGTON, Departed this life, on the 14th December, 1799, A.D. 68."

Besides the reading matter, there are about two columns of advertisements—Some are for stray heifers and bulls, (for no person ever heard of the one leaving without the other) some for dry goods and groceries. We subjoin an advertisement of the one-half of a saw mill for sale:

FOR SALE.—The one-half of a Saw Mill, with a convenient place for building, lying in the town of Rochester. By the Mill is an inexhaustible quantity of Pine wood. Also, a stout, healthy, active, Negro Wench. Any person inclined to purchase, may know the particulars by applying to JOHN SCHOONMAKER, Junr., at Rochester. Nov. 23, 1760.

Here is one of a watch lost: LOST—A Watch, on Wednesday last.—The person who has found or may find it, will meet with a suitable reward by handing it to the Printers. Nov. 16, 1799.

Here is another, which would indicate a roving disposition: STRAYED—A Red Bull, branded on both horns P. T. B. Any person having taken up the said bull will be thanked, by giving information thereof to the Printers. Kingston, Dec. 14, 1799.

Printers must have been a d—l of a set of fellows in those days. If a Watch, Bull or Heifer was lost, all that was necessary was to inform the printers. In fact, if anything, except money, was needed, the printers could give it without trouble. Just to think of bulls, heifers and watches being left in their possession until called for. Ridiculous thought.

ANONYMOUS.—We have received an anonymous letter signed "Mary Montague" and purporting to come from four "town girls." If the four will furnish us with their names we will freely publish their communication; otherwise we will have to be excused. The main question treated of in this communication has been agitated about long enough and should now die a natural death. If the young ladies insist on having their communication published we will accommodate them if they furnish us with their names and on no other conditions.

ADVERTISING.—Few persons appreciate the value of liberal and extensive advertising.

Yet it is one of the most powerful aids to the business man that can be conceived. For the benefit of those who can't see it, when the use of advertising is discussed, we give the following instance of its value: "The man who invented 'Drake's Plantation Bitters,' and invented the cabalistic sign—'S. T.—1860—X'—for them, and daubed it all over the world has made an independent fortune. Lately he sold out his right in the invention (after having made as much money as he needed,) for $70,000. After the sale, he was to communicate the significance of the wonderful and world renowned hieroglyphics: 'S. T.—1860—X'—Started trade—1860—X dollars capital. And this is the fact. He started in business in 1860, with a capital of only ten dollars; and by dint of constant, and persistent, and magnanimous advertising, he has amassed a princely fortune inside of a half a dozen years."

A SCREW LOOSE.—On Sunday morning an insane boy escaped from the Poor House and made tracks toward Jackson township, where his people reside. We have come in contact with many persons of all ages and conditions, but we never witnessed an individual so poorly clad. It is a disgrace to the county and an insult to the people. If the Poor House authorities think that they are practicing economy by keeping the inmates naked, it is very well. This thing should be looked after and investigated. If they wish to do away with the system of wearing clothes, they should wait until it is permanently adopted by the eclat of fashion. Poor people are generally the last to obtain the "latest fashions," but in this case they are ahead. We anxiously await the arrival of Godey's Lady Look. We sincerely think that this fashion will be inaugurated.

PENNA.—The following little incident was related to us by an employee on the branch train; it was certainly a laughable occurrence: A young man and the object of his affection, left town on Saturday morning, for a short excursion into the country; returning home by the same train in the evening, the young man pulled out his pocket-book to pay the conductor their passage money, to which the young lady refused, and used the following logic: "Look here, now, it is my turn to pay, you've expended entirely too much money on me to-day, and I should certainly have an opportunity to do my share." After considerable squabbling, the young lady carried her point, to the great amusement of the passengers. Clever young lady that."

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—A resident of Prospect Borough, named Anthony Campbell, says the Johnstown Tribune, disappeared on Tuesday evening of last week, and it is feared has met with foul play. On that evening he called at the office of the Cambria Iron co., to make a payment on some property, but the clerk he wished to see not being in, he left and spent nearly an hour in a neighboring bar-room, waiting for his return. After this waiting he started for the office, but did not enter it. He has not since been heard from. His hat was found in an eddy of the Conemaugh a short distance below town, and it is conjectured that he was robbed and thrown into the river, which was then very high. He was unmarried.

SUICIDES.—On Saturday morning last, Mrs. Sarah Lewis, wife of John Lewis, of Rayne township, Indiana county, committed suicide by hanging. Mr. Lewis and other members of the family, went to the fields to work. Toward noon a son of Mrs. Lewis went to the house and found his mother hanging upon the weaving loom, on the second floor, upon her knees, and quite dead. She was in her sixtieth year.

A German named George Wolfe, who is said to have a wife living in the neighborhood of Shade Furnace, Somerset county, hung himself himself with a rope from a joist in a stable in Hornerstown, (fourth ward of Johnstown,) Wednesday 5th inst. He was of middle age, and his habits intemperate.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Ebensburg is improving. This is an undisputed fact. Within the last few months several new buildings have been commenced and are now almost completed. Besides the new ones in the course of erection, several old ones have been repaired, thus adding to the beauty of our town.

A Card.

[To the Editor of the Democrat & Sentinel.] Your paper of last week contained a statement of gross cruelty, practiced by a female teacher in one of the Public schools of Ebensburg. As a parent of the little sufferer, I return my sincere thanks to the Board of School Directors of Ebensburg, who, though differing from me in political sentiment, cheerfully and almost unanimously complied with my request for the removal of the incumbent who committed this wrong. It also affords me much pleasure to know that the general sense of this community, without regard to party, approves of the action of the Board, and are opposed to the introduction of cruelty as well as partisan prejudice into the Common schools of Ebensburg.

JOHN A. BLAIR.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.—Considerable excitement was created in town on Friday morning last by a telegram dated Pittsburgh, Nov. 7th, announcing the joyful tidings that Maryland had been redeemed by the conservatives, and also that little Delaware had repudiated the teachings of the Radicals; but this was not all. The most important portion of the dispatch read:—"Three thousand dollars worth of Agricultural Implements, shipped this day to A. J. McGuire, Ebensburg, Cambria county, Pa. We have examined Andy's stock of goods and find them entirely sound and saleable. Give him a call."

A JUDY LETTER.—The Editor of the Franklin Spectator received the following from one of his subscribers. It is only one of the many difficulties newspaper men have to contend with: "Oakland November the 5 66 To the Editor of the spectator Enclosed you will find two dollars for the spectator if that is sufficient to pay what is due if not let me now now sir as the spectator changes Hands Every three month I want you to discontinue my paper as there there is no use of me paying for old advertisements From year to year Dont send me any more If you cant live with out go Beging Samuel Fetterman

NEW LANDLORD.—Mr. Peter Linton, formerly one of the proprietors of the Mansion House, Pittsburg, has purchased the Mountain House in this place kept by A. Moore, and takes charge on to-day, Thursday. We are sorry to see Aleck retiring from this important branch of business, for kind and obliging was he and clever at that. Peter will, we have no doubt render satisfaction to the old customers and former patrons of the house. The price paid for the house and furniture was $9,500. Quite a sum of money that.

LADIES' FAIR.—We understand that the young ladies of St. John's Catholic congregation, Altoona, are busily engaged in getting up a fair which will commence about the 11th of December and continue three or four weeks. We wish the fair young ladies every success, and from what we know of them we are sure they will succeed, as they are remarkable for their energy, skill and good taste, and not the least attractive feature, is their suavity of manner.

MISTAKE.—In our last week's issue we informed our readers that the name of the teacher who so cruelly abused the little child, was Miss Eliza Jones. Since then we have been informed that it is not Eliza Jones, but Mary Jane Jones. We are always ready and willing to correct mistakes and more especially in a case of this kind, where so much disgrace and infamy is attached to the offense.

NEW GOODS.—Mr. Harry Shoemaker requests us to state that he has received a large and well assorted stock of new goods, consisting of dry goods, hardware, queens-ware, groceries, &c. Harry does not regard the profits as much as the sales.—You can buy twenty-five per cent. cheaper from him than any other establishment in town. No charge for exhibiting his stock.

—Diaries, Pocket Books and eight thousand extra Habana cigars just received at Murray's Book Store.

LATEST FASHIONS DEMAND

J. W. Bradley's celebrated Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE SPRING) SKIRT.

THE WONDERFUL Flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the DUPLEX ELLIPTIC SKIRT will be experienced particularly in all crowded assemblages, Operas, Carriages, Railroad cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the SKIRT can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress, an invaluable quality in crinoline, not found in any Single Spring Skirt.

A lady having enjoyed the Pleasure, comfort and convenience of wearing the DUPLEX ELLIPTIC STEEL SPRING SKIRT for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

They will not bend or break like the Single Spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when thrown aside as useless. The Hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered; preventing them from wearing out when dragging down stoops, stairs, &c.

The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the FASHION MAGAZINES as the STANDARD SKIRT OF THE FASHIONABLE WORLD.

To enjoy the following estimable advantages in Crinoline, viz: Superior quality, Perfect manufacture, Stylish shape and finish, Flexibility, Durability, Comfort and Economy, inquire for J. W. Bradley's DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.

CAUTION.—To guard against IMPOSITION be particular to NOTICE that skirts offered as "DUPLEX" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs" upon the waistband—none others are genuine. Also Notice that every Hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their Flexibility and Strength, and a combination not to be found in any other SKIRT.

FOR SALE in all Stores where FIRST CLASS SKIRTS are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the Sole Owners of the Patent, WESTS, BRADLEY & CARY, 97 Chambers & 79 & 81 Reade Sts., N. Y. Oct. 11, 1866-3m.
