> DON'T BE EXTRAVAGANT .- The local column of the Altoona Tribune has the following item, which contains so much truth that we extract it for the benefit of our own readers. Extravagance is a sin which should be guarded against, or it will bring the richest man to a pauper's grave. Here is the item :

"If the poor house has any terrors for you, never buy what you don't want. Before you pay three cents for a jewsharp, my boy, ascertain whether you cannot make just as pleasant a noise by whistling, for which Nature furnishes the machinery ; and, before you pay seventy dollars for a coat, young man, find out whether your lady would not be just as glad to see you in one that cost half the money. If she would not, let her erack her own hazle-nuts, and buy her own en times before). 'Tis quite likely that clothes. When you see a man spending two or three dollars a week foolishly, the chances are five to one that he'll live long enough to know how many cents there are in a dollar ; if he don't, he's pretty sure to bequeath that privilege to his widow. When a man asks you to buy earsay, that the inmates of this house that for which you have no use, no matter how cheap it is, don't say yes, until you are sure that some one else wants it in advance."

VISITORS -Mr. James Collins, of Mt. Carmel, Northumberland co., is now on a visit to his numerous friends in this place. Jim is a whole souled fellow, and will stand that the motives which prompt- make friends wherever he goes. We hope that his visits may occur ten times a year

HABEAS CORPUS. - A rather remarkable labeas corpus case was tried yesterday before Hon. H. C. Devine; the nature of which we give as was related to us: About four years since, John M'Entire became acquainted with a woman representing herself to be a widow , he married her, but about eighteen months afterward and the mortification of knowing that he was her second living husband. They then parted; she leaving a child with Mr. M'Entire, who has taken care of it since. The lady, a few weeks since, had the above writ issaed for the body of the child, which this Honorable awarded her.

JAMES J. KAYLOR. Yours &c., The above correspondence we have reived from J. J. Kaylor, Stewart' of the or House of Cambria county. We do t wish to be hanled up by our subscriets for every local which appears in our lumns. In the first place, Mr. Kaylor forms us that he was not at home when the scene described in our last issue was enacted, and he also states that we re perfectly aware of the fact. If we to employ a local reporter to inform " readers when Mr. Kaylor is away om the institution, we wish that the Poor ouse authorities would pay for the same. bout a special agent having been sent Governor Curtin, we have no knowlge. If it was proclaimed to the world the Cambria county Poor House was e best conducted institution of the kind Pennsylvania we have no objection t we would like very much to see this port. If Mr. Kaylor thinks that he can midate us to publish his nonsensical tiers without comment, he is very much histaken. Mr. Kaylor also threatens us with his "power." We have never felt he "power" of any of our party, and we feel much like trying it on for a spell. If he can do us any injury he is welcome to he benefit of it. When we penned the ocal which aroused his "Poor House element," we did not mean to offend him, or any of the officers connected with the insitution. We merely stated facts which very much needed in this place as the old ame under our own observation ; not "hearsay," as Mr. Kaylor has been pleased time be quite dangerous to enter. We to make us believe. We did not intend to make a public attack upon any officer they will commence the good work immeconnected with the institution ; but he by diately. his impudence has invited it and we will tot swerve from the contest. The couneashier in Lloyd & Co.'s bank, also honeit before you again publish any re- ored us with a visit a few days ago. We are at a loss to know what we are to understand by so many visits from our old friend Huff. If we are to receive a poundthe that you jublish the foregoing in cake and a dollar greenback let him make haste as we feel like eating a cake, and > suspense is misery. Col. Robert A. M'Coy, formerly of this place, but now private secretary to Gov. Curtin, also paid a flying visit to his old friends. Long may he wave.

RIDICULOUS .- The editors of the Johnstown Tribune are of the opinion that "Ebensburg whisky is very bad." Poor and deluded fools, do they think that there is no good whisky except what is kept for private use in their own sanctum. We do not profess to be a judge of the "article," but if the editors of that contemptible sheet will call at our office the next time they visit Ebensburg, we will lose half a day in order that they may taste of the different kinds offered for sale in this place .--We would be willing to sacrifice either time or money to accommodate such im-

ROBBERY .- Mr. Joseph Elig, residing about two miles north-east of this place, was robbed on the night of the 13th, inst., of a fine coat, two pair of pants, two pair of boots, and a pocket book containing a considerable amount of money. As this was Mr. Ely's marriage outfit, we sincerely sympathize with him, and hope that he may be successful in ferreting out the unprincipled scamps who committed this felonious act. We know that nothing would grieve us more than to be deprived of our wedding outfit so soon after embracing the hymencal yows ; especially if we had not the wherewith to replace them. TTOT DEBESSION
