EBENSBURG & CRESSON RAILROAD. On and after Monday, Nov. 19, 1866, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG-At 6.05 A. M., connecting with Baltimore Express West and Day Express East. At 7.25 P. M., connecting with Phila, Ex. East and Day Express West.

LEAVE CRESSON-At 8.30 A. M., or on departure of Balt. Express West. At 8.40 P. M., or on departure of the Philadelphia Express West.

LOCAL ITEMS.

contractor and builder of slate roofs, was engaged in erecting one of these upon a Morrell & Co., in Johnstown, and having occasion to ascend to the roof, in order to Road. give some instructions to the workmen, he was accidentally struck by a derrick, which knocked him from the roof, precipitating him a distance of some sixty-five feet. In his fall he struck a carpenter's scaffolding, which was placed against the building, and so great was the force with which he struck it that the structure gave way, and together with the unfortunate man, fell to the ground. His head first reached the ground, and, the fall breaking the spinal column, he is supposed to have died almost instantly. The deceased was about fifty years of age, and leaves a wife and children to mourn his untimely end.

Mission .- Right Reverend M. Domenec, Bishop of this Diocese, held a mission in this place, commencing on Tuesday of last week and ending on last Tuesday .-The object of this mission was to give the members of the Catholic church an opportunity to conform to the rules and regulations of their church. He also administered the sacrament of Confirmation to some twenty-five children. This mission will long be remembered by the Catholic citizens of Ebensburg.

New Counterfeit .- A new and dangerous counterfeit of the fifty dollar legal tender notes, has appeared. It may be detected by the vignette of General Hamilton, which, on inspection, was found to have been split from a two dollar treasury note and neatly pasted on the counterfeit fifty. The engraving of the other portions of the note is cleverly imitated, and can only be distinguished from the genuine by the closest inspection.

REFIRED. - We understand that our former fellow-townsman Dr. J. H. Clark has sold his lease of the Mansion House, Pittsburg, to a gentleman from Greensburg. This will produce quite a change, as the former landlord was a general favorits with all whom business or pleasure called to the smoky city. Success attend him in whatever business he may hereafter

FIRE.-The steam saw mill of Shoemaker & Co., at Sonman, this county, was entirely consumed by fire on the night of the 19th, inst. This is the second mill this firm has had burned at that place ; the first having been burned some eighteen months since. The origin of the fire has not been ascertained. Loss about $3,000. nsurance $2,000.

Court.-On Monday next, Court commences and from the number of causes set down for trial, bids fair to be largely attended. We understand some of the persons injured by the disaster in Johnstown some time since, have entered suits against the Pennsylvania Railroad, which will be tried at the coming term.

Marriages.—The newspapers in vari- | valuable property for sale. ous parts of the country are noting an mmense increase in marriages since the close of the war, showing that nature is extending her recuperative power to make bospital. Statistics state an increase of 55 per cent. in 1866 over 1860.

FALLEN. - Rev. James Prestley, Pastor of the Second United Presbyterian church of Pittsburg, has fallen from grace. He was convicted on the 29th of October, before a Synod composed of the ministers of his own church. The various charges preferred against him are as follows:

First-unkind and cruel treatment of his wife and family. Second-Using vulgar and profane language. Third-Infidelity to his marriage vow. Fourth -Intimacy with females of ill repute. This is nothing new. When a minister so far forgets his calling, and uses his pulpit for political purposes, it is no wonper that the devil tempts him to sin. Brownlow should be next on the list.

KILLED.-Mr. Henry Degan, residing at Lilly's Station, Washington twp., this county, was ran over by an express train going west, on Thursday last, and almost instantly killed. We know of no place FATAL ACCIDENT .- An accident of a along the line of the Pennsylvania R. R. fatal character, occurred in Johnstown, on where more accidents occur than in the Thursday evening last, resulting in the neighborhood of Lilly's Station. It would death of Mr. James Kelley, a resident of seem as if the citizens of that place do Allegheny city. Mr. Kelley, who was a not use the necessary vigilance when traveling along the Road. > Libel. -On Saturday last, Mr. N. P. Sawyer, Ed. of the Pittsburg Republic was convicted of libel in the court of Quarter Sessions of that place, on charge of S. Schoyer and Samuel Riddle Esqs. of Gazette association. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $150 and costs. The Republic supports President Johnson's policy, and for doing so, in a Pittsburg court its Editor would undoubtedly be found

PREPARE FOR WINTER .- The way to save money is to get your work done at R. H. Singer's Smith shop, near the Foundry. Now is the time to get your sled or sleigh ironed, ready for the winter. The time for sharpening is near at hand, and nomical. Try it! Manufactured only by Mr. Singer is preparing nails and shoes, so as to be able to accommodate his cu tomers on short notice. Bring on your work, and "greenbacks" and go away re-

Losr .- Mr. P. Mulvehill of Indiana county, Pa., lost between this place and $115 and $125. From his own statement we have been able to glean that he missed it at Belsano. He offers a reward of $20 for its recovery.

SINGULAR DEATH .- Mr. Wm. Oakes, of Burrell township, Indiana county, while carrying a scap of bees across a field on Wednesday night last, stepped into a rut and fell, striking his chin upon the box, which dislocated his neck, killing him almost instantly.

"A WORD TO THE WISE,"-Those of our readers who intend attending Court next week, would do well to stop at the "Mountain House," kept by Linton & Co. Peter is an accommodating landlord and can keep hotel.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT. -On Saturday last, Mr. Jacob Sharretts, while engaged in station, fell from a ladder, and was severely injured, breaking two of his limbs.

Died-At his residence in Conemaugh Borough, on Tuesday, 20th inst., WM. C. BARBOUR, aged 40 years.

-At his residence near Cresson, Washngton twp., on Saturday Nov. 17th, MR. IGNATIUS ADAMS, aged 100 years.

GODEY'S LADY BOOK .-- We have received the December number of this splendid publication. It is decidedly the best magazine published and no hovsehold should be without it.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS .- We call the Indiana and Centre counties. attention of our readers to the advertisements of F. Shoemaker, John B. Myers, Wm. J. Buck and Sheriff Myers, offering VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.
