NOT IN.

BY ALICE CAREY.

She waited in the drawing room,
Good Mrs. Mable Moore;
Six flounces of a pretty lace
Were on the dress she wore;
Upon her bosom a French rose,
And on her cap some satin bows.

One little foot just peeped without
Her petticoats so white;
Her hair, a little gray, 'tis true,
Was put in curl and bright;
And sweet her glances shone around,
As if some good thing she had found.

The clock was on the stroke of eight,
And still she sat apart,
Now listening close, and laying now
One hand upon her heart;
And toying with her curls and rings,
And doing other girlish things.

At length a step was heard, and then
A ringing at the door;
"Five minutes and a half to soon,"
Said Mrs. Mabel Moore
Then to her maid—"It is no sin.
Go quick, an say, I am not in."

"For if he loves me as he says,
He can afford to wait,
And come again precisely at
Five minutes after eight.
My nerves are really quite unstrung,
So very earnestly he rung."

But true love never did run smooth,
As oftentimes is told.
And when the door was opened wide,
And shivering in the cold,
The maid beheld the expected guest,
Shamefiled and courtseyed her best.

And told him with a grace as sweet
As if she craved a boon,
Her mistress had declared it was
A little bit too soon.
And that she thought it was no sin
To send him word she was not in

"Ah, very well," the guest replied,
"In truth I make no doubt,
That whether she be in or no,
I've surely found her out."
And she who sent from the door
Remained Mrs. Mable Moore.

Curious Mental Phenomena.

Dr. Carpenter is delivering a course of lectures, at Manchester, on the physiology of the nervous system. In his fifth lecture, the doctor related some curious instances of aberration of mind. He spoke of a very learned professor, some years ago, at Aberdean, Dr. Robert Hamilton, whose essay on the national debt largely conributed to the abolition of the sinking fund. In public this man was a shadow. He pulled off his hat to his own wife in the streets, and apologised for not having the pleasure of her acquaintance.—He went to one of his classes early in the morning, with one of his wife's white stockings on one leg, and a black one on the other. He often spent the whole time of the class in moving from the table the hats, which his students as constantly returned. He sometimes invited the students to call upon him, and fined them for insulting him, if they called. He ran against a cow, and begged her pardon, called her Madam, hoping she had not been hurt. He would run against posts, and chide them for not getting out of the way. Yet if any one was with him at the time, his conversation would be perfectly logical. Another instance of absence of mind was quoted in the case of a Scotch clergyman, who was invited to a party in Edinburgh, at a time when it was usual to mix devotion with social intercourse. He was requested to conduct the services before the company broke up; and he therefore knelt down and began to pray in an appropriate manner. But soon he apparently entirely forgot where he was, and he continued his prayer as if in the quietude of his own chamber. He made reflections, in the prayer, on the mode in which he had spent the evening, and on the individuals present with him at the party. When he had concluded his prayer he rose up, took off his coat and waistcoat, and was about to proceed to further extremities when his friends stopped him. More familiar instances of absence of mind were mentioned as occuring to more than one gentleman, who have been known to go up stairs for an evening party, and have actually undressed and got into bed, while their wives, perhaps were waiting for them below. After giving other cases of spontaneous mental abstraction, the lecturer spoke of the case of induced reverie, commonly known under the absurd name of electriebiology. All the essential phenomena of this state had been shown to him (several years before "electro-biology" was brought beford the public, by Mr. Braid, in the person of a gentleman, well known in Manchester, a man of high intelligence, and utterly incapable of deceiving, who has the power of spontaneous abstraction in a very remarkable degree, and who when fixing his attention for a very few seconds upon any object, loses so entirely his voluntary control, that he is completely at the mercy of external suggestions, as his whole mind is for the time possessed with whatever idea may be communicated to him by another. This he (Dr. Carpenter) considered to be the essential character of this state of mind—a condition in which the power of the will over the current of the thought is entirely suspended, while the the sensorium is more open to extravagant impressiones than it is in ordinary reverie; but otherwise the two states are essentially the same.

FASHIONABLE YOUNG LADIES.—"What is the life of a would be Fashionable young lady?"

It is to go to a model boarding school, kept by an ex-French milliner; to be put in a room with four promiscuous young ladies, and to learn in three days more mischief than her grandmother ever dreamed of. It is to stay there at the tune of thirty dollars per week, for several quarters, and come home "finished" and superficial, with a taste of Latin, a touch of French, a smattering of Italian, German and Spanish, and portfolio full of crooked horses, lame sheep, and extraordinary looking abortions of cattle and fowl in general, the types of which were never found in Noah's menagarie. It is to sit in the drawing-room in a flounce silk dress, with a waist half a yard in circumference, be-curled, be-scented, and be-jeweled; to receive morning calls, while mamma looks through her spectacles, and tries to mend Mademoiselle's stockings. It is to have Mr. Fitz Humbug some fine day, get on knees, and request Mademoiselle to make him, what she has all along been desiring to do, "the happiest of men." It is to wear a white satin dress, an orange wreath, a long fleecy veil, a diamond pin, and respond Amen! to a quantity of things of which Mademoiselle does not understand the full import. It is to commence housekeeping where the "old folks" leave off; it is to patronise fast horses, ruinous upholsters, operas, concerts, theaters, balls, and fetes of all kinds.—It is to bring a few sickly children into existence, to be tortured into eternity by careless hirelings. It is to find after a few years probation, that Mr. Fitz Humbug is just what his name imports. It is to have an "execution" in the house; it is for Madame to go into hysterics, and on coming to, find herself in the sixth story in "lodgings," with a "tight" husband, an airtight stove, a loose wrapper and a crying baby.—Fanny Fern.

MOTORPATHY!

OUR Institution at Halstead Hall, Rochester, N. Y., is now in the successful treatment of Chronic diseases, by this system of Therapeutics, which, for rapidity and reliable, based upon new pathological principles, by which the worst forms of PROLAPSUS UTERI, and other functional and organic derangements are cured without supporters, or any of the usual treatment of the day. It controls with ease the most unmanageable and long standing diseases, without pain or inconvenience. The principles of Motorpathy have been thoroughly tested in the treatment of some five thousand cases of female diseases, some of which have been of twenty-five years standing, others a few days.

MOTORPATHY gives vitality and force to the functional powers of all the organs. It restores the constitution from the abuses of disease, from years of self indulgence, and is the only agent which will cure spinal difficulties, prolapsus and obstinate neuralgia. It is equally efficient in the cure of incipient consumption, bronchial affections, paralysis, nervous derangements, liver complaints, and all troubles arising from organic weakness, or torpid circulation, as dyspepsia, dysentery, rheumatism, &c. &c.

This treatment has also been successful in epilepsy, heart disease and dropsy. In all cases of peculiar nervous excitability, loss of memory, or all the aberrations of mind where the Lunatic Asylum is forbiding, the success in this institution is truly gratifying.

There is an extensive WATER CURE attached, with gardens, lawns and spacious accommodations, where kindness and pleasure are made among the remedial means to secure buoyancy of spirits and cheerful enjoyment.

A work on MOTORPATHY, and other particulars, can be had, free of postage, by enclosing ten letter stamps directed to

MAN, KNOW THYSELF.
An Invaluable Book for 25 Cents.
EVERY FAMILY SHOULD HAVE A COPY.

6000 COPIES SOLD IN LESS THAN 3 MONTHS.—600 pages, 12mo. Illustrations, bound and printed, just issued DR. HUNTER'S MEDICAL MANUAL AND HAND BOOK FOR THE AFFLICTED—Containing an outline of the origin, progress, treatment and cure of every form of disease contracted by promiscuous, solitary, or unfortunate intercourse, or by sexual excess, with advice for their prevention, written in a familiar style a voiding all medical technicalities, and every thing that would offend the ear of decency, from the result of some twenty years' experience exclusively devoted to the cure of diseases of a delicate or private nature.

To which is added, receipts for the cure of the above diseases, and a treatise on the causes, symptoms and cure of the Fever and Ague, for the country at large. Only a copy, will be forwarded to any part of the United States, by mail, free of postage. Address, post-age paid, Cousen & Co., Publishers, or "box 196," Post Office, Philadelphia.

☞ This is without exception, the most comprehensive and intelligible work published on the class of diseases of which it treats. Avoiding all technical terms, it addresses itself to the reason of its readers. It is free from all objectionable matter, and no parent, however fastidious, can object to placing it in the hands of his son. The author has devoted many years to the treatment of the various complaints treated of, and "with no little breath to puff," and "too little presumption to impose," he has offered to the world at a merely nominal price of 25 cents, the fruits of some twenty years' most successful practice.—HERALD

☞ No teacher or parent should be without the knowledge imparted in this invaluable work. It would save years of pain, mortification and sorrow to the youth under their charge.—PEOPLE'S ADVOCATE.

☞ Professional clergymen in this, in a letter of our "Hunter Medical Manual," says: "Thousands upon thousands of our youth, by evil example and the influence of the passions, have been led into the habit of self-pollutions without realising the sinful fearful consequences upon themselves and their posterity. The constitutions of thousands who are raising families have been enfeebled, if not broken down and they do not know the cause or the cure. Any thing that can be done to add enlightened information on this subject, and ultimately to remove this wide spread source of human wretchedness, would confer the greatest blessing next to the religion of Jesus Christ, on the present and coming generations. Intemperance, for the use of intoxicating drinks, though it has slain thousands upon thousands, is not a greater scourge to the human race. Accept my thanks on behalf of the afflicted, and, believe me, your co-worker in the good work you are actively engaged in."

One copy will be forwarded, (securely enveloped and postage paid,) on receipt of 25 cents, or six copies for $1. Address Cousen & Co., Publishers, Box 196, Philadelphia.

effected by this medicine, and directs all others to the following only, to assure those who are so unfortunate to be afflicted with the terrible disease heretofore regarded incurable, that Lake's preparation

Is almost infallible in its Cure.

From Mrs. Brooks, widow of May James Brooks, late of Concord, Ohio.

CONCORD, Feb. 3, 1853.

MR Z LAKE—SIR Please send me another bottle of Fit Medicine, as I do not like to be without it on hand. When I commenced giving the medicine to my son it was as much as I could to force it to take it per day. He has now taken the one over two months, and has not had a fit in two months, and those very light. His body and mind are very much improved, and by the blessing of God, I feel that the medicine will restore his body and mind to their proper health. He is 28 years old, and has had fits over 12 years, so he has been a very frightful case, very bad indeed to take on himself and mind. Therefore, if the fits have to be suspended for medicine to cure him, but nothing has to be stated in it shall be used your medicine. Respectfully yours, POLLY BROOKS

From Judson London County Superintendent of the Infirmary Lunatic Asylum.

MOUNTAINVILLE, Feb. 4, 1853.

MR LAKE—SIR Please send me three bottles of your Fit Medicine as I may not see you, but shall write for more by and by. Your medicine has done wonders. I gave it to Miss Julia Dennis, she was fifteen years old and had had fits, I believe, the greatest part of the time, which could not be brought out to the surface. After taking the medicine a few days, she had a fine spell of sickness, and has had no fits since. She had fits or symptoms almost daily. She and her mother concur with me in saying that I ever received the medicine of me. She has got a perfect cure. I also gave the one bottle to Miss Jane Henderson and Ally Carby, who have had fits almost daily, for a number of years. These fits have ceased, and I believe the medicine will have the desired effect. More notice has been expected by the friends of the above patients for receiving, all to no purpose. The cure was perfect for six months to a period, and I can cheerfully recommend it as a valuable discovery. Respectful yours,
J. F. WELLER, Superintendent Ashtabula Co. Infirmary.

HERE IS YOUR REMEDY.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS AFTER 43 YEARS SUFFERING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Galpin, of 70, St. Mary's Street, Weymouth, dated May 15th, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY, SIR—At the age of 16 my wife (whom we call) caught a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less sore, and greatly inflamed. Her agonies were distracting, and for months together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised was tried, but in vain; since then her health suffered severely, and the state of her legs was terrible. I have often read your advertisements, and advised her to try your Pills and Ointment; and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she consented to do so. She commenced six weeks ago, and, strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless, without scars or scar, and sleep is sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufferings of my wife during the 43 years, and contrast them with her pleasant enjoyment of health, you would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so greatly alleviating the sufferings of a fellow creature. (Signed) WILLIAM GALPIN

A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE, CURED OF A BAD LEG OF THIRTY YEARS STANDING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. William Abbs, Builder of Lee Green, of Bushcliffe, near Huddersfield, dated May 31st, 1851.

To Professor Holloway, SIR—I suffered for a period of 30 years from a bad leg, the result of two or three different accidents at Gas Works; accompanied by scorbutic symptoms. I had recourse to a variety of medical advice, without deriving any benefit, and was even told that the leg must be amputated, yet, in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in about a time, that no one who had not witnessed it would credit the fact. (Signed) WM. ABBS

The truth of this statement can be verified by Mr. W. P. England, Chemist 19 Market-st, Huddersfield)

A DREADFUL BAD LEG CURED IN ONE MONTH.

Extract from a Letter from Mr Frederick Turner, of Penhurst, Kent, dated December 13th 1850.

To Professor Holloway, Dear Sir—My wife has suffered from bad Breasts for nearly two years, and during the whole period had had the best medical attendance, but all to no use. Having before heated an awful wound in my own leg by your unrivalled medicine, I determined again to use your Pills and Ointment, and therefore gave them a trial in her case, and fortunate it was I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and the benefit that various other branches of my family have derived from their use is really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends. (Signed) FREDERICK TURNER.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—

Bad Legs	Chiego-foot	Fistulas	Sore Nipples
Bad Breasts	Chilblains	Gout	Sore-throats
Burns	Chapped hands	Lumbago	Skin-diseases
Bunions	Corns (soft)	Swellings	Scurvy
Bite of Moschetoes	Cancers	Lumbago	Sore-heads
Coco-bay	Elephantiasis	Scalds	Yaws

PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY,
HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT.
ESTABLISHED 1825.

Capital $300,000.

This Company have its operations upon such a perfect plan of cash premiums, well scattered risks and long experience in estimating hazards, that the interests of all concerned are protected. The Company receives from timed insurance by steamers, and in small sums, a large annual deposit. Prompt this fund, as a public trust, losses are paid. This is the only plan of Insurance which can long deserve the public confidence, and the undersigned Agent confidently invites his friends to secure themselves at this Agency, against

Fire or Lake Risks.

The advantages of this contract need scarcely be urged upon wealthy men, or merchants, for they rarely neglect it, and if they do fire leave them other resources. It is especially valuable to the Lumberman, mechanics and others of moderate means—who, perhaps, have little less than a home and investments in the world

These should never neglect to insure; a fire which may visit them at any hour, would leave them homeless, and with no capital to commence again, and the universal cry is go to WOOD & CO'S, clothing store, he is in town yet and intends to stay here. So if you want to buy he has everything you want in the clothing line, you can call and examine, if you buy and when he gets home if the goods should not suit you, you can bring them back and WOOD will pay you your money; he won't say I don't know you, well I think you got that some other place. What he says is truth and truth will prevail.

In order to supply the wants of every man and boy, I have secured the services of Mr. JOHN GRAHAM, an experienced cutter and practical workman. So all who wish clothing made to order can rely upon it. Clothing cut and made for gentlemen who wish to furnish their own cloth, and warranted to fit.

A general assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, and all kinds goods always on hand, and of the latest styles and worked. Our goods are the most choice and selected in the city and under our own supervision. All I ask is a look before you buy, and be convinced that I will sell 50 per cent cheaper than any other house in the state. I invite all, particularly the mechanic, laborer and farmer as to their interest and as to my interest and expense. Boys Clothing of all sizes always on hand. Please don't forget No. 7, Brown's Hotel, State street, next door north of Carter's Exchange Office, for WOOD defies the world in prices, durability and quality.
