As we have a never-failing supply of nater, we can execute ait workentrasted to our care on short notice and in the best manner, which our oil patrons know this is for the benefit of new ones.

Feeling thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore extended toward us, we hope by strict attention to business, to merit a continuance of custom. As for our broad cloths, we would say we have a large Pile of them, consisting of black, brown, drab, olive, green, &c. They are free from cotton, and were not made to sell to slop-shop in libra, but to farmers who want a good article. Guretottis have taken all the premium: at the several Pairs held in Erle since the establishment of that society, and we challange all our neighboring manufacturers to meet us there next fail, and let their goods speak for themselves, and not, after the Fair is over, say they had let better goods at home.

P. S.—All persons having insettled accounts with us, will please call and settlethe sage on or before the last of July next, as we need money to pay pressing debt.
