

The Gunnison's Massacre. We have heretofore published an abstract of the massacre of Captain Gunnison and his men...

GOVERNOR.—Deeming that it may be of interest to you, I hasten to send you a succinct account of the late terrible massacre which occurred in this vicinity on the morning of the 26th inst.

On the morning of the 26th inst., Captain J. W. Gunnison, with a portion of his scientific party, an escort of seven men, and Mr. William Potter, as guide, left our camp on Saturday for the purpose of surveying the lakes.

On the morning of the 26th, at 11 A. M., the non-commissioned officer in charge of the escort, came running breathlessly into camp, saying that their party had been surprised, and he believed all had been killed.

Reaching the vicinity of the camp, I found the remaining corpses of the party, all of which were stripped, and some mutilated. Captain Gunnison was killed by fifteen arrows, and had his left arm cut off.

Reaching the vicinity of the camp, I found the remaining corpses of the party, all of which were stripped, and some mutilated. Captain Gunnison was killed by fifteen arrows, and had his left arm cut off.

Reaching the vicinity of the camp, I found the remaining corpses of the party, all of which were stripped, and some mutilated. Captain Gunnison was killed by fifteen arrows, and had his left arm cut off.

Reaching the vicinity of the camp, I found the remaining corpses of the party, all of which were stripped, and some mutilated. Captain Gunnison was killed by fifteen arrows, and had his left arm cut off.

Reaching the vicinity of the camp, I found the remaining corpses of the party, all of which were stripped, and some mutilated. Captain Gunnison was killed by fifteen arrows, and had his left arm cut off.

Reaching the vicinity of the camp, I found the remaining corpses of the party, all of which were stripped, and some mutilated. Captain Gunnison was killed by fifteen arrows, and had his left arm cut off.

Reaching the vicinity of the camp, I found the remaining corpses of the party, all of which were stripped, and some mutilated. Captain Gunnison was killed by fifteen arrows, and had his left arm cut off.

A late number of the New York Tribune contains an account of the Erie Railroad Company's petition to the Governor for a change of gauge.

The circumstances leading to the difficulties at Erie are various and complicated, and we have room but for a few of them. It appears that the gauge of the Buffalo Railroad is four feet eight inches, and that of the Ohio Road four feet ten inches.

The circumstances leading to the difficulties at Erie are various and complicated, and we have room but for a few of them. It appears that the gauge of the Buffalo Railroad is four feet eight inches, and that of the Ohio Road four feet ten inches.

The circumstances leading to the difficulties at Erie are various and complicated, and we have room but for a few of them. It appears that the gauge of the Buffalo Railroad is four feet eight inches, and that of the Ohio Road four feet ten inches.

The circumstances leading to the difficulties at Erie are various and complicated, and we have room but for a few of them. It appears that the gauge of the Buffalo Railroad is four feet eight inches, and that of the Ohio Road four feet ten inches.

The circumstances leading to the difficulties at Erie are various and complicated, and we have room but for a few of them. It appears that the gauge of the Buffalo Railroad is four feet eight inches, and that of the Ohio Road four feet ten inches.

The circumstances leading to the difficulties at Erie are various and complicated, and we have room but for a few of them. It appears that the gauge of the Buffalo Railroad is four feet eight inches, and that of the Ohio Road four feet ten inches.

The circumstances leading to the difficulties at Erie are various and complicated, and we have room but for a few of them. It appears that the gauge of the Buffalo Railroad is four feet eight inches, and that of the Ohio Road four feet ten inches.

The circumstances leading to the difficulties at Erie are various and complicated, and we have room but for a few of them. It appears that the gauge of the Buffalo Railroad is four feet eight inches, and that of the Ohio Road four feet ten inches.

The circumstances leading to the difficulties at Erie are various and complicated, and we have room but for a few of them. It appears that the gauge of the Buffalo Railroad is four feet eight inches, and that of the Ohio Road four feet ten inches.

ERIE, PA. SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 24, 1853.

Railroad Events of the Week.

Not much of consequence has transpired this week in regard to railroads. The railroad men have made several attempts to place obstructions in our streets, but as yet have accomplished nothing.

The United States Marshal, Mr. Fross, and his Deputy, Mr. Sprad, were both here and served some additional writs. It is perhaps needless to say that in doing so both were treated with that courtesy and kindness a law-abiding people like ours, always extend to those clothed with authority.

In Harler Creek and in the city several of the workmen on the road have been arrested, for placing obstructions in the Highways—those in the city were fined to the tune of $30 a piece, but they entered bail, and were discharged.

Probably the best abused man in the State, outside of the county of Erie, is Gov. BROTZ. The Buffalo papers, and the Cleveland papers, the New York Times and the New York Tribune, "Fray, Blauch, and Sweetheart" all in full cry, have pounced down upon his Excellency by reason, he says, of his sympathy with his constituents.

Probably the best abused man in the State, outside of the county of Erie, is Gov. BROTZ. The Buffalo papers, and the Cleveland papers, the New York Times and the New York Tribune, "Fray, Blauch, and Sweetheart" all in full cry, have pounced down upon his Excellency by reason, he says, of his sympathy with his constituents.

Probably the best abused man in the State, outside of the county of Erie, is Gov. BROTZ. The Buffalo papers, and the Cleveland papers, the New York Times and the New York Tribune, "Fray, Blauch, and Sweetheart" all in full cry, have pounced down upon his Excellency by reason, he says, of his sympathy with his constituents.

Probably the best abused man in the State, outside of the county of Erie, is Gov. BROTZ. The Buffalo papers, and the Cleveland papers, the New York Times and the New York Tribune, "Fray, Blauch, and Sweetheart" all in full cry, have pounced down upon his Excellency by reason, he says, of his sympathy with his constituents.

Probably the best abused man in the State, outside of the county of Erie, is Gov. BROTZ. The Buffalo papers, and the Cleveland papers, the New York Times and the New York Tribune, "Fray, Blauch, and Sweetheart" all in full cry, have pounced down upon his Excellency by reason, he says, of his sympathy with his constituents.

Probably the best abused man in the State, outside of the county of Erie, is Gov. BROTZ. The Buffalo papers, and the Cleveland papers, the New York Times and the New York Tribune, "Fray, Blauch, and Sweetheart" all in full cry, have pounced down upon his Excellency by reason, he says, of his sympathy with his constituents.

The Meadville Gazette, in common with other journals we respect, "blames" the citizens of Erie for their course on railroads. It is easy enough for an Editor to blame or praise, even reprove, for the Erie Pennsylvania.

The Meadville Gazette, in common with other journals we respect, "blames" the citizens of Erie for their course on railroads. It is easy enough for an Editor to blame or praise, even reprove, for the Erie Pennsylvania.

The Meadville Gazette, in common with other journals we respect, "blames" the citizens of Erie for their course on railroads. It is easy enough for an Editor to blame or praise, even reprove, for the Erie Pennsylvania.

The Meadville Gazette, in common with other journals we respect, "blames" the citizens of Erie for their course on railroads. It is easy enough for an Editor to blame or praise, even reprove, for the Erie Pennsylvania.

The Meadville Gazette, in common with other journals we respect, "blames" the citizens of Erie for their course on railroads. It is easy enough for an Editor to blame or praise, even reprove, for the Erie Pennsylvania.

The Meadville Gazette, in common with other journals we respect, "blames" the citizens of Erie for their course on railroads. It is easy enough for an Editor to blame or praise, even reprove, for the Erie Pennsylvania.

The Meadville Gazette, in common with other journals we respect, "blames" the citizens of Erie for their course on railroads. It is easy enough for an Editor to blame or praise, even reprove, for the Erie Pennsylvania.

The Meadville Gazette, in common with other journals we respect, "blames" the citizens of Erie for their course on railroads. It is easy enough for an Editor to blame or praise, even reprove, for the Erie Pennsylvania.

The Meadville Gazette, in common with other journals we respect, "blames" the citizens of Erie for their course on railroads. It is easy enough for an Editor to blame or praise, even reprove, for the Erie Pennsylvania.

The Meadville Gazette, in common with other journals we respect, "blames" the citizens of Erie for their course on railroads. It is easy enough for an Editor to blame or praise, even reprove, for the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

At present I do not think it worth the while to publish any of the Erie papers, but I will say a few words in regard to the Erie papers, and the Erie papers, and the Erie papers.

At present I do not think it worth the while to publish any of the Erie papers, but I will say a few words in regard to the Erie papers, and the Erie papers, and the Erie papers.

At present I do not think it worth the while to publish any of the Erie papers, but I will say a few words in regard to the Erie papers, and the Erie papers, and the Erie papers.

At present I do not think it worth the while to publish any of the Erie papers, but I will say a few words in regard to the Erie papers, and the Erie papers, and the Erie papers.

At present I do not think it worth the while to publish any of the Erie papers, but I will say a few words in regard to the Erie papers, and the Erie papers, and the Erie papers.

At present I do not think it worth the while to publish any of the Erie papers, but I will say a few words in regard to the Erie papers, and the Erie papers, and the Erie papers.

At present I do not think it worth the while to publish any of the Erie papers, but I will say a few words in regard to the Erie papers, and the Erie papers, and the Erie papers.

At present I do not think it worth the while to publish any of the Erie papers, but I will say a few words in regard to the Erie papers, and the Erie papers, and the Erie papers.

At present I do not think it worth the while to publish any of the Erie papers, but I will say a few words in regard to the Erie papers, and the Erie papers, and the Erie papers.

At present I do not think it worth the while to publish any of the Erie papers, but I will say a few words in regard to the Erie papers, and the Erie papers, and the Erie papers.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.

When I address a branch of the law, and don't uphold our Erie neighbors in any way, but denounce Pennsylvania, it is to be pardoned for the benefit of Ohio and New York, that we do not like the Erie Pennsylvania.