ERIE, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1854.

TRINESS DIRECTORY IRA S. GRAVES. Manufacturer Manufactury of the corner of DR. S. C. BROWNEL

DETTIST. South side of the Public Square, be-wife and Peach Streets, Erie, Pa. REEDTYPE LIKENESSEN FOR 1 DOLLAR. E H. ABELL

T. D. EDWARDS. ET ATD COUNCELLOR at Law. Warren Pa. Promisi business and collections will receive means

D D WALKER & CO.,

CARSON GRAHAM. MY AND COUNSELLER AT LAW, Office on French St. East corner of the Park, Brie. T. W. MOORE, droceries, Provisions, Wines, Liquors, Candies, One-deer below Booth & Stewart's State-st. VINCENT. HIMROD & Co., CARRE of Stover. Hollow Ware, Engines, Ma-THOMAS M AUSTIN, action the rich of a. Looms & co., a clock, Watches, Jawelry, Silver Spoons, Musicipants, Looking Glasses, Lamps and Pancy H. JARECKI mur, west nide of State Street, Rrie, Pa. L. N. TIBBALS & CO.

LITS OF THE PIRM OF WALKER & TIBBALS.)

F. Common on and Shipping Morchants, and deal-coat. Floar. Fish, Salt, Water Lime, Plaster, &c., - book, Eric. Pa. Packages intended for our car-B. GUNNISON.

in Books, Stationary, Monthly Magazines, Chesprations, Shoet Music, Newspapers, Hold Pens, Pock-ary, 45. First door west of the Robd House, Eric. BOOTH & STEWART. at and Retail Dealers in Fancy and staple Dry al Millinery, No. 6, Poor People's Row, opposite LIDDELL, KEPLER & CO.

ture of Iron Fence, Railing, Steam Boilers, oors, Fire Proof Shutters, and all kinds of Muchi-Fancy Custings, &c., done to order. CLARK & METCALF. a and retail dealers in Dry Goods, Carpets, and ceries, No. 1 Reed House.

JOHN B. COOK,

caple & Fancy Dry Goods, and the Ordatest va-STERRETT & GRAY. WM. S. LANE,

ARBUCKLE & KEPLER, r Block, State street, Brie. Pa. DR C. BRANDES. nd Status - Office at his residence on Eighth twen Yresch and Holland; Eric, Pa.

W SANFORD & CO., 16 A Surver, Bank Notes, Drafts, Certificates of Sight Exchange on the principal cities for the latest the lat T HERON STUART.

sysician-Residence on Fourth be old Apothecary Hall RUFUS REED. English, German and American Hardware and Jim, Naila, Anvila, Vices, fron and Steel No. 3

CADWELL & BENNETT. bbers, and Retail Dealers in Dry Goods, Gro-ekery, Glassware, Carpeting, Hardware, Iron, Spikes, &c. Empire Stores State Street, clow Brown's Hotel, Eric, Pa. Vices, Bellows, Axle Arms, Springs, and a ortment of Saddle and Carriage Triumings 8. MERVIN SMITH. at Wright's store Erie. Pa GEORGE H. CUTLER.

Liw, Girard, Erie County, Pa. 'Collections' usiness attended to with prominess and dis JOSIAH KELLOGG. and Commission Murchant, on the Public and State street.

Paster and White Fish, constantly for sale. J. G. & W. I. MILLS, and Wholesale Dealers in Groceries, Wines, gurs—Also Foreign Fruit, Nuts, Pickles and Store, Lobsters, Preserves, and Hermetrically icles of every description always on hand, No i Block, State-st,, opposite Brown's New Ho tark their season, Oysters in shell, from J Du meet., New York, which will be sold table trees. A. C. Jackson, Ag't, Eric, Pa. CARTER & BROTHER. M. Letail dealers in Drugu, Medicine. Par of Glass, &c., No. 6, Reed House, Erie.

JAMES LYTLE. hant Tailor, on the public squa tate street, Brie. JOHN H. BURTON & CO. AM RETAIL designs in Drugs, Medicines, Dye DURLIN & SLOAN, botal School and Miscellaneous Stationery, and Printer's Cards. Hotel, Thie Pa ORS BEEBE & STEWART. out and Surgeons. Office and Resider from 7 to 8, A. M: 1 to 2, and 6 to 7. P. M.

JOHN HEARN & CO. WERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY Removed to No. 5 Reed Block, State Street.

Thisress closes at 114 o'clock, A. M.

GEORGE J. MORTON. ad Commission Merchant, Public Dock, E 4. Salt, Fish, Flour and Plaster. I ROZENSWEIG & Co. AND RETAIL DEALERS in Engelgn and Do the ready made clothing, Boots and Shoes Cit's Block, State street, Erie.

MARSHALL & VINCENT. MURRAY WHALLON.

TIBBAIS, & HAYES. Dry Goods, Dry Grocories, Crocekry, Hard No. 1: Brown's New Hotel. SMITH JACKSON.

W. THORNTON. NOTARY PUBLIC.

M. CHAPIN, READERT DESTINE-Office in

BR. O. L. RLLIOTT.

Resident Dentist: Office and dwell the South side of the Public Sanson

Select Poetry

YANKEE'S AUTORIOGRAPHY. EDITED BY WILLIAM BORTH.

Min, I was born and was raised in Connecticut Bolted to sea, and was wrecked in Jipan: Quite a respectable figure I 'spect I out, When, coming back, to keep school I began.

tiness at the saw-mill I proved a top-sawyer. And as a minister made a small splurge; Reckon I felt more at home as a lawyer, Ere, as a doctor, I learned how to,purge.

But the long words in the medical legicon Soun I forgot for a couple of years, spent in campaigning against the darmed Mexicas When I commanded the Bragg volunteers Just for a change, then, a paper I edited,

Scorehed politicians, and pitched into books

Austrian plenipo-General Snooks. Tis a slow life that of minister resident, Posting dispatches to kings and what not but as they purpose to run me for President Hanged if I care to regine at my lot

That was before I was envoy accredited.

Choice Miseellanp

A SALT WATER BUBBLE. BY HAWSER MARTINGALE

CALICO JACK.

like Arion on the Dolphins's back, "Porpoises! porpoises! porpoises!"

Such was the cry one morning about six bells. on board the ship Lebster, of Portsmouth, N H. and the cry was taken up in all parts of the ship, and the shout of "porpoises!" "porpoises!" was heard in every key, from the gruff bass of the boatswain, to the shrill treble of the cabin

The ship Lobster was bound to Liverpool, and was now approaching soundings off Cape Clear, after a long and boisterous passage. The crew were a lively set of fellows, and eagerly seized nnon anything which promised excitement and a little relief from the monetony usually attended on a long passage across the Atlantic. The cry of "norpoises." seemed a magic charm to rouse all their energies into action, and every man hastened to the weather side of the deck, and Willow and Stone Ware, Flour, Pich, Salt, Glass, aler, Shot. Cupe, Safety Fuse, &c., &c., French posite the Reed House, Erie, Pa. and Prima and Canal Boate, Vessels, Hotels, And Prima and Canal Boate, Prim gasing towards that part of the ocean indicated d Cot verillor at Law.—Office ever Jackson's who was standing on the starboard cat-head, both-East corner of the Public Suare. holding on by the fore tack.

> idly approaching the ship. They seemed to be out of the water, and playing a variety of antics, the captain's razors." which would have excited the admiration of a

"Where is the captain?" exclaimed Mr. Westmacot, the mate. "Steward, call the captain." "... Ayo, aye, sir," and that sable functionary dived below. "Hand along the harpown!" velled the mate.

"Bend on the end of the fore-top-sail balliards!"

"Aye, aye, sir." And now Captain Rutherford, in marvellow scenty costume, came rushing on deck, with eager determination in his look, as if he was resolved on mighty deeds. "Where are the nornoises!" he exclaimed as he aprang out of the companion way. In three bounds he reached the for eastle; the Lobster was not an everlastingly long, anskish looking, modern mammoth

"Here they are, sir! almost under the bows!" screamed Sam Starkweather.

Captain Rutherford took his station on the bowsprit shrouds, albeit he was pretty sure of a ducking. "Reach me the horpoon. Be lively, ant, and the ship's bottom being a little foal. lads! What are you about! Now stand by!-See all clear to haul one of those fellows aboard!" and with stalwart arms he brandished the death- to say-"catch me and eat me!" in such an imdealing instrument.

A tall block was Luthrough which the topsail habiard was rove. and then made fast to the eve of the piece of rope permanently attached to the barpoon.

ger, and attracted by a very natural curiosity. of animal spirits, or too career to display his wonderous activity, made a circle beneath the bow- ge's Shoal-porpoises in the broad oceansprit, which brought him near the stern of the vessel, and directly beneath the feet of his formidable foe, armed with the weapon of destruc-

"Now for it!" shouted the Cap'ain, in a voice of thunder, as the harpoon left his hands, and was buried deeply in the back of the porpoise .-"Haul in! haul in! why don't you haul in?"

"Haul in! haul in! responded Mr. Westmacot the mate, and the remainder of the crew in cho, without being well provided with fishing gear of rus, as they roused in the slack of the rope, drew, all kinds. I had hooks of various sizes, from a the struggling and astonished fish from beneath hallibut book, double shanked for an albicore. the ship, and after a severe struggle, hoisted him and ganged with stout wire, down to a hook up to the bowsprit. "A howline! A running bowline to clan over lose him-the harpoon is drawing out!"

A running bowline, formed out of the fore-topmast-staysail down-hall, was thrown over his tain or the mates cared much about fishing. I tail, notwithstanding the convulsive efforts of the had it pretty much all my own way. porpoise to free himself from the murderous "One unlucky day after we had made Rons. iron; the moone was jammed fast, and the mate ! vista, and were standing in for St. Jago, with a in a triumphant voice proclaimed that he-that i moderate breeze, I heard a cry on deck, of "dolis, the fish-was safe. In a few moments he phin-two big dolphins right under the bows!"the crew, whose white garments indicated by busily engaged in making up some old duck into many a ranguinary spot and streak, the bloody a pair of trowsers, at the time-but the moment the Empire Block, rorner of State and Fifth | ped of his jacket or outdoor in sense solutions the Empire Block, rorner of State and Fifth | ped of his jacket or outdoor in sense solutions and state. The harslet, resembling a pig in appearance, up state. ned of his jacket of blubber in true scientific stinctively put them in my pocket, and rushed on less size was after him. ance as well as flavor, was carefully preserved, "Where are the dolphine!" I exclaimed, as I other porpoises astonished at my unexpected con- had died on the field of battle, visited the warrior In this perilous condition, nothing was left but of safe at the blockhouse. Their escape and all passed over to the cook, who seen had it ready seised the grainee, which was lying on the forefor the frying-pan, and in due time it appeared in the cable, and formed a welcome addition to rapidly rising to windward, and the watch were the coefficient of the Hockhocking river, that the Indians and tell them she had been sheated in the history of Indian warfare, which was recorded on the persons associated on the persons associated on the persons as dearly as possible, and this reacted in every direction; and it was assortained at the garrison above the sheat of the interpret Corneal Washburn, cellin the cable, and formed a welcome addition to rapidly rising to windward, and the watch were the interpret Corneal Washburn, cellin the cable, and formed a welcome addition to rapidly rising to windward, and the watch were the interpret Corneal Washburn, cellin the cable, and formed a welcome addition to rapidly rising to windward, and the watch were the interpret Corneal Washburn, cellin the cable, and the grainer, which was lying on the forethe first to the indians condition to represented the Indians from their contents.

In this persons as dearly as possible, and this rescued girl proved to do, and advised the girl to ea.

In this persons as dearly as possible, and their lives as dearly as possible, and their live use of any one in the cabin or forecastle who was in less than two minutes I was standing on the "My situation was a novel one. It required tiers. To meet the crisis, two of the most skill- times sweeter than captivity and davery. The most skillsive-looking flesh of a porpoise.

noise, and confusion, caused by the attack on halliards, fore and aft."

lied Calico Jack on his indifference, and asked try it. why he did not lend a hand to haul in the por-

Starkweather. "Taking fish is capital fun. sight. The Poeshoutes had gone on her way re- little open bay lined with a white sandy beach, by strung their veteran courage. From their fatal rock that a bound or two would reach it, and Porpoises are no great things, to be sure-but joicing, and left Jack Calimanco behind! even a porpoise is better than nothing."

. "That's true." replied Jack. "A porpoise is to injure a porpoise!"

ry. The poor fellow held off as long as possible, would make a nice tit-bit for a hungry shark— ble and threatening, that, if I could have had my for food, they depended on jerked venison ther he made the spring, but instead of rosching but at last, after making a very wry face and and also that, as few vessels ever crossed the spot own way, I should have hove to, within hail of and corn bread, with which their knapsacks were by Sam Starkweather, a guarly-looking old tar, gave in, saying—"Well, I suppose I must spin the clutches of Davy Jones were about one out friend, to whom I was see firmly attached, would be report of one of their rifles would have some unknown hand. A hundred voices re-echostome of the ladient of the ladi fishing in general, and my opportunities for all that a man could do to save my lifestudying the habits of the porpoise in particular, lead to the porpoise in particular, lead me your curs, as the monkey said when he call to find the porpoise had run him the rocks: but, in a short time, this store was that the advantage gained would be of short distinctions of the porpoise in particular, afterall, I should be drowned, it would be through the rocks: but, in a short time, this store was that the advantage gained would be of short distinctions of the porpoise in particular, afterall, I should be drowned, it would be through the porpoise and White must ration; for already the spice caught a glimpse of in high glee, sporting with each other, leaping sliced off the cat's listening tackle with one of the cat's listening tackle with one o fish story as follows:

nineteen days, since I sailed from New York in | vessel could come to my rescue.

we got along very harmoniously together "As we drew up towards the Cape de Verda the wind was light, and the weather was pleasploring way, while they sported in the water beneath the bows, that no man, with the heart of a possible. stock-fish could possibly withstand the temptation to capture them-or at least make the attempt. If I ever had a weakness, of which there may be The unsophisticated fish, unconscious of dan- some doubt, it was an excessive fondness for fishing. Trout in the fresh water streams of New began to gather aroun i the bows of the Lobster. Hampshire, my native State; pickerel in her Une of goodly siz ad of a double portion ponds—cod on the bank of Newfoundland—barreconters in the West Indies-hallibut on Geordolphin and bonetas in the tropics-it was all one to Jack. I loved the sport, and indulged my fondness for it whenever and wherever I had chance. You will therefore not be surprised. shipmates, that I hailed with great glee the appearance of various kinds of fish around the Pocahontas, as we were drawing up towards the Capa de Verd. Islanda.

"In those days I never went a voyage to sea small enough to catch a rudder fish-and many were the hours of my watch below I passed on his tail," screamed Mr. Westmucot-"or we shall the flying jib-boom-end, trying to hook a boneta -or on the martingale, with the gainse, attempting to strike a dolphin. And as neither the cap-

instruments and Dentifice so mal was then triced up to the main-stay—for the | tions. I sprang up between the night heads, and book of a perpoise.

desirous of regaling on such fresh grub as could lower martingale stay, with one arm around the no little strenth and skill to manage my courser, ed and indefatigable spice were dispatched to nish me with a gum, and I will show you have be furnished by the coarse, oily, black, repul- martingale I saw one of the dolphins—a big keep his nose at the water's edge, and steer him watch their movements and report. fellow he was too! The equalt was close aboard in the right direction; but I felt that my chance two-looking flesh of a porpoise.

I have said that the whole crew of the Lob- of us, coming thick and heavy! and I was too f getting out of Davy Jones' clutches this time quaited at danger, and as unconquerable as the and should either of you escape you will carry the and should either of your escape you will carry the and should either of your escape you will carry the and should either of your escape you will carry the and should either of your escape you will eath and should either of your escape you will eath and should either of your escape your will eath and should either of your escape your will eath and should either of your escape your will eath and should either of your escape your will eath and should either of your escape your will eath and should either of your escape your will eath and should either of your escape your will eath and should either of your escape your will eath and should either of your escape your will eath and should either of your escape your will eath and your escape your will e ster participated in the excitement caused by eager to secure my fish, to attend properly to my was far better on the porpoise's back than when Lybian lion, in the month of October, and on one tidings of my death to my few relations." this incident, and gladly aided in capturing the lown safety. I made a furious throw at the dol- clinging to a hen-coop, half buried in salt water, of the balmy days of Indian summer, took leave. Remonstrances proved fruitles. The two fish. There was, however, one exception in the phin, with what effect I know not for with the out of sight of land. called him, Calico Jack—a neat, trig-looking, squal struck the ship at the same time, and as could not be more than thirty miles off in a south- tread of panthers, armed with their unerring where, from the very small backbone of the too busily engaged to ask him what was the you, shipmates, there are many better berths for who had just been paid off! meaning of such conduct—but after the usual an honest fellow in this life than to be strug- "Such wild steering lengthened my distance such can looking on with their Indian indiffer- done by reaching an reduced rock lying in one of order and quiet on board the Lobster, took the gling alone in the wide ocean, with nothing to considerably—nevertheless, in about an hour I ence, the squares engaged in their drudgery, and the ravines on the southern hill-side. This rock place of the interesting proceedings which I have buoy you up but a hen-coop, and no ship in looked out sharp for land; but it was full two the children engaged in their playful gambols. once gained by the Indian, they could bring the attempted to describe, some of his shipmates rale sight! I hope you may no ver have occasion to hours before I saw it, rising, as it were, all at The arrival of a new warrior was greated with spice under point black shot of the rifle without raised my head as high out of water as I could, the end. "What is the reason of that," inquired Sam and looked around for the ship, but no ship was "As we drew in towards the land. I spied a strains which waked their watchfulness, and now-bonest man and a real sailor, and the officers again indulge in the luxury of sailt junk and with his starboard flipper.) the south in a direct line towards me on their the captain if he wanted a pilot! way to some better marine pasturage, perhaps "The captain looked hard at me, and answer thousand of miles off. I had no inclination at ed, rather graffly, 'No!' that moment to harm them—and I presume they cant a being as Jack Calimanco on a hen-coop, aboard." but pash forward on their journey as quick as - "The tone of my voice, which is not a common acquaintanceship with an old salt, and they son.' tickle your curiosity to some purpose.

"They crowded nearer and nearer. At length one hig fellow, who seemed a sort of king among them, made a dash towards me and thrust his ugly nozzle between my legs, giving at the same of mind, a quality which never forsakes me, or Goods, Groceries, hardware, Queen-Were.

Was handed in on deck, by the united force of It was about six bells in the afternoon. I was parts of the bridle! In this way I kept his head that portion of it on which the town of Lancasto the water's surface, and easily defeated his ter now stands. desperate attempts to plunge into the depths bebusiness in which they had been engaged.— I heard the words "big dolphin," I dropped my low. Finding himself foiled in all his efforts to we ment, Bonds and Mortgages, Leaser, &c., business in which they had been engaged.——I neare the words "office in all his efforts to counsel, and iron this spice as they glided from resolved to adopt the bold adventure of passing the first being the search of in an easterly in different directions. Upon one of these occasions the search of the village, as the least had all this efforts to counsel, and iron this spice as they glided from resolved to adopt the bold adventure of passing in different directions. cess commenced, and the porpoise was soon strip-large books, stoutly ganged, out of my chest, in-direction, as if a shovel-nowed shark of the large-sions, when the war spirit moved mightily among tree to tree and from rock to rock, till their posi-servines and the second rock to rock, till their posi-servines and from rock to rock, till their posi-servines and the second rock to rock, till their posi-servines and the second rock to roc

"The hen coop I soon lost sight of, and the favorite with all on board. But greatly to the board." -- at the same time that the captain shout- hard to steer my ship for St. Jago, by keeping of Mount Pleasant, the western termination of advancing, but in passing from one to the other." I had tough works I would rather be rattling hundreds of feet high, and whose summit, from ment's exposure of their swarthy forms was over the waist, with his arms folded, apparently which I paddled towards in quick time, and got snow storm, with the deck and rigging covered was gained, our hardy spies had a position from in ambuscade, were more cautions how they adlooking in the depths of the ocean, and deeply hold of; but the squall blew with great violence, with ice, than to manage a headstrong porpoise which they could see every movement of the In- vanced. engaged in philosophical reflections of the gra- and was attended with considerable rain. Of with a bridle without a curb. With all my cf- dians below in the valley. This was not unnoticed by several of the crew, and I mw with a glance that there was but a associately, and his wake was as crooked as the to the company. They witnessed their exercises a new danger threatening them. The arch for who, during the battle with the porpoise, were slender chance foor Pilgarlick; and let me tell track in the snow of an old man-of-war's man of horse-racing, running foot-races, jumping, now made evident preparations to attack them once, high out of the ocean, about three points terrible shouts, which, striking the mural face of the possibility of escape. Our brave spice and "The squalf lasted for an hour, and raised on the starboard bow, and not more than uine or such a commotion among the waves that I could ten miles of. A noble landfall! And a glad sight indentations of the surrounding hills, producing nothing could aver that a brave companion and "Ah, shipmates," said Jack, with a doleful hardly retain my station on the hen-coop, and I it was, shipmates, I assure you, for I longed to grin-"I have helged catch many a fish in my was sometimes compelled to smallow more salt finish my ride-and I gave the old fellow beneath day—but my fishing days are over; I shall nevwater than was altogether agreeable, or good for me a kick or two to quicken his pace; and away would have struck terror to the hearts of those calaring, and as unwearied as the strongest deor try to catch a fish again, cancelly a new labelth. When the weather cleared up I he went again as if a grammage had kicked him in unacountomed to Indian powelry. er try to catch a fish again, especially a por one's health. When the weather cleared up I he went again as if a grampus had kicked him in back of which were erected some dwelling houses | early, youth they had always been on the frontier, | all hope of life then was gone. | Ale felt that all "But a true sailor will never despair—he will —and on this spot I at once made up my mind and were well practiced in all the subtlety, craft depended on one single adventurous shor; and although but an inch or two of the warrior's body never downe his flag so long as there is a shot in to beach my craft—so I stood in directly for the and counting of Indian warfare, as well as the was exposed, and that at the distance of eighty or sheapital friend at a pinch, as I have found out the locker—and although, as night was coming bay My appearance at this time, coming in ferocity and blood-thirsty nature of these savage a hundred yards, he resolved to raik all; cooling by experience. I was once active enough in on and matters looked rather dark and dreary, I from the open ses at a furious rate, with half or warriors. They were, therefore, not likely to be raised his rifle to his face, and shading the sight catching fish, but now I cannot look upon such | really wished myself on the deck of a good ship two-thirds of my body out of the water, must ensuared by their cunning, nor, without a desper- with his hand, he drew a bead so sure that he sport without disgust; and I have sworn never -yet I called philosophy to my aid, and reflect- have been singularly striking, and calculated to ste conflict, to fall victims to their scalping-knives ed that my condition, though bad enough in all attract attention. At all events, it seriously or tomahawks. On several secucions, small par-"How's that!" mid Sam. "You must have conscience, might have been worse. I still had alarmed the quiet imhabitants of this little vil- ties left the prairie and ascended the mount from fint into many pieces; and although he felt that had some strong reason for taking such an oath; a hen-coop to cling to through the night, and I lage. They gathered on the shore, man, women, the eastern side. On these occasions the spics the Indian must reach the rock before he could and you must tell us all about it, if you have to might, by an extraordinary piece of good luck, and children, to the number of fifteen or twenty, would hide in the deep fissures of the rocks on adjust another flint, he proceeded to the task with spin a yarn as long as the flying-jib down-haul." be picked up by a drogher or some other vessel armed with old muskets, entlasses, batchets, and the west, and again leave their hiding places the utmost composure. The hardy crew of the Lobster gathered in the morning. It is true, it would sometimes harpoons, prepared to oppose my landing by force when their uninvited and unwelcome visitors had dealy be saw the warrior stretching every musters. around Calico Jack, insisting on hearing his sto- occur to me that my legs dangling in the water of arms, if necessary They looked so formida- disappeared. bringing himself to anchor on the windless end, where I was, the chances of being snatched from the shore, and held a parley. But my faithful well stored. They dare not kindle a fire, and He had eventually received a death-wound from you my yarn, if I hope for a quiet life; and if of a thousand. But I stoutly resisted all such stand for no ceremony, but hash at forward with brought upon them the entire force of the Indiyou have any wish to know my experience in gloomy forebodings, and inwardly resolved to do increasing speed spwards the share. I had only uns. For drink, they depended on some rain od on the hen-coop. It seemed like half a dozen "I never saw folks so astonished as those Por- To accomplish this most hazardous enterprise, The crew gathered around Calico Jack, for nights spliced into one. At daylight next morn- tuguese were. One among them could speak M'Cleland, being the oldest, resolved to make a good vam is the delimber of a soiler land was somewhat fatigued and hungry. Hour atter work linglish and to him I made an explanation the attempt; and, with his trusty rifle in his a good song and talk like a book. They expect hour passe't, and my prospects were as dismal as cheers and acclamations by the whole company. ted something interesting, and listened, with ex- ever. The wind had died away -it was a dead. The porpoise also came in for a share of their ademplary attention, while he proceeded with his calm-und this, although it made my situation miration. They admired his noble size and plump on the raft more comfortable than during a stiff proportions, and although I begged hard for his river, and turning to a bold point of the hill, he "It is now just three years, seven months and breeze, diminished my chances of escape as no life, wishing to return him safe and sound into found a beautiful spring within a few feet of the his native element. I soon saw it was of no use: the ship Pocahontas, of three hundred and fifty "It was, as near as I can calculate, about four his fate was settled; and as the sun went down, tons, bound to St. Jago, in the Cape de Verds; bells in the afternoon, while I was lounging on they were feasting on his carcase and trying out his canteens, and returned in safety to his watchthence to Rio Janeiro. The Pocabontas was a my hen-coop, with my heal ander my wing, and his blubber. Poor old fellow; I shall never for- ful companion. It was now determined to have came most seasonably to our spies, who had kept. good ship, and well formed; the captain was an thinking whether if was likely I should ever get him! (and Jack wiped a tear from his eye a fresh supply of water every day, and this duty their ground, and bravely maintained the un-

were not so bad as they might have been. On mouldy biscuit in a ship's forecastle, that I was "Those people treated me kindly, and the next the whole, there was little to find fault with, for startled by a noise which sounded like the blow-day carried me over to Port Praya, into which filled his canteens, he sat a few moments watch-had e-caped to her former captors, or that he I doubt not all hands were treated with as much ling of a porpoise. I looked up, and beheld an harbor the Pocaboutas was just entering. I borkindness and indulgence as they deserved—and immense shoal of those noble fish, coming from rowed a boat, pulled along the side, and asked

"I had a 'sombrero' hat on, which a kindhearthad no wish to harm me. I supposed, and mate ed native had given me, and the skipper did at poculiar to Indians. White at once comprehent to possess herself of his gun and amunition; and dolphins, bonetas, and albicores. They seemed ter of course, they would not notice so insignification. Never mind, said I, 'I shall come ded his perilous situation. If the slarm should cronching down beneath the underbrush, she one—for I have been told it resembles the sound pelled him to inflict a noiseless death on the hand by which the two warriors fell, the last resembles the sound of a bassoon afflicted with the phthisic—bother squaws, and in such a manner as, if possible, to ing the most intrepid and blood-thirsty of the squaws, and in such a manner as, if possible, to "But I was out in my reckoning. The porof a bassoon afflicted with the phthuse—bothersquaws, and in such a manner sa, it possess, to Shaware tribe, and the leader of the company poises saw the hen-coop, and a sailor hanging to ed him, and he watched meclosely as I passed over leave no trace behind. Ever rapid in thought which killed her mother and her sesters, and took it—a novel sight which aroused their curiosity, the side; but I had no sooner jumped from the and prompt in action, he sprang upon his victims. her said her brother prisonerand they crowded around as if determined to fa- gunwale on deck, lifted my 'sombrero' from my with the rapidity and power of a liou, and graupthom the mystery. I did not like such close head, and with a bow, said quietly, 'I have come companionship with the rascals—and made a aboard, sir." than he threw his hat half way up He thrust the head of the eldest under the water. ments were rent with peals of thunder. Dark great splashing in the water to keep them at a to the main-top, cut a regular pigeou-wing, and While making strong efforts to submerge the main top, cut a regular pigeou-wing, and While making strong efforts to submerge the respectable distance. But it was of no use. It called out at the top of his voice, 'It is Called younger, who, however, powerfully resisted him, and the top of his voice, 'It is Called out at the top of his voice, 'It is 'Called out at the top of his voice, 'It is 'Called out at the top of his voice, 'It is 'Called out at the top of his voice, 'It is 'Called out at the top of his voice, 'It is 'Called out at the top of his voice, 'It is 'Called out at the top of his voice, 'It is 'Called out at the top of his voice, 'It is 'Called out at the top of his voice, 'It is 'Called out at the top of his voice, 'It is 'Called out at the top of his voice, 'It is 'Called o was not often that an opportunity offered to make JACK, as sure as my name is Jeremiah Thomp- and during the short struggle with this young importance of despatch, and justled one another deck of the good old Poeshontas. But, shipmates in their efforts to get near, and find out what since that time I have abandoned in disgust the time a snort, whether of triumph, admiration or and stockade above the mouth of the Hocking his usual speed and energy, pushed for the surprise, I cannot tell, which scattered the water river, was a frontier post for the hardy pioneers mount. They had scarcely gone half way, when tance, who were directly on their route. The desall over me. At this moment, provoked at the of the Northwestern Territory. There Nature they heard the slarm cry some quarter of a mile cent was noiselessly resumed, and the spice folrascal's impulence, I recollected the fish-hooks was in her undisturbed livery of dark and thick down the stream. It was supposed some party rascal's impudence, I recollected the fish-hooks was in her undisturbed livery of dark and thick down the stream. It was supposed some party most profound silence, when the barking of a in my pocket, and as he turned and attempted forests, interspersed with green and flowring of Indians, returning from hunting, struck the dog at a short distance apprised them of new danto repeat the managuvre, with admirable presence prairies. Then the forest had not heard the river just as the body of the squaw floated past. sound of the woodman's axe, nor the plaw of the White and the girl succeeded in reaching the rifles was heard by the girl, who stated that ther shipmates, in any strait, I thrust a fish-hook in husbandman opened the bosom of the earth. mount, where McCleland had been no indif- were now in the midst of the Indian camps and cach of his jowls, just forward of his eyes, and Then those beautiful prairies waved their golden ferent spectator to the sudden commotion among their lives depended on the most profound silence, held hard on the ganging. At the same mo- bloom to the God of Nature; and among the the Indians. ment, I dropped upon his back, sested myself most luxuriant of these were those which lay The prairie parties of warriors were aren imfirmly in the saddle, and hauled taut upon both along the Hockbocking Valley, and especially mediately to strike off in every direction, and replied in the Indian language, and, without the

THE TWO SPIRS From the Autobiography of Rev. J. B. Fuller.

Here the tribes of the North and West met to counsel, and from this spot led forth the warpath ly and carefully keeping under cover. Soon the the sons of Nature, and the tomaline's leaned in tion was surrounded, except on the west perpenits scabbard, and the spirits of their friends, who disular side, and all hope of escape was cut off. East of the Eric Bank Building. Teeth inthe capital in the cabin, and formed a welcome addition to rapidly rising to windward, and the watch were there was I, securing over the ocean waves at the remainder of the anitoo busy in taking in sail to attend to may quest the instruments and II. The remainder of the anitoo busy in taking in sail to attend to may quest the instruments and II. The remainder of the anitoo busy in taking in sail to attend to may quest the instruments and II. The remainder of the anitoo busy in taking in sail to attend to may quest the instruments and II. The remainder of the anitoo busy in taking in sail to attend to may quest the instruments and II. The remainder of the anitoo busy in taking in sail to attend to may quest the instruments and II. The remainder of the anitoo busy in taking in sail to attend to may quest the instruments and II. The remainder of the anitoo busy in taking in sail to attend to may quest the instruments and II. The remainder of the anithe instruments and II. The remainder of the anitoo busy in taking in sail to attend to may quest the instruments and II. The remainder of the anitoo busy in taking in sail to attend to may quest the instruments and II. The remainder of the anitoo busy in taking in sail to attend to may quest the instruments and II. The remainder of the anitoo busy in taking in sail to attend to may quest the instruments and II. The remainder of the instrum Monat Pleasant, were driven back in the various the utter hopelessness " reverbations and echoes as if ten thousand fiends brave never despair. With this impending fate were gathered as a universal levee. Such yells resting apon them, they continued calm and calunaccustomed to Indian revelry.

To our spies this was but martial music water which still stood in the hollows of some of abandon their enterprise or find a new supply, a tall swarthy warrior cautiously advancing to shoulders, he decended, by a circumus route, w the prairie, skirting the hill on the north, and under cover of the hazel thickets, be reached the river, now known by the name of Cold Spring. ou the farm of D. Talmadge, Eeq. He filled was performed alternately. On one of these occasions, after White had Now, for the first time, was the girl missing, turning around he saw to squaws a few feet from ing the throat of each, sprang into the river. soon overspread the whole heavens, and the ele-

was going on. TAh! thought I to myself, 'my sport of catching fish at sea, and as for lending a from below Wheeling, and that the Indians had language, she might deceive the sentinels, as the fine fellows; if I was now standing on the bow of hand to harpoon a porpoise, I would as sonn send | killed all the family, and that her brother and s quel proved, for scarcely had they descended a a good ship with a harpoon in my fist, I would an iron through the best friend I have in the herself were taken prisoners, but he succeeded on the second night in making his escape During this narrative. White had drowned the elder by previous arrangement, they were to remain squaw, and had let her float off with the current, till the signal was given by the girl to move on where it would not probably be found out soon. As early as the year 1790, the block-house He now directed the girl to follow him, and with eastern acclivity of the mount and were cautious can fight as well as die. This place I leave set of their fellows and moved on through the the spies quickly matured their plan of defense, and shape of Jack Callimanco or as his shipmates effort I missed my hold, and fell overboard! The "I knew that when the island of St. Jago thick plum and hazel bushes with the noiseless vigorously commenced the attack from the front, sing-built, warm hearted-tar; who by his cour- the old Pocahontas flew past me while I was east direction—for I had heard the captain-say and trusty rifles. They continued their moreh, mount, the savages had to advance in single also, age and activity in times of peril, and his kind-struggling in the foam, I heard one of my ship of the marked the ship's skirting the prairies, till they reached the most and without any covert. Beyond this neck the paris ness and good humor in pleasant weather, was a mates cry out in a voice of terror, "A man over- place on the chart that afternoon—and I tried remarkable prominence, now known by the name warriors availed themselves of rocks and trees in astonishment of the crew, during the hubbub, ed in a voice of thunder, "Let go the topsail the sun well on the larboard quarter. But which is a perpendicular cliff of rocks of some they must be exposed for a short time, and a methe porpoise and its successful result, Calico "I was a good swimmer, and a hen-coop from down the topgallant rigging in a hurricane, a western view, towers to the clouds and over-Jack, so far from lending a hand, atood leaning the quarter dock was tossed overboard at once, or lying to in Massachusetts bay in a northeast looks the vast plains below. When this point Indians being outlied in many wells.

After bravely maintaining the fight in front throwing the tomahawk and dancing; the old on the flank, which could be more successfully could produce.

Soon M'Cleland saw a tall and swarthy figure preparing to spring from a covert so near to the the trigger with his finger, the hammer came cle for the leap; and with the agility of the paned from below the terrible shout. It was evithe covert so recently occupied by his fellow companion. Now, too, the attack in front was renewed with increased fury, so as to require the increant fire of both spies to prevent the Indi tions to lean to the fatal rock. The lean made, and the Indian turning a somerset, his corpse rolled down the hill towards his former companion. Again an nuknown agent had interposed in their behalf. This second sacrifice cast dismay into the ranks of their assailants, and just as the sun was disappearing behind the western hills, the fee withdrew to a short distance, to devise some new mode of attack. This remite qual fight from nearly the middle of the day.

and the spies though: that through terror she ing the limpid element as it came gargling out had been killed during the fight, but they were of the bosom of the earth, when the light sound not long left to evajecture. The girl was seen of footsteps caught his practiced car, and upon emerging from bettind a rock and coming to them with a rife in her hand. During the light she wa warrior fall who had advanced some distance him. Upon turning the foot of the hill, the ca- before the rest, and while some of them changed dest squaw gave one of those far-reaching whoops their position, she resolved at once, live of die, reach the camp or town, he and his companion prise. Her keen and succeeded in her entermust inevitably perish. Self-preservation com- ticed the fatal rock, and here was the mysterious or and her prother prisoners. Now, in the west, arose dark clouds which spies in their contemplated might escape, supposing that they might readily loss their way, and athletic, to his astonishment she addressed him accidentally fall on their enemy; but a short conseemed resolved to improve the present chance.

The cruiss on my own hook was ended, and I in his own language, though in almost inarticular gire should get bremost, from her intimate knowled.

They forgot the object of their journey, and the was glad enough to find myself once more on the late sounds. Releasing his hold, she informed him that she ed in case they should fall in with any of the parhad been a prisoner for ten years, and was taken ties or outposts. From her knowledge of the warned them of their danger.

The spies sank silently on the ground, where Her absence, for the space of a quarter of an hour, began to excite the most writing apprehensi Again she appeared, and told them she had mocreded in removing two sentinels to a short dislowed their intrepid leader for half a mile in the ger. The almost simultaneous click of the spices'

A moment afterward, the girl was accessful by a squaw, from an opening in her wigwam; she White and the girl had searcely arrived, before a ping, still pressed forward. In a short time also party of some twenty warriors had reached the stopped and assured the spice that the village was cleared, and that they had pased the greatest danger. She knew that every leading pass was guarded safely by the Indians, and at once sardous, and the sequel proved the correctness of her judgment. They now steared a course for the Ohio river, and after three days travel arriv

The said will be dien