Public Meeting.

In consequence of the Post Master in Elkersek P. O., having been secretly removed without known cause or provocation on his part, and without the knowledge or conent of any one patron of said effice—and the removal having been effected through the rival influence of a P. M. in a neighboring village, a meeting was called and very numerously attended, at the school house in Cranesville on the 1st inst., and organized by calling W. W. White to the chair, and E. P. Miller, Secretary. After the object of the meeting was stated, a petition was read by the chair calling for the reinstatement of Adam Deits as a Post Master, signed by some eighty of the patrons of said Office. Mr. Davenport being called, stated that he would take no further steps towards the removal, unless it met the entire approbation of the patrons of the office. Whereupon it was moved by Luke Warner that the P. O. remain where it now is, vis: in the hands of Adam Deits; carried manimously. N. Pomeroy, C. Chaddock, Wm. T. Robinson, D. B. Robinson and O. C. Randall were chosen a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense this meeting.

Whereas, we the patrons of Elkcreek Post Office, have whereas, we the patrons of sincrees rost times, nave been grievously misused by the improper interference of certain individuals realding in Wellsburgh in regard to the location of our Post Office and change of Post Masters, which we, the patrons of the Office, highly condemn.—

Therefore,
Resolved, That we the patrons of Eikersek Post Office isapprove of the underhanded move that has been made y some of the citizens belonging to the Post Office at analy's Lane, and look upon it as a gross insult. Resolved, That we consider ourselves same as a community and capable of transacting our own affairs.

Resolved, That we approve of the management of the Office under our present Postmaster, Adam Deits.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Lockport Messenger and Eric Observer.
