And we don't doubt it. Not being present at either place, of course we can't give particulars; neither is it necessary, for those who were there don't want to read what they already know, while those absent will only regret that they were no there.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

MESSRE. PAGE & TROWBRIDGE have been giving repre entations of that celebrated Drama for the past week at Harris Pennsylvania Hotel in this city, with very good success. The company are well selected and go through with the piece very creditable to themselves. In fact, the character of little Eva is done beautifully by "little Auguera." That alone is worth the price of the play. They close this (Saturday) evening. Let all go and see it who have not already done so.

- They tell some queer stories about "suckerdom," and here is one of 'em! A woman pressed a petition for a divorce in one of the courts in Indiana recently. The attorney told her it could not possibly be granted before September. "Oh!" she replied, "that won't do, I've promised to marry another feller in July." But the attorney could'nt help her.

The Gazette, in noticing the oration of Rev. Mr. Forrester at Waterford, says: "Mr. Porrester, we are told, spoke ably and eloquently, dwelling at some length upon the Nebraska iniquity, and condemning it in no measured terms." We have no hesitation in saying that the Cazette has been misinformed, for we have it from Mr. F.'s own lips that nothing of the kind took place.

- The Editor of the Jamestown Democrat insinuates that we support the principles of the Nebraska Bill beapidity for the last few years -- cause we hold an office under the President. It is evident the Editor of the Democrat judges us by himself, and not by the past and present position of the Observer! We advocated the principles of non-intervention, and opposed the dostrine of the Wilmot proviso, when such men as the Editor of the Democrat were supporting Van Buren and Adams, and howling in concert with Fred Douglass! Wonever kept such company, and as long as we are sane, we never shall! !

Putnam's Monthly, for July, is a most capital number. Beside its table of contents, which comprises every thing, "from grave to gay," it has a most acceptable portrait of the author of the "Potiphar Papers." "Israel Petter, a Fourth of July story," said to be by the author of Types, promises to be a most enchanting story. . It is continued. "Herd Up," though we have not read it, we have no hesitation in saying it is just the thing for the times, for every body can understand it. On the whole we think Putnem is shead of all competition.

Egre. July 5, 1854. Sin.-In a portion of the City Edition of the Constitutio issued to-day, a paragraph following a copy of a hand-bill offering a reward for the arrest of the perpetrators of the outrage at Brown's Hotel, appears reflecting upon yourself, which I regret, as it may be misunderstood. As soon as noticed by me I had it taken out, but before I read over the paper a few numbers were struck off, had gone out with the carrier, and therefore could not be recalled. I take this early opportunity to correct the error in the best manner in my power, and to that end, request you to insert J. B. JOHNSON. this in your paper. B. F. It is reported that Madison Jeffers has died of his injuries. Nearly all the passengers killed and wounded belong to this city. Twenty-four dead bodies were brought to Baltimore from the scene at midnight.

THIRD DISPATCH .- Mr. Jeffers is still living. He will probably expire before night. He was generally esteemed, and at one time held the office of Deputy High Constable.

Several additional deaths have occulred. A number of wounded have been brought to the city. The scene which presented itself on their arrival was heart rending in the extreme. On the first rumor of the accident last evening, thousands congregated at the depot to hear the result, and as the particulars came in the most dreadful shricks and cries rent the air. The accident was no doubt caused by carelessness—the inquest is still pending. Many of the wounded have been taken to the Hospital. An inquest has been held over the victims. No verdict has yet been rendered. It is now feared that the number of deaths will reach near forty, as many of the wounded are lying in the most dreadful agony and cannot survive much longer. The Railroad Company is loudly censured .-The most intense excitement prevails throughout

Both hands were afficied, rendering her at times almost heipless while the pain was incense. The bes. Alleoganitic and Homeopathic treatment was bestowed upon her. Finding no relief we resorted to a root Dector, but with no betterauccess. The disease was preading, and soon threatmed to extend to her arms. In this suffering condition, and while seeking in valu for relief, your recommendation of Dr. Weaver's valuable, preparating was heeded, and it affords me much happiness in stating that but two bottles and one box of the Certae were used—with some attention to diet—in affecting as we believe and firmly tines, an entire and lasting cure. Ave entire new cuttlet was formed on a great portion of each hand.
