A PRAYERFUL JOKE -The Dayton Gazette mentions the following anecdote of Dick, who was executed on Friday:

His confidence in quibbles was immovable, and while he indulged it no serious impression could be made to take root in his mind. An ancedote is told of him, the levity of which is partrally atoned by its wit. Having been brought up a Catholic, he had very little faith in any other religion, though he was visited occasionally in jail by Protestant ministers About a week before his execution, one of these gentlemen-a worthy and talented clergyman—called on him, and after conversing a while on serious subjects, asked the question: "Have you any objection to my pray-ing with you?" "I guess not," said Dick, "eve-ry little helps!"

Sir, mid one of the two antage niste, with great dignity to the other, during a di-pute which had not been confined to words, "you have called me a scoundrel and a liar, you have spit in my face, you have struck me twice; I hope you will not carry this any farther, for if you do you will arouse the sleeping lion in my breast, and I cannot tell what may be the consequences.'

DE. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL.

PRINCHENGE to Madeline, Professor Moree's invigora A ting Elizir, or Cordial, the eighth wonder of the Bossis Acrid. The invigoraling Elizir and quedicine, introduced into medical prattice by the great enemia, physician and traveler, for M vicese, sue her in hand an Origania Merb. Breat brought from the story deserts of Arabia Patrace by these eminous philocopher, which has been endorsed by the medical colleges of all the great entitles of Entrupy, as the best preparation estant for the CURE OF NEW YOULD DISEASES.

Ho inaguage can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost selections change which it occasions in the diseased, debilitated and sheattered nervous sympm. Whether broken down by access, weak by nature, or impaired by schices, the unexuing and relazed organization is a tonce re-braced, revivified, and built up. The menual and physical symptoms of nervotus disease which ingerher under its induser. Nor is the effort temporary. On the contrary, the relief is permanent, for the cordial properties of the medicine reach the sometitudion it self, and creaters it to its normal condition. Well may the preparation be called the Modelial Frender of the atenderative returny—liss, as the first scientific most in the disworth have admitted, that miracle of medicine herestofore supposed to have no axist ence. A stimulant that cannil no re-action. Its increase mover expended, as is the case with optium, alcoholic preparations and all other excitants. The effect of these is brief, and it may well be said of him who takes them, "the last state of that man well be said of him who takes them, "the last state of that man well be said of him who takes them, "the last state of that man well be said of him who takes them, "the last state of that man well be said of new modelines and it will also remove deprension, as constitution, part in the nerves of the face, and the various return of nerves affections, it will produce a cure is an assonishing short particular in tendency to blush, readisences, thoughts of mental nliable Constitutional Delility All who have injured themselves by rivate and improper indulgencies, will find in this cordina private and improper indulgencies, will find in this cordial a sure relief.

Impotence—weariness of the genial organs. Loss of virile power is the penalty most frequently peid to those who give a loose rein or license to their passions. YOUNG PERBORM are too api to commit excesses from not being awars of the dreadful effects. Although impotency ocause from strictures, deposits in the strice, gravel, and from samenous other causes, jet me abuse of the sexual organs, by excessive vunery or self-poliution particularly the atter, is the more frequent cause of it. Now, who that understands these their will pretend to deny that the power of procreating the species is lost sooper by those who practice the solitary vice, thus by the prudent. Besides, by premature impotence the digestive functions are deranged, and the physical and mental powers, weakened by a too frequent and too granters thereint of the genital organs.

Marriad Persons or others conscious of inability from what ever cause, will find this cordial, after they use a bottleor two, a thorough regeneration of the system. Where want of offspring is a regret it is of inestimable value.

The nature of the misadies relieved by this cordial are usually such as to leave the publication of certification or the most conclusion. is a regress to of inestimable value. The nature of the maindes regieved by this cordial are usually such as to leave the publication of certificates out of the question, or the proprietor could produce a host of the most crocklusive testimony to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not active testimony to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not active testimony to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not active testimony between the second produce and apparents mirractious virtues. In all directions are to be found the happy parents of bealthy offspring, who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally between the discases for which it is recommended.—Thousands of young men have been restored by using it, and not in a single instance has it failed to benefit them.

For impotency, incombinance, Natural Emmanne 4c. The great success which has attended this invaluable medicitie, for loss of muncular energy, physical laseitude and general prostration, or any of the consequences of youthful in incretion or in dulgence of the passion in riper years, renders it the most valuable preparation ever discovered; in fact, as a remedy for the above complaints, it stands untrivaled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the Medical Faculty.
