Erie Weekly Observer.

ERIE, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 6, 1854.

☞ We issue our paper on Wednesday morning—four days in advance—in order to lay before our readers the President's Message. For an early copy of the same, we are indebted to our friend, H Nottingham, of Cleveland.

☞ In consequence of the snow, both upon the New York and Erie, and the Central roads, we have not been blessed with a New York, or Philadelphia mail for the last two days. Should the present cold snap give out, and the Paddies with their shovels hold out, we'll probably get one sometime between now and Spring.

Destructive Storm.

A tremendous strom has been, and is now at present writing, Tuesday, 9 P. M., raging upon the Lakes The destruction of life and property is immense

Among the vessels lost owned here, we hear of the Brig Republic, owned by Gen. Reed, the Schooner Storm, owned by J. Hearn & Co, the Schooner Missouri, owned and commanded by Capt. Wm. Bone, and a Schoner owned by A. Scott, Esq, name not recollected.

Cleveland, Dec. 4, A. M.

The schooner Omar, with a cargo of salt, went on the west pier early this morning, and it is supposed will be a total loss. Strenuous efforts are making to save the crew, but thus far with out success A government life-boat has been erected alongside

The schooner Pearl is also ashore west of the pier She will be got off.

Cleveland, Dec. 4, P. M.

FIRST DESPATCH.—The schooner Omar is fast breaking up One man, named James Burr, is drowned. He fell from the rope in attempting to pass from the mast head to the west pier

Milton Keech was saved by cutting a line at the mast head There are still on board the Captain and five hands.

SECOND DESPATCH.—The propeller Paugasett just made an unsuccessful attempt to rescue the crew of the Omar, two of whom were drowned alongside, and one man from the propeller, said to be Capt. Watts, of the steamer Ohio, jumped on board the Omar and was left.

THIRD DESPATCH.—The schooner Charles Crooks, from Oswego for Toledo, with a cargo of Car Wheels and 300 Barrels of Salt went on the break-water near the foot of Erie street, between 4 and 5 o'clock this afternoon Crew saved Doubtful about the vessel The Propeller Paugasett, about the same time again went to the wreck of the schooner Omar, and succeeded in rescuing the four men who remained on board.

Lockport, Dec 4, P. M.

There is a vessel in distress off Olcott. Name of vessel is unknown, and the snow storm in this vicinity rages with such fury that no communication can be had with her.

Cleveland, Dec

The Schooner Sturgis, owned by Hanly, Warner & Co., went a shore on the sand at Black River this morning. Crew safe. Vessel lies easy —Schooner Virgin, Williams Master, in ballast wen. ashore at 7 o'clock west of West Pier —Crew saved. Vessel will be damaged by her quarter riding on the pier, if the gale continues The gale is now moderating slightly. Schooner H J. Jones went ashore at Grand River last night Crew all lost

Brig Maryland, owned by H H. Gates of Oakland, is ashore at Ashtabula. The propeller Paugassett sunk in the ship from injuries received in saving the crew of the Omar.

New York, Dec. 4

We have recieved an advance copy of the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, from which we condense the following facts: The actual receipts into the treasury for the fiscal year ending 30th June 1854 from all sources, were $73,549,705, which, with the ballance in the Treasury 1st July 1853 $21,942,892, give a total for the services of the year of $95,492,597 The actual expenditures for the year where $75,354 630—leaving a ballance in the treasure on July 1st 1854 of 20,137,967 The receipts for the quarter ending Sept 30, 1854 were $21,521,302, and the estimate for the remaining three quarters of the fiscal year were $42 500,000. The amount of public debt outstanding on first July 1854 was 47,180,606.

The Secretary anticipates a falling off in the custom receipts, owing to the Reciprocity Treaty and the short crops. The table of the tonnage of the United States exhibits an increase for the year of 395,892 tons The table of exports and imports shows that the imports of the year were $24,321,317 in excess of the exports The flattering state of the revenue induces the Secretary to again call the attention of Congress to the propriety of reducing the revenue from Customs so that no more money shall be received into the Treasury than is required for an economical administration of the government. He recommends three rates of duty, viz: 100, 40, and 25 per cent in place of the eight shedules at present in use The recommendation for the repeal of the fishing bounties is renewed and the subject of drawback duties on refined sugar is also recommended to the consideration of Congress. The statement as to the currency gives the total ammount of gold and silver coin in circulation, 30 h of September, 1854, at $241 000 000, against the total bank circulation is $204 689,209. The Secretary is opposed to the circulation of notes of a small denomination He recommends the continuance of the coast survey.

The Secretary calls for further aid for protection of human life from shipwreck on our coasts, and suggests whether the law should not provide greater security in the construction of steam passenger vessels, to leave them to ship owners. In view of recent frauds by collectors of customs in Cleveland, Oswego, &c', the report calls for such additional legislation as may be deemed necessary The balance of the report refers mainly to the usual operations, and the operations of the various departments of the Treasury

RAILROAD STOCKS.—Nothing shows the existing panic in money matters more strickingly than a comparison of the price of Railroad stocks at this time and one year ago. We clip the following from the New York papers:

	Nov. 18, 1853.	Nov. 15, 1854.
Erie	80	33½
New York Central	113	81
Michigan Central	107¼	79¼
Cleveland & Toledo	90	56
Galena & Chicago	114	95
Northern Indiana	20	83
Reading	77	67¼
Harlem	66	97½

These roads are all earning more money than at the same time last year. The stock is really worth as much now as then. We think they cannot long remain at this poin tof depression.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.—Dr. J. Duponco's Golden Pectoral Pills for Females Infallible for correcting irregularities, and removing obstructions from whatever cause.

All medical men know, as well as many others, that whenever an obstruction takes place, wether from cold, exposure, or any other cause, the general health begins immediately to decline, and the worst of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young ladies. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, sinking or sores, an disturbed sleep, generally arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariable remedy all these evils.

Full and explicit directions accompany each box, which must be strictly followed and all diseases peculiar to females may be speedily cured.

Price $1 00 per box. Sold by all the Druggists in Erie and who sells and retail, at the proprietors price by CARTER & BROTHER, No. 6 Reed House, to whom all orders must be addressed. 1y28

Letters From New-York.

Correspondence of the Erie Observer.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2, 1854.

We had glorious weather yesterday for Thanksgiving.—The cheerful sunlight shone pleasantly in upon family gatherings in many a happy home, and the sharp air begot corresponding appetites for the feast of fat things which smoked on every board. Poverty was not forgotten in the midst of abundance. The inmates of all our charitable institutions fared sumptuously, and private benevolence sent help to the destitute in every quarter of the city where want and misery were known to exist. The churches were crowded in the forenoon and large sums were taken in aid of the poor. Could the statistics of public and private charity be collected, it would probably appear that more than $100,000 were given away yesterday, for benevolent purposes.

During the afternoon, I strolled to the 'Five Points" to see the children redeemed from degredation ignorance and filth, by the "Ladies Mission," eat their Thanksgiving dinner at the "Mission House," a fine substantial brick building, standing on the site of that den of prostitution, drunkenness and misery, the "Old Brewry." The children of the Mision" some three hundred in number, were in the midst of their exercises when I went in, and some of the recitations, especially those of the girls, would have done honor to the pupils of our best private schools All these young ones were taken, literally, from the gutter and their clean, healthy, respectable appearance, reflected the high est credit upon the noble hearted women, and excellent pastors, by whom they have been reclaimed and instructed A gesture from Rev Mr Larkin, the Superintendent of the institution, was always sufficient to produce profound silence among them, in the midst of their liveliest chatter. In the lower part of the building a large number of ladies and gentlemen were engaged in carving the viands, and arranging the tables Piles of smoking turkeys, geese and chickens; also of potatoes and apples, the choice steaks of beef, pies by the score, enormous plum cakes; temples of Liberty in sugar, and in fact everything edible, that even a gourmand could desire, encumbered the tables and even floors of the apartments when the work of dishing up was going on. When the tables in the school room were set for the banquet, the hungry multitude were marched down from the chapel, where the singing and speaking had taken place, and the work of demolition commenced. It was marvellous! No knives and forks were used, but active teeth and fingers rendered cutlery unnecessary, where the little rogues stowed away that vast supply of solids, and semi-solids, I have not the slightest idea. After having eaten more meat, and bread, and vegetables, than it seemed possible they could contain they topped off with a corresponding amount of pastry and confectionary, and when at last they rested from their labors, it seemed to me that they "sank outwearied rather than overcome" The crowds of well dressed children who had come with their parents and friends to see the little 'Five Pointers' fed looked on with blank amazement. They had never seen such exploits performed before.

The materials of the feast were furnished for the most part gratuitously by dealers in the articles Butchers, bakers, pastry cooks, grocers, poulterers, &c; vied with each other in contributing to the festival, and I presume there are enough of eatables left on hand to furnish two or three more such dinners as that of yesterday.

The "Five Points" is not yet purified. Vicious drunkards, and bloated prostitutes, were reeling yesterday through its precincts, and blaspheming Heaven within hearing of the hymns of Thanksgiving sent up by these little ones. For these hardened sinners there is no hope, but the rising generation may be saved, and while we are spending millions to enlighten savages, we should not forget the heathenism that exists within the sound of our church bells.

Quite a sensation was occasioned here by the disclosure of the fact that Mr. Dorran, the gallant third mate of the Arctic, had been dismissed by Mr Collins, and a cert ficate of good character denied him. Mr. Dorran intimated in his letter to the parents of young Holland, that during the panic on board, the liquor stores were broken into and freely used; and for this seducerst statement, he has been cast adrift. A son of Mr. Collins has undertaken to defend his father's conduct in this business; but he makes a bungling job of it. Darian was the only officer of the Arctic who did his whole duty, and he has been discharged with out a certificate of good conduct. Those two facts are beyond question; comment upon them is superfluous especially as Mr. Darian in this morning's Times has used up the Collins, father and son, most essentially.

Gray, the vitriol man, has not yet been finally examined. More than eighty ladies have entered complaints against him, and the value of the dresses &c., he has destroyed, is estimated at over $10,000. The man is undoubtedly a monomaniac.

The late mail robberies here and in Europe have occasioned a general distrust in the Post Office as a medium for cash remittances. It is proposed to accept the post office order system as practiced in England for the transmission of sums under $50 Safety might thus be secured for a very small per centage.

Judge Hoffman's decision in favor of making the New York and New Haven Railroad Co. responsible for the "Schuyler steab" is universally approved here.

A Salutary reform has just taken place on the Erie Rail Road. No more liquor is to be sold to the employees of the line, at any of the refreshment stations. The bar have been removed from the eating stations, and notice posted up to the effect that liquor can no longer be obtained —The Erie road has so far had a bad name for a corrupt—No rum will probably lessen the number of accidents

The news by the Steamship Africa which up to the 18th, leaves matters at Sevastopol "as they are" and as the Niagra the steamer of the 23rd has been taken up for war service, our next intelligence will come by the Collins Steamer Pacific which was to sail on the 29th ult— Her news will doubtless be of the highest interest

Times are mending here. Our shipments of specie are decreasing; sound stocks are rising, and money is easier By next Spring we shall be able to look back on "hard times," as a time of much of a storm after all.

Some excitement was created yesterday by a rumor that J. S. Norton, Esq., of this city, a man of great wealth, had been missing for 48 hours He took with him the great bulk of his real estate to his grandson Mr Cornell— Suspicions are enter ained which it would not be prudent to state in print. In the meantime a rigid investigation is in progress. The police are satisfied that there has been foul play.

A Wall street Broker named W C. Potter, was arrested yesterday on a charge of defrauding the Lafayette Mutual Co Pa., to the amount of $15 000 He obtained possession of funds to that amount, negotiated them and kept the cash. This is the substance of the accusation. Potter was committed for default of bail to the amount of $20,000. ERIE

Remarkable Cure Effected by Dr. S. Weaver's Medicines.

From the Hon. Judge Lawrie, formerly Judge of the County Court of New Loudon County.

LEWIS, CT., July 31, 1851

DR S. A. WEAVER—Dear sir—Early in the spring I was attacked with a disease of the most aggravated character. It appeared first upon one of my legs, but the other soon became involved in it. At first there appeared small pimples upon the surface which filled with water These we would break and the sores run together, until both legs from the foot to the knee presented a frightfully livid appearance The legs began to swell and press feed until one was much larger than both of them of ordinarily were, and at the same time they exuded copious quantities of different directions, discharging at a time nearly a pint each. I could only get about a th great difficulty, and not at all without the use of crutches. At length the matter which was discharged, formed a crust of scab upon the surface and new legs presented an appearance which induced some of my friends to fear that mortification had already be tun.

I consulted a physician who gave me some remedies with directions how to use them, adding that my age and the severity of the complaint rendered me a cure extremely doubtful. Nothing, however, seemed to make any favorable impression upon the disease At this stage a council of physicians was called to examine the case. All considered it a severe and doubtful one, and from their conversation left the impression upon my friends, that it would never be cured. Still they gave me some remedies which I supposed to use, but my legs appeared to grow worse. My daughter urged me to make a trial of your preparations, and having heard of some remarkable cures effected, I received to make the trial; and accordingly procured the dy rup, which I took a few days and then began to apply the Cerate, constantly to anoint, until by the use of bottles of syrup, and about three boxes of Cerate, all my former complaint disappeared, and my legs are as smooth and perfect as they were when I was 16 years of age.

At the time I commenced using your medicines I weighed at 180 lbs, and gave my cure to your invigorating preparations alone. Dec. 6, 1854—1y30 JOEL LOOMIS.

☞ A Wonderful Discovery has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma and all diseases of the lungs. We refer to Dr. Curtis's Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. With this new method Dr C. has restored many afflicted persons to perfect health; as an evidence of which, he has innumerable certificates a—speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks:—It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal proprieties must come in direct contact with the whole of the aerial cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied chances produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process The Hygeana is for sale at all the druggists' throughout the country.—From the New York Dutchman of January 1853.

NEW HARDWARE STORE.

I AM now receiving the largest and best assorted Stock of Domestic and Foreign Hardware ever brought to Erie or which was bought for cash from manufacturers, without the jobbers profit. These goods were selected expressly for this market, and I am confident that any one upon examination, will find that in quality and prices I can defy competition—I am not fond of boasting and therefore only ask my patrons to call and examine for themselves. My Stock of American, English, Swedes and Russian Iron of all sizes, Sanderson & Sons Cast Steel; also, German, Hoopland American spring and Tire Cork steel. Coil, Leg, Trace and Halter Chain, Blacksmith's Bellows, Vises, Sledges, Hammers, Bellis and screw Plates from three to twelve dollars To Carpenters, particular inducements are offered My reputation for keeping good tools, is too well established to speak of quality here; but I have only to say that my stock of Beach tools, Bosket, Pitmer, Pairing and Turning Chisels, excels any thing ever offered before.

A new and beautiful lot of Socket Firmers and carpenter's slicks have been very much liked; saws of all kinds, Hand, Panuel, Rip, Back, Web, Compass, Pad and Bench saws are going off not rakes Circle, Elip and Cross cut saws of all sizes, together with Wm Koe lands & Hoe's cast steel mill saws; Atkins' cross cut saws as Plate's wood saws. My stock of door trimmings are too well known, and my space too limited here to get into details.

Builders and mechanics are completing every thing that can be called for "almost" Ship carpenters will find a good assortment of Watt's nails and nails, caulking mallets and irons and in short every thing in the line

Shoemakers will find a general assortment of their tools; tinmen's, sheila lasters, shovels &c Ladies will find curtain pins and bind cornices, curtains of cloth, trimmings and paper; paperhangings and a new splendid stock of hall stands, shovel and tongs stands, and a general assortment of House furnishing goods. Those poor Troy nails are still found here, and a full and complete assortment of the finer brands, from the Patton belting Co., together with packing both hemp and rubber

But my own lines and I find it is useless to try to notice here a tithe of what I offer to the good citizens of Erie county. Suffice it to say that my stock is strong always large and that I am not afraid to show it, go as

To dealers, I would say that I can job you goods on as good terms as any house in the Eastern cities, and if you do not believe what I say, call at No. 6 Cheapside, or French street, opposite the Park. J. C. SELDEN.

NEW GROCERIES AND NEW PRICES.

THE subscriber is now opening at the stand formerly occupied by T. W. Moore, a fresh and choice assortment of family Groceries, Woodenware and Willowware, Yankee Notions, &c., to which he invites the attention of the public. To old customers of the concern he would say that a continuance of a liberal share of their patronage will be received upon the same favorable terms as heretofore, and a spirit of accommodation be observed which has been for years characteristic of the concern. To new customers he would say that no pains will be spared to render their dealings pleasant and profitable
