B. F. SLOAN, EDITOR.

VOLUME 25.

ERIE, SATURDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 30, 1854.

NUMBER 33.

JOHN F. DUNCOMBE

E CHAPIN TRAILER of the Violin and duitar, residence on Sixth st.
Lott door to John P. Vincent. Music arranged for briss or Cotilhon Bands
W. H. SHERMAN

L W OLDS L W OLDS

The real A Retail manufacturers of Well and Unitern and Superior quality, the heat and cheapent now in use superior the result of the real and the result of the real and the real time rather than and mechanical purposes made to order.

L T FOX,

Note the Reconstant, Dentires, a few doors west of American and the real results.

DR EMERY.

G W TODD, WithsCaruth Terry, & Dew. moutins and Wholesale Jobbers in Linglish, German and Do-metic Hardware, Goins, Listols, Wolters, &c. 154 Market BURTON & HERRON. Na casas & Retail Dealers in Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, William Ottes, De Stude, Brushes, Periumery, Pine Soaps, and bentiet. Findings. No. 5 Reed flows. DR O. L. ELLIOTT, kinney, Device. Office and dwelling in South Park Row-DR S C BROWNELL, s to a Dearest, South side of the Public square, Termeen sale and reach streets, brie. Pa CHICERRECTIPE LIKENESSES FOR a DOLLAR

E H ABELL, Lis erreas Art or, Room over the Line Bank, South side

T D EDWARDS, Are from conference of at Law William Pr. Prefer on a D. D. WALKER & CO. process to froduce and commission. March into the state of the message of the Publish Bridge, here, the state of the state

CARSON GRAHAM.

Control Special Rail Law, Cott, and Torrest South T W MOORE. VINCENT, HIMROD & CO. THOMAS M. AUSTIN. be an error of the control of the co

H JARECKI, base to come west side of State, street, i rie, l'a J B GUNNISON SALE & Books, Stationary, Monthly, Mgazines, Cheap Pub-range sheet! Muser, Newspapers, Gold Prins, Pocker Cut-ex & Fist door west of the Reed House, Eric BOOTH & STEWART.

But is a and Retail Dealers in Paney and Staple Dry Goods three goutlemen at once, LIDDELL, KEPLER & CO Make a seaso of Iron Penes, Ra of the in the ers Von There Proof Shotters, and all Kieds of Machiners and Fore United States, tone to order.

STERRETT & GRAY. CALEMAN I N. ORVALA STORE REAL PROPERTY AND ASSESSED AS A STORE AND ASSESSED AS A STORE AS A STORE ASSESSED AS A STORE AS A STO

WM. 8 LANE, M. SANFORD & CO. T HERON STUART. # tors and Physician—Residence on Fourth street, one foor has been discounted Apothecary Hall

RUFUS REED bix is a significant and American Hardwire a strong Anna, Annais, Vices, Iron and Street, No. B. water Pa

ASSA Empire States, State Street, 1644 doors resow two horsel, tree, Pa to Anvis, View, Bottows Axio Arms, S, rings, and eigene elessor to the 1850 for and Cartings Trimmings.

CARTER & BROTHER We can be and Retail Degrees in Drugs, Memorie, Parins, Do south, to see, &c., No. 6, Read Hossa, Eric Pa-JAMES LYTLE,

DURLIN & SLOAN,

GEORGE J. MORTON

T EMERICAN and Commission Merchant, Public Book, Line - General Commission Sail, Fig. Plan and Press. I ROZENSWEIG A CO J C MARSHALL,

TIBBALS, & HAYES, SMITH JACKSON & SON

W THORNTON.

With Wainwright, Huntington and Floyd. J W DOUGLASS,

TANNER & MAGILL. C B WRIGHT & CO. sectors in their resinformal and Sector College under the extrand Warrants and Criticales of Deposit. Also forces on the principal angels the Union, in Sal part 1 onney or sector office, Williams. Block, corner their and the break of the Critical Sector.

Country for Said Cothee, Williams Block, corn test and Public requate Co. G. System WEBB & THAYER, WM A GALBRAITH,

Resident Danaist souffice in the Empire Block, from of State and Fath strong parties. Proceeding the Book warranted isornier is now receiving a very large stock of Spring course for the seeds, ensisting of Dry Goods, Groceries, A. A. A. which were purchased at lower process were obtained for less weeks either. The subscription that those who may have him with their finds to their interest. to continues. He invites his

Poetrn.

ONE YEAR AGO

One year ago, one year ago'-How swiftly have those moments fied And oh! how noiseless Time's swift wing Has flung its shadows o'er my head

Before my sight sad changes rise, And fill my heart with wild surpris One year ago, one year ago'-How short those buried moments seems They dwell upon the soul-- like form-

That come to us in thought and dream And haunt us withen weird spell, Our trusting hearts will love the mill One year ago, one year ago!-'Tis but a breath-a narrow span

Thrown in between the gloomy grave And gala day of erring man. Yet, oh! how few have paused to think Upon the grave's unsated brink' One year ago, one year ago-

Ah! many a hope was new and brigh Whose star is set forever, and Gone down in deep and cheerless nuch And Time will nover bring it back To blossom on Life's dreary track

One year ago, one year ago, Full many a heart that's pulseless now Was heaving quick with raptured thought. And pledging Love's eternal vow-Ah, yes' that heart is cold and still, And throbs no more at music's threll

One year age, one year ago, Full many a dream of future bits Was swelling deep within my heart. And thrilling like Love's fondest & a But sh' it fled on airy wings, And broke my heart' harm as a

One year ago, one year ago! Oh, could that broken in & return And pour its golden promises Within my heart - uneated ura I then would have this area, yeard.

Choice Miscellany. STOORING TO CONQUER.

"How d'ye do, gentlemen" 'repoined the young man addressed, passing the speakers as it in posed to further parley

"That's a match," said one "Who' Checkley and Jane Delmeg-"Yes"

"No, I say; an old fox is not trapped so ely,-Report says all is not right over the wit-"By Joy ," eried the first speaker, often he and Consisting at Law states over Jackson's ing back, "the distanced him area by one is orth that corner of the Photos Square."

"It won't do, depend up in it, if it would which I know nothing," was the rejetace The ladies had made a little move proparatory to the pause to speak, and look d biankly at a

What on earth ails him " exclaimed the calest of the three

"I'm sure I don't know, answered the so-of the youngest, but she did not speak. She muit mum of the farming interest. He saw nowatched the young man's progress until his nace ting to prevent his completing all his schemes, ing round the corner into a street off the main r anxing all his dreams. He planned and experone took him out of sight; and when, after a most mented, studied and worked; and through all he ment, as she and her companions turned in the loy d. Absorbed in the small pleasures and trials same direction, she saw him go by her door with of his daily life, sun and wind, meeting and partout a glance toward the house, an expression of ang, took his time and thoughts from the one seboth pique and perplexity gathered round to rarrows escentiatine most likely to affect him. In parted lips and soft brown eyes. When icit it the distance, like a rain cloud far away, but so lyshe was going. She walked into a paror, sat was a danger he had scarcely looked to—a bond down on a sofa, and remained for some minutes, guranteed by his father for a sum extravagantly pulling at the ends of her sash absently, as it her thoughts had got into a crossknot which she was endeavoring to disentangle. A knock at 1 issuership from the hands of a prudent, well at the many the strength of the stre to consider the state stempers, the principled plebeian; and so went to rest with his rose, and moved toward a large bow-window, as tarber. His aristocratic friend, the treasurer, the appending state stempers, Publisher stempers, Publisher Stempers, Publisher Facebeed it, the subject of her thoughts wark-probbed Peter to pay Deadly. ed into the room "You are alone?" said he

the series had been been read and then seed by to notice the coldness of her manner. He took sidered that his own debts should take precedence and sidered that his own debts should take precedence her unoffered hand, dropped it, and turning to of his father's; rather that, being yet unconstructions. forc he spoke again Then he said, stowly. "I came to bid you good by" The lady countenance changed, and changed again. She added: "I am going to emigrate. Not to was seized-crops, stock, furniture-everything large map hung upon the wall; "nor to Austra | soif It was, indeed, rather to foil the bailiffs, so lia. I am going further from you, Jane I am tar, than to serve their master, that these, were going to do what will divide us more widely, claimed and kept for him by his workmen; so It was with a thrill of the heart he remembered and not the place which, I was born in. After law had laid fast hold on. this week, you can no longer give me your acquaintance—I can no longer accept it a parting request to you—that you will hear me and he could not afford time for the trial. He for a few minutes, and without reply This morning all I possessed was swept from ne-at a blow. I was left but the bare means of main taining my orphan brothers, by entering at oneupon a servile employment. I have made up enlate my mind to do so. But I had my heart too, to -I could not reconcile that to my debased posi-I would not meet you upon any other But I leave you forever. I come to tell you, in words. of winning you; that I only waited to feel it and frankly, as long as I dare ask you to become my wife: I tell you so now, solely as an avowal due your silence, you cannot misconceive my motive time gone. The mystery that had hung like a live on golden gossamer between two young lives and Coals were the steadlest articles of import; to book. "It is not I who should be backward if golden gossamer between two young lives and yet so fearful, was to be no more.

God bless you! Good by, Jane-good by "

ing toward the country, like a fashionable fore-finger extended by the town to the neighboring rusticities—Its upper windows looked into the hing of an eye; and as Sir Harry's carriage rolled seemingly as far as ever from her prospects membered the same fact, and it prompted acceptly to a call next door but one, she could distin.

At the close of that time an accountantship in tance of the invitation, even though she would by to a call next door but one, she could distin-

Her the conversation dropped. The heroism chill upon his reclications. His heart opened poom Astr Checkley's resolution-time, and place, to the old places, and the old people two-with at a demandances considered -was tacitly recognized heighbors? taken himself off. Her fortune would be a motive to zero be an present; but every one had a motive the first hour's exercise of his new duties. Mr town, formed no bar to his pressing an of a part one year before, John Checkley en- Dolmege had engaged in milling, and to spare changed attachment to Miss Delmege-ny years younger than himself. As playthings and durings to him and his bride elect, he lookand to ward to raising and training them, to setthing them in professions, or dividing with them, in due season, a property trebled in value by his "Nor do I," was expressed in the countenance | care and skill and the "good time coming"—the some, she entered as if scarcely seeing whith a ing that a single change may bring it down, there beyond his means to meet. John Checkley, senit, had the satisfaction of rescuing the county charct. He used the county funds for his own immediate purposes, fully bent on making his "Yess," she replied, "I am. Mr Checkley tenants pay up to the grand jury; but, meantime Intent on his own thoughts, he did not seem he died. The heir came into possession, but con-

the window, looked thence for some minutes be tracted, there was no obligation whatsoever to discharge them It was a mere extension of the common law of honor He shut his ears and his pocket on the creditors; and down came the counlooked relieved rather than otherwise when he ity upon poor John Checkley. In an hour his all more finally I am going to quit the position, worthless were they in comparison with what the Then John Checkley looked around him. It was easy to estimate his resource. He had relacame to see you once more, upon the footing of tives; but through them nothing could be gained old times happy times to me I come to make without delay, perhaps not more even with it; put that chance out of sight. In fact, he possessed nothing but those carts and horses; he could count on no other reality for support of his orphan brothers. On these, then, he was to spe-When he had outtred the presence of Miss Del-

imeg., he returned to his own home, only to yield tion. I cannot meet you upon an equal footing, it up to strangers. He gave up his accounts with his lands to a receiver, and then resolutely turned his back upon Monally, and, so far as was possithat I love you; that I sought you with the hope | ble, on all associated with it. He took lodgings for his brothers and himself, and by the week's would not be presumptuous in me to expect your end had disrated himself from the genteel comps. ther careless expression of "having proposed to spot where his prize—the deer—had fallen. On to resume her march with the rest. By the preference. Remember that I loved you fondly by of a ten miles wide circuit around Fountainstown by means of advertisement, that "John Checkley, carrier, solicited public custom for the obviously increased coldness of his manner, Miss to you, not for my own sake. When I entread conveyance of goods, etc." By being his own Delmege saw something of what really had been "guide" he would himself have all the profit of passing through his mind, or that she was that it had buried itself into an old poplar, and, You could answer me now in one way only, and his undertaking, and he had no desire to avoid loss need to be rejected.—Give me your that office. His pride was of the proudest sort—proper to reply that mamma would be very hap—honey as bright as gold. He stopped to gather nor's home, where she passed the rest of her days hand once more, for old time. You could not that when down, will second circumstances in py to see him hold acquaintance with a carrier" No words - sinking itself further; and, progress being the law of events, strike the bottom to make sure of a very observable miscount in her transfer of dashed to the ground in anger, when lo! he smote attest the truth of this remarkable story. This strange monologue was spoken without an uprise. From Fountainstown to the next sea- cash received; the gentleman to go through his a flock of quails, killing a number of them.

ed, bewildered, pained. She had been awaken- horses were fed and stabled, there would still re- double columns, mingling and changing, till at ed, and found the treasure-trove of her dream- main sufficient for a youg man and two boys to length the manager brought them to a check.

the world was withdrawn. The unspoken confidence had been explained away. That pleasant "John Checkley solicited the public of Fountains-score I know her mind the better for my own." relation, so familiar, yet so distant, so fond and town to try his coals." Of his former associates where t anow her mind the better for my own.

That pleasant relation, so familiar, yet so distant, so fond and town to try his coals." Of his former associates the was able to give all his stention, so fearful, was to be no more. some deart with the first convenience; others and governor and directors to whom he was indebted that what could she do! What could one do in whom the genteel instincts, tastes and sympathies, nence. The money of all went into the same very thought was enough to make a hopeful lov loves, hates and aspirations of three county families were interwoven and bound up closely as the ley was prospering beyond his hopes. Not a few new manager gained the top of the wheel in the three strands of the broad auburn plait wound of his old companions met him almost as a fami-rapid revolution of gentrel opinion that day in round that fair and puzzled head? What could harly as ever—when they saw him; for his frieze Fountainstown. Long headed vice chairmen of Jane Blackeneye Dawson Delmege say to a de- coat and felt hat could easily pass unobserved as poor-law boards, starched J P's, and affronted claration from a carrier? Nothing. And she could his, and the distance from the footway to the forty-fifth cousins affiliated with as kindred gennot be sorry that confusion had been beforehand middle of the street, where he walked after his ius, or hailed as the triumphant and irrepressable with reflection in preserving silence. For a long cars, might as well be miles as inches to those aspiring of thorough breeding, what the manatime she stood still where he had left her—no | who did not chance to look across. He had had, ger set down to a simple, honest instinct, favoryes lived over the way to watch her. Spring too, invitations to some parties—of bachelors;—ing circumstances, and perhaps one little incident deer park of the manor; the lower ones upon the The relation that he himself had prescribed blank dead wall. At last she moved away, went existed unvaried between him and Miss Del- rangements, and hurried away once more to the up stairs, put away her gloves and bonnet with mege. They avoided each other so cautiously old house in Spring Lane. a sigh, as though something else was laid aside that accident had all the credit of keeping them with them in the wardrobe. She walked into the from meeting If reliance on her sympathy had semething to the younger of "fears he might of drug ing-room, opened the windows wider—she had any part in his motives or expectations, he oven more occupied the next day," but her mothfelt as if the room required more air; sat down with her hand under her head; and glancing along the soft green grass and shadowy trees, so well known to both herself and him, her mind ran better prediction "that she would marry into the without ceremony, for the day, behaving that he over that strange interview; then further back next marching regiment, to do away with all re- was free from home engagements." He confirmto other conversations, other mornings, till a mist membrance of her courtship with a carrier."— ed her suppositions, then paused, and tooked at came over both. For a moment she could not Two years from their parting interview passed by, Sane Jane looked out of the win low, she resee quite clearly; but it passed away in the twink- and such a marriage, if not any marriage, was intembered he was now manager. He, too, re-guish every member of the party. She closed her the Fountainstown Bank became vacant. The not second it. He laid by his har, and with it m ditation by resolving to say nothing to her manager, a stranger in the town, who had taken the remnant of constraint that had hour sound tainely of what had occurred—to let John Cheek

a fancy to John Cheektey's mode of doing his him previously. Conversation was resumed in a highest course disclose itself. It was enough that own business, offered him a place. The twins kept up between him and the effect lady; the his heart was wrung, poor fellow!-it would ill then conducted the home business during Bank | younger sat in the window, listening or thinking become her to bare it to the world. Then came hours, still, by a little management, not omitting as might be—Checkley wondered which Y is fair in the r's knock, and as a first step to her pair, she retired out of the way of question as to ther's salary was added to the common stock—when, on the entrance of a second guest to Mrs. After six months more, there came another he would not use it. Mr belonge wis expected to make the results of the salary was added to the common stock—the would not use it. Mr belonge wis expected to make the results of the result t pe het deverted all probability of embarrassing for report said, a situation of more case and trust sure that, taking one thing with enother, he t po not deverted all probability of embarrassing for report said, a situation of more case and feast sure that, taking one thing with enotion, he go about, who couldn't see through a forty-foot decided that the bond was "good and valid, and the wind be receptable as a son in two the was good and valid, and the country of the change in John Checkley's place in the bank "The interest in Mr John in twholly sanguine of the country of riem it, ness, was walking rapidly up the street towns and a string to flow—a thorough-bred gentleman, be would reposses the old place park wall, we not sold to a string to flow—a thorough-bred gentleman, be would reposses the old place park wall, we not sold to a string to flow—a thorough-bred gentleman, be would reposses the old place park wall, we not sold to a string to flow—a thorough-bred gentleman, be would reposses the old place park wall, we not sold to a string to flow—a thorough-bred gentleman, be would reposses the old place park wall, we not sold to a string to flow—a thorough-bred gentleman, be would reposses the old place park wall, we not sold to a string to flow—a thorough-bred gentleman, be would reposses the old place. ness, was walking rapidly up the street towns as a cling blow—a thorough-bred gentleman, be them:

"The Pilgrim Fathers, forsooth? What had the might have done better for himself, and for others too," rejoined the guest.

"Well, I think he might have done better for himself, and for others too," rejoined the guest.

"What's in the wind, John, he cried the wind with the might have done better for himself, and for others too," rejoined the guest.

"What's in the wind, John, he cried the wind with the wind wi Live here, and you is get grown that saw him part with Jane Deinie genome one is that saw him part with Jane Deinie genome one is that saw him part with Jane Deinie genome one is that saw him part with Jane Deinie genome one is that he now recentered Frantains oighbors '' ' ' That Miss Delmege was stril single, was a fact the possession of a middle interest, old 2s the time of a confidential clerk, and avoid the

> to take both together
> "You've returned here," observed she, with ome embarrassment of manner "Yes;" he refrained from adding, "as mana-She could perceive that fact—and con tinued: "And I am not sorry to find myself once more at home ' Some indifferent remarks followed reciprocal inquiries for Mr an ( Mrs D Imege, and the between their past and present; it was ground on which both stood at ease

"May I thank you to look at that," said the lady at length, glancing at the check "I am time we stood here together?"

rather in haste "Certainly-excuse my detaining you so long," ephed the gentleman, as he took up the fluttering bit of paper. Then adding, "one moment" pray pardon me; I am still new here," he moved toward his own office, reaching, as he passed, the check to an accountant. Miss Delmogo saw, or thought she saw, his countenance changing, with a heart in it" meantime, to the official dubiousness of faccount overdrawn?" It was with a proud swell of the? heart she felt she had come to claim money, not to ask credit. She could expect no tender remembrance of the past from the young manager, and she looked for none in transacting business with him. And yet she misjudged somewhat the feelings that she canvassed; they lean dover tho counter for more than she supposed. Never had John Cheekly been so little disposed to quarrel with her conduct as at the moment when she was America," he continued, following her eyes to a except two horses and two carts purchased by him- questioning herself of its necessity or even its lignity He had condemned her weakness before he had had opportunity to estimate his own, that his old avowal was to that hour unretracted and unrejected-that he was, in fact, her suitor still, if he desired to appear in that relation It was this returning love that had swept across her path and ebbed away with changing circumstanoes years before, which now said to itself: "It might perhaps serve her better than in aiding her father's projects, if-" Here a great letter D cut short supposition. A fair bilance in the Our friend, the hunter, who was standing on parting compliments was all needed at his nands just then; as he returned, feeling him-dropped dead in his tracks self a little put aback, though why he would have

"Why not to-day?" said be, shutting up the Lane was a one-sided, semi-rural street, stretch-but assteady and good humored refusalsfollowing that he would not return on to analyze. The he in his inmost soul thanked Providence. When the clook struck three he sprang like a school-boy from his seat, oversaw the closing armembered the same fact, and it prompted we en-place in the bank. "The interest in Mr John in twholly sarguine of the risult. If r from if, r mens to be seen.

The profession coherently before her. He had Checkley's store, a large quantity of coals, a he had attained a full case to the model lity of r mens to be seen.

The right coals are constable in the report of his own number of horses, ears, &c.," were veried and labor." and could look with case—without early sold, and the proceeds lodged for the second of are intempt—on those who had not be the twins, who earnestly desired to attain a proportionity to make a like acquisition. He could be every day in our t was, formed no bar to his pressing an Al. says of pt ssing onward with song and prayer. "Not a bit of it," answered her father, in or-there is mine now; will you take it - tis a hand a shelter near, and halted also. The next day again," said Jane ingeniously

"Do you suppose I ever ceased to think of membrance from you. "I am not sure of that," said the young manager, frankly. "If you had made me at all less then removed its post upon one side of the moving the stenen and pungency which meet one on miserable then, I might be far less happy now ing column. Thus the animal kept up with the opening the stable-door in the morning, might One month after, John Checkley gave Jane troops till they crossed the State of Ohio, and Delmege a partner's right in the honors and reached lake Erie. On the journey, as the men to If they were shut up a night or a few hours emoluments of the "Bank-house" Across the grew familliar with their comrade, it became a in their own stable, perhaps then they might. river, in the distance, lives Monally, itseld trons pet, receiving a share of the rations issued to the A horse cannot breathe the atmosphere of many and grey walls fair in the sunshing of a plansure soldiers, and destitute of provisions as the troops stables without injury, to his eyes, and especial

A Great Shot.

of was that of an old hunter, who told us the story, but for the perfect accuracy of whose state-book before him showed that the Delmeges in the bank of the Miami river, rifle in hand, had no wise needed friendly aid. They were yet spied on the opposite shore a noble deer, upon conduct to constitutional scruples, and observed well to do-remarkably well for these over which he fired. At the instant he touched the whelming times. The paying of the customary trigger, an enormous fish leaped from the water and received the ball through the gills; the deer fore had leave to remain. The hunter took a canoe, which, as fortune found it hard to say While the teller and Miss | was in smiling mood, happened to be near, se-Delinege counted and recounted the money, he cured the fish, which had ceased to flounce and filled up the time for himself with vague and ra- was floating with the current; and landed at the inquire for Mrs. Delmege as soon as business examining the animal he found that the ball had the winter frosts had set in and the animal suf would permit." Whether it was that through passed through him, and looking in the direction ferred greatly on the homeward march. She it had taken, he discovered a dead deer also slain by the indomitable bullet, and presently saw a stick to stop the waste of sweetness, and his They parted—the lady to go home, and make hand rested on a rabbit, which he lifted and then

A stand desirous of country up the Laguer business of country up the taken away by the surprise, could have twice in six days, and thus average at the outset to know the difference between such a bank and twice in six days, and thus average at the outset to know the difference between such a bank and twice in six days, and thus average at the outset to know the difference between such a bank and twice in six days, and thuse average at the outset to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and twice in six days, and thuse average at the outset to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a bank and to know the difference between such a ban

A Horse Speculation.

Sam S-- is a horse-dealer of some eminence in Albany, New York Last week he visited this city. In passing up Broadway, he discov cred a half drunken man riding a bay horse that rather struck his fancy He thus soliliquized: "That's a fine beast and how much she looks like my "Bess." Had she one white foot, I would certainly swear it was her. I wonder what shame It is issued in a better style than the sort of a "dicken" I could strike up with the owner? As he is about half shaked I would not wonder if he were kindly disposed. For softening the heart a small quantity of gin works won-

"Not half what she is worth. She cost $400. will sell her however, for $250 ' "Too much-I will give you $150 er for a match, or I'd offer $5 less."

"Oan't take any such sum. Say $225 and the critter is yourn."

"After a half-hour's chafing, a bargain was finally agreed to; they "split the difference."
Sam paid $137½, and the seller fobbed his mon-ry and retired to enjoy himself. The next evening Sam started for Albany, with 'a match for Bess," that he would not take three hundred dollars for " On steping ashore, the first man. Sam met was his hostler, who opened up" as follows: Where did you get the mare!"

"In New York." Weit how curious, I thought she was gone good and all."

Thought what was gone?" "Why, Bess, the mare. She was stolen from he stable on Thursday night, and we all thought she had been run off to Canada."

"You don't say that mare is Bess?" "I do, indeed." "Where's her white foot?" "Under a little black paint, I should think from the way the hair sticks out. Besides, there's the very head stall I made last Sunday with my own biessed hands. It's Bess and no "After a little examination, Sam had to admit that "gir and sugar," had done him brown—term of the Franklin court, when sudge Kimmell that the mare was out $137, and all brought about by a desire to take an advantage of a

bell a Whether this will reform Sam's factics

"Married Yesterday." Every day in our journal that with the first the, said a guest at table. "He might have bol- fession hereditary in the family. The lad him make support allowance for the way to single dampters and the support of the said of the support of the said of the On a fashorable-booking morning, ten y are past, a gay group, consisting of three ladies and agentlemen, came out of a cake shop in the ladie and sentlemen, came out of a cake shop in the ladie and sentlemen, came out of a cake shop in the ladie and sentlemen, came out of a cake shop in the ladie and sentlemen, came out of a cake shop in the ladie and sentlemen, came out of a cake shop in the ladie and sentlemen, came out of a cake shop in the ladie and sentlemen, came out of a cake shop in the ladie and sentlemen, came out of a cake shop in the ladie and sentlemen, came out of a cake shop in the ladie and sentlemen, came out of a cake shop in the ladie and sentlemen, came out of a cake shop in the ladie and sentlemen, came out of a cake shop in the ladie and sentlemen of the ladie and sentlem

As a most natural apropes to it was a composition occurs beautifu. The sour soars upwards ments, came an avowal of the young overlagers in on the dust like a dove loosed from its eage. "NARRIED YESTERDAY." It seems now a long distance to the grave—a Que a Elexabeth, in a large tract of land in "good risk of trusting other parties. Jane sometimes rupting him "Am I not dabbling in tra! my long road to the final rest. But soon the shad-he at and tavorably located. It brought with it walked to the bank, to lodge or draw any course call now? A million may shake bent a will a long and life loses its summer bloom. another as Mr Checkley raised his hat and p hear? and tavorably located. It brought with it ed on—abruptly rather than nurradity, as it is the furden, or as he would rather say, the privileacked the inclination rather than the time to lege, of providing for two brothers, twins; and makes the functional part of the furnity and the formula of the functional part of t

> room; Jane kept gazing straight before her, till i ada. A company of Kentu ky volunteers, dest propose for your toast-"The Pilgrin Mothers twins. His years of absence lay, bridge-like, at a whisper of "Will you allow me to speak one; tine I for Snelly's army, had their rendezvous at moment with you there he rose and walked Harrodsburg, in Ken wasy, and formed a sort with him to the wind average of nucleus or raying point for the military results a tining which may be seen almost every a Po you remember, Jane. Said he, other list cruits of that part of the country. When they The ways in which it evolute are manifold. marched from Harrollburg, towards the Ohio health and comfort it man's nobic servant are ime we stood here together?' marched from Harrodsburg, towards the Ohio health and comfort it man's noble servant are "It was not here—it was down stairs," she reserving got a mile or two on their way, sucrificed in the stable, on the road, and also tithey noticed two pigs lighting, and delayed their ed up without short r from cold and wind, while plied with a blush and half smile they noticed two pigs agating, and delayed their ed up without short r from cold and wind, while march to see it out. After they had resumed his master is coz is enjoying himself by a warm onen. Will you re-consider now what I said to their march the pig which had been the victor fireside. The tuning of every one who has any you then? On my side all is the same I took in the contest, was observed to follow them | compassion in the constitution of his nature, your hand then without hop or wish to keep it. At night when they encamped, the pig found the pig accompanied the troops as before; and herse so horribly neglected, and beedlessly sac of did not expect you would ever think of m : thus it marched every day and halted every night with the soldiers, or near them When they came opposite Cincinnati, a which place the troops found themselves at times, no one thought of putting the knife to the throat of their fellow soldier What they had was still shared, and if the pig fared as scantily as the rest at times, it The "best shot ever made," that we have heard still grunted on, and manifested as much patriotism in his own line as the bipeds it accompa nied did in theirs. At the margin of the Lake she embarked with the troops, and went as far as Bass Island. But when offered a passage over into Canada, she obstinately refused to embark a second time. Some of the men attributed her that she knew it was contrary to the constitution to force a militia pig over the line. She there-

After the campaign had closed, the troops re crossed the Lake, having left some of their horses on the American side. As soon as the line was formed to the great surprise of the troops there was the pig on the right of the line, read the troops recrossed the Ohio river. There she gave out, and was placed in trusty hands by in ease and indolence. There are many in Kentucky, who can now

A Great Swindle.

The following remarks of the Philadelphia Aryes meet our views precisely:
BARNI M'S LIFE —The autobiography of Bar num is eliciting from the press of the whole country, with only here and there an exception, the oudemnation and censure which ought to follow a contession so shameless of a life so fall of Newgate Calendar, but, in all other respects, should be classed with that "Honesty is the best policy," has steed as a truthful maxim for ages; but Barnum thought differently-and so also do thieves, highwaymen and pick pockets-and he now sends forth his shameless confessions, made for a love of money, to corrupt the minds of the young, by showing how successful a shameless har and systematic swindler may become. The back should be driven from every honest freside, and receive the execution of every father who would inculcate a principle of honesty in his sons. - If this last scheme of money making in successful, we may next expect Barnum to put to press in guilt and Turkey morocco, the confessions of wantons and women of the pave, for his and decry virtue Loss high time "A whip were placed in every honest hand," To lash the rased naked through the world."

present book is of that character solely. Its object is to guild a life of lying-to elevate vice

A Novel Lawsuit.

A suit at law, of a somewhat-romantic character, has just been terminated in Franklin couper. It seems that one John Lesher, became pierced with the arrow of Cupid, and wishing to heal the wound by the application of lawful wedlock, he made proposals to the object of his affectious, which, it seems, she received favorably; but the father, Mr. Jacob Wyant, being a prudent man of much foresight, required the said John to enter into bonds of five hundred dollars, "conditioned that the said John Lesher should live with his wife and treat her as a loving and, affectionate husband should do." But the parties, after living together some months, separated, and this suit was brought to recover the amount of the bond. The case was first tried at the last April | decided the bond to be invalid. The case was carried to the Supreme Court, and it was there in accordance with the policy of the law." The case, therefore, came up again in the Franklin county courts, when the jury found for the plaintiff $979,75. un 5919,15.

The result of this suit may give a valuable himself, and for others too, rejoined the guess, and the neighboring goury, he was just one min to make of a min sold to a point of the same serion. The manager we may to the same serion.

The manager we may to the same and sold shining now amid they had commission.

Leve for a and you'll get grass!" quoted

The manager we may to make of a min sold shining now amid they had shining now amid they had shining now amid the same serion, and nearly at the very hour, better his mints very four manager we may to make of the same serion, and nearly at the very hour, better his mints very four manager we may to make of the same serion, and nearly at the very hour, better his mints very four manager we may the same serion and nearly at the very hour, better his mints very four manager we make the prigrim fathers also, and yet their names are never mentioned. Who ever gave a dinner in the himmannent of the same serion makes are never mentioned. Who ever gave a dinner in the himmannest of the same serion makes are never mentioned. Who ever gave a dinner in the himmannest of the same serion makes are never mentioned. Who are never mentioned the prigrim Mothers? Who are never mentioned are never mentioned and the prigrim method of the same serion makes are never mentioned. the same season, and nearly at the very nour, before his minds very nour, the hard of the same season, and nearly at the very nour, the hard of the same season, and nearly at the very nour, the hard of the same season, and nearly at the very nour, the hard of the same season, and nearly at the very nour, the hard of the same season, and nearly at the very nour, the hard of the same season, and nearly at the very nour, the hard of the same season, and nearly at the very nour, the hard of the same season, and nearly at the very nour, the hard of the same season, and nearly at the very nour, the hard of the same season, and nearly at the very nour, the hard of the same season, and nearly at the very nour, the hard of the same season, and nearly at the very nearly n is beyond endurance. One would actually suppose that New England had been colonized by men, and pesterity provided by especial act of Providence? Only Mrs. Hemans has volunteerments, came an avowal of the years of the present; but every one had a motive that Miss Delinege was stril single, was a fact to the mark position has provided by the position of the positio the case—that the Mayflower ever brought any thing but men across the Atlantic. I assure you my dear friends, that I am perfectly disgusted with the self-concert of the men. They appropriate everything to themselves, even the settle ment of a colony, and the peopling of a whole continent. I did hope there was one prerogaround and found her standing before him. Her to pique ourselves upon is fast becoming obsol to present may hap will turn back to the reto pique ourselves upon is fast becoming obsol to post, weeping silently the could mitted querily to they would leave to woman. We have submitted querily to they would leave to woman. We have submitted querily to they would leave to woman. We have submitted querily to they would leave to woman. We have submitted querily to they would leave to woman. We have submitted querily to they would leave to woman. We have submitted querily to their inventions in supercoding as I have very little doubt she will be, I know the tree to be deprived of this one privilege; we will not tamely submit to take both together. no one in whose names I should not her happiness more safe. I know, my dearfellow, and teel sheaves, they must pass beyond the gates of pearl, ourselves be deluded into the belief that New how hand-somely you acted toward my family at | which will be but one marriage—that of the England was settled and peopled entirely by a time when Jane's little fortune would have been a matter of some moment to you.

Limb with hos chosen people — Nevark Daily Pilgrim Fathers. If we could they have been a matter of some moment to you.

Make a people of the people in the property of the people in the been a matter of some moment to you.

John Checkley sprang up stairs three steps at a time. The two elder ladies looked round in Great Britain, a very remarkable circumstance.

Fathers, if there had been no mothers? And I hope, dear Captain, that I have succeeded in convening you that you will be lending yourself. surprise to see a gentleman so soon in the sitting occurred in counterton with the invasion of Canton and act of injustice towards us if you do not

> is a tining which may be seen almost every day must alt more pain deby sights which so often

One of the ways in which this is done is prob bly little consider d. Many owners of horses. were to cross the Ohio in a terryboat, the pig. probably, show them up in a close, unventilated "Not quite, perhaps I did not deserve re- on getting to the water's edge, promptly plunged and perhaps dark stable, without it once occurring in and swam across, and then waited on the oth- to them that they are thus injuring the health er side until the whole cortege crossed over, and and destroying the comfort of their animals. make some think of this matter who do not seem to his lungs or respiratory organs. As this is the season when horses are being stabled, pasturing being about over, it would be well for many horses, and for their owners too, if they would see that their stables are provided with means of ventilation, and that every source of pungent and foul smells be removed as early and effectually as possible. - Country Gentleman.

JAIL AMUSEMENTS IN INDIANA.—According to the Lafayette (Ind.) Journal, the prisoners in the jail at that piace have a jolly good time every day. It says:

"Through the kinduces of the jailor they have seen provided with a violin, and one of the num ber being a good player they have frequent cotilion parties or stag dances, which have the advantage of being 'select,' without that stiffness and formality peculiar to such entertainments in higher circles. They have recently made valuable acquisition to their number. An itigerant showman, who had fallen into the clutcher of the law, and owing to the tightness of the monmade out, however, to reach Maysville where ey market was unable to pay the cost, and was the troops recrossed the Ohio river. There she caged to satisfy the insulted dignity of the State. He got up an exhibition the first night of his incarceration; and has continued them ever since, to the amusement of his companions:

Banks in Arkansas manage business in a rather primitive manner. Some one writen there, that before he could get a fifty dollar mote dis This strange monologue was spoken without an uprise. From Fountainstown to the next sealeast received; the gentleman to go through all a nock of quality, kinning a number of them.

This strange monologue was spoken without an uprise. From Fountainstown to the next sealeast received; the gentleman to go through all a nock of quality, kinning a number of them.

This strange monologue was spoken without an uprise. From Fountainstown to the next sealeast received; the gentleman to go through all a nock of quality, kinning a number of them.

This strange monologue was spoken without an uprise. From Fountainstown to the next sealeast received; the gentleman to go through all a nock of quality, kinning a number of them.

This strange monologue was spoken without an uprise. From Fountainstown to the next sealeast received; the gentleman to go through all a nock of quality, kinning a number of them.

This strange monologue was spoken without an uprise. From Fountainstown to the next sealeast received; the gentleman to go through all a nock of quality, kinning a number of them.

This strange monologue was spoken without an uprise. From Fountainstown to the next sealeast received; the gentleman to go through all a nock of quality, kinning a number of them.

This strange monologue was spoken without an uprise. From Fountainstown to the next sealeast received; the gentleman to go through all a nock of quality, kinning a number of them.

This strange monologue was spoken without an uprise. From Fountainstown to the next sealeast received; the gentleman to go through all a nock of quality, kinning a number of them.

The strange monologue was spoken without an uprise. From Fountainstown to the next sealeast received; the gentleman to go through all uprise.

The strange monologue was spoken without an uprise. From Fountainstown to the next sealeast received; the strange monologue was spoken without an uprise. From Fountainstown to the next sealeast received; the strange monologue was spoken without an up

ينس