PRESQUE ISLE STEAMBOAT COMPANY.

Capital $75,000

THIS company has been formed with a view of giving a splendid Pleasure trip on Lake Erie. Being composed of business, energetic men, with sufficient cash capital to enable them to prosecute their business in a manner which will be satisfactory to all who may favor them with good and sufficient insurance of life and limb. The management of the affair, they think, is such that no one may be deprived of joining in the excursion for the want of their books, which have been put within the reach of all.

First-class Steamers have been engaged for every trip, will be used to render the trip the most pleasant and safe ever been witnessed on the Great Lakes.

No expense will be spared to render it agreeable to the most spendid as could be afforded. The cuisine and fashionable saloon for the ladies, already signified an intention of favoring the company with their company, and the usual festivities of the season, such as dancing, &c., will be indulged in, rendering the excursion one of the most pleasant ever undertaken on the waters of Lake Erie.

The steamer will start from Presque Isle, and during the excursion will visit Canada besides other points of interest.

A fine Band of Music will be in attendance during the trip.

With the view of adding an attractive feature to this magnificent affair, and of further gratifying the general curiosity and interest to those participating, the Committee, possessing Books, be unable to receive a great number of applicable articles will be distributed, under the direction of the Committee, selected by the Book-holders, and by presence of the excursionists, thus giving to each of those who participate an opportunity, of enjoying the sample free of charge—annexed.

The distribution will take place some time during the trip, and as before stated, will be managed in a manner by the Book holders present, so as to secure entire fairness, and give satisfaction to all.

The number of Books is limited to 25,000, Twenty five thousand At $3 Each

FANNY FERN'S NOVEL, RUTH HALL.

A Tale of Domestic Life.

400pp. 12mo. Cloth, Price, $1,25.

Every body knows Fanny Fern; every body has laughed and cried over her sparkling, dashing, truthful, genial writings; everybody will wish to read this, her first novel, and every one who does read it will pronounce it her greatest work. Says an able critic who has read the proof sheets, "Ruth Hall is a work which not only exceeds anything which Fanny Fern has before written, but which in many respects surpasses any other work whatever. For intense and sustained interest of narrative, for originality of conception and treatment, for scorching sarcasm and withering rebuke of pretensions and hypocrisy, for elevation of moral tone and winsomeness of religious inculcations, for vigor, freshness, simplicity, directness and fascination of style, we have never seen its equal. . . . . The story takes possession of our heart at once, we follow 'Ruth' through her trials with as much interest as though she were our own sister: one breathes not a sigh, suffers not a sorrow, which the reader does not feel as acutely as though the first came from his own heart, and the second were one of his own and experience. The characters are such as we are constantly meeting in every-day life; and how boldly and skillfully they are drawn, how powerfully the story is told, how touching is its pathos, how sparkling its wit, how irresistable its humor, how severe its satire, and how true its moral, no adequate idea can be gained except by reading it."

Ruth Hall will be for sale by booksellers generally. To any one sending us the retail price we will send a copy of the work by mail, post-paid. Published by

NEW HARDWARE STORE.

I AM now receiving the largest and best assorted Stock of Domestic and Foreign Hardware ever brought to Erie co., which was bought for cash from manufacturers, without the jobbers profit These goods were selected expressly for this market, and I am confident that any one upon examination, will find that in quality and prices I can defy competition.—I am not fond of boasting and therefore, only ask my patrons to call and examine for themselves My Stock of American, English, Swedes and Russian Iron of all sizes, Sanderson & Bros. Cast Steel; also, Germans, Hoopel and American spring and Tue Cork steel Cast, Log, Trace and Halter Chains Blacksmith's Bellows, Vices, Sledges, Hammers, Drills and Screw Plates from three to twelve dollars. To Carpenters, particular, inducements are offered My reputation for keeping good tools, is too well established to speak of quality here; but I have only to say that my stock of Bench tools, Socket, Firmer, Paring and Turning Chisels, excels any thing ever offered before

A new and beautiful lot of Socket Firmers and carpenter's slicks have been very much liked by all kinds, Hand, Pannel, Rip, Back, Web, Compass, Pad and Buck saws are going like hot cakes Circular Rip and Cheseut saws of all sizes, together with Wm Rowlands & Hoe's cast steel mulay mill saws; Atkins' cross cut saws and Price's wood saws. My stock of door trimmings are too well known, and my space too limited here to permit enumeration.

My stock of shelf Hardware comprises every thing that can be called for "almost" Ship carpenters will find a good assortment of Watrous and Ladies, caulking mallets and irons and in short everything in their line.

Builders will find a general assortment of their tools; trowels, sticks lifters, shovels &c Ladies will find curtain pins and bed furniture, curtains of cloth, transparent and oil paper; paperhangings and a new spreading stye of ball stands, shovel and tongs stands, and a general assortment of House furnishing goods Those goo Trow mills are still found here, and a full and complete assortment of the rubber belting from the Boston belting Co., together with packing both hemp and rubber

But my pen tires and I find it useless to try a notice here a tithe of what I offer to the good citizens of Erie county, suffice it to say that "my latch string always hangs out," and that I am not afraid to show my goods

To dealers, I would say that I can sell you goods on as good terms as you will buy them in the Eastern cities; and if you look at my stock in this city, call at No 6 Cheapside, on French street, opposite the Park. J. C. SELDEN.
Erie, Nov 18, 1854. 27.
