SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 17, 1855

Topics of the Week.

We have to record no event of an exciting character this week. "All the world, and the rest of mankind" have behaved themselves remarkably well, so far as we can judge by the papers. The only thing that has at all moved a portion of the people from their propriety is the death and buriel of the "bruiser." BILL POOLE. in New York Our unapphiaticated readers will. doubtiess, be slow to believe that the death and bariel of a person of the character of Poole would create any other feeling than that of relief-a feeling that society was well rid of a dangerous person, and that however much the cause of his death ought to be condemned, the event is but a legitimate result of a live spent in turmoil and strife. But the following description of the event will dissolve all their doubts. It is from the pen of an eye witness:

NEW YORK, Sunday, March 11, 1855 -Nev. er, since the obsequies of General Harrison, or the funeral pageant of Henry Clay, did the monstration as was the case to-day, the occasion being the funeral of the notorious "boxer" and "bruiser," Bill Poole, so brutally murdered by the Morrissey gang at Stanwix Hall, a few days

It is estimated that at least two hundred thousand persons were in the streets, all along the ane of procession from the late residence of the deceased, in Christopher street, down Broadway 1 the South Ferry. House tops were crowded, windows were full of heads, and even church seeples were thronged with men, women and e ildren, more anxious to see the funeral than hear the sermon

The Poole Guards, the Poole Association, and th . Rynders' Guards, three military companies, to aded the procession, accompanied by a band ! music performing the Dead March of Saul -Tue coffin was robed in the folds of an Amerieats flag, and was borne on the shoulders of the personal friends of the desensed.

When the procession passed the Bank Excirange, corner of Broadway and Howard street. he house-a celebrated resort of all the fancy men about town, and of which Poole was par proprietor. The persons in the procession all were bedges, with the following inscription:-

Hancock Lodge, Order of United Americans turne i out strong, with their banners and regalia. Pale, it seems, was connected with that Assofr m Philadelphia, Baltimore and Albany.

There can be no doubt that, in making a demous ration of this character, the Know-Nothtuge were desirous of turning tol account the words put into the last breath of the pugilist:

And all this because a man of notorious bad charm arms bully and bruiser—the keeper of a gragation for the accommodation of fancy men: the mapanion of the low and vile, in a drunken row on the Sabbath morning, received a wound of sadness upon the death struggles of the Courier and Enguirer remarks, beld was not even conspicuous for crime, had ren any great physical distinction, should been aspicuous for some years, as a political

Sebastopol has not been taken, neither have the Allies made any new demonstration towards it. Destitution in England had almost manched its beight From the combined cause of an unusually severe winter, unusually dear prices for all descriptions of provisions, and a total stagnation of trade, the poor are in a deplorable condition. Many thousand laborers have been for weeks without food, excepting the supplies of charity. A riot of two or three days duration had occurred in Liverpool and in London. Some disturbance occurred among the unisted. At the sailing of the Pacific a change the question-would he? had taken place for the better. A sudden thaw set in, and business improved decidedly

- By a later arrival, that of the Africa at Halifix, we have the startling intelligence that the EMPEROR OF RUSSIA IS DEAD! He expired saddenly at 1 o'clock on the morning of Friday the 2d ult., and the event created the greatest ter an attack of influence. His illness was known in England before the news of his death was received, and caused a slight rise in the funds. The effect of his death of course, had not transpired.

- Politically, the news of the week is not f is character to cheer those who, with us, believe that religious bigotry and political intolerance should never combine at the polls New Hampshire has yielded to the political whirlwind, and has ranked herself under the black banner of Know Nothingism. Me:calf is doubtless elected Governor, with a legislature of the same stripe, while the entire Congressional delegation may be set down as either for "fusion" or tanaticism! It is useless to comment upon this result. The fact, itself, is sufficient!

- From Harrisburg our news is to yesterday, and is of the most encouraging character .-Thompson's bill, repealing the charter of the North East road, and restoring to the stockholders their rights upon certain conditions, has passed second reading in the House by a vote of 56 to 32. It will probably be acted upon finally to-day, and if we are not mistaken in the signs, it will pass! It will then have to pass the ordeal of the Senate, and the Governor. What its chances are in the Senate, none of our numerous representatives, either in the lobby or the streets of New York exhibit so imposing a de- Legislature, have thought it worth while to inform us. In regard to the Governor, we have no fears. The railroad interest think they have him, and that, should the bill pass, he will veto it, but he has not the nerve to do it, even if he Hear it: "The road, by its charter, was obliged had the disposition! We think, then, the "Waterloo" of the contest will be in the Senate, and we kope that our banner will not be termined that it shall." This covers the while the one to trail in the dnet!

We understand one branch of the Pennsylvania Legislature has annulled the charter of the Brie and North East Railroad, in consequence of the mon-performance of cortain conditions connected with that charter, and the railroad will probably now be forced to comply with those on ditions.
