> SINGULAR MYSTERT AND PEBHAPS GUILT .-The Cleveland Herald gives the following story of abandonment and evasion. What it means is

"A few days since, a young mother applied for board at a reputable house on Michigan street. -She brought with her a child of fourweeks old. and some baggage, and paid a week's board in advance. Her story was, that her husband. Charles Raymond, had stopped in Buffalo to sell some property and would soon come on to this city and engage in business. Nothing very pur ticular occured for a week to excite suspicion although Mrs. Raymond was though to be rather retiring, and disposed to keep her room Day before yesterday, in company with a fellow boar der. Mrs. R went out to do shopping, and leav ing her companion in a store under the Waverly for o moment, said she would step to a druggi-t came, but no Mrs. Raymond, her baby was very soundly sleeping on the b.d, --evening brough: no mother, and no mother has come yet. The child slept until yesterday morning having been under the influence of a drug, and the suspicions give it a sleep which should know no waking .---On the morning of the absence of the mother, gray-haired man called for Mrs. Raymond's luggage, and she said it was to go to a friend's house on the West Side, were a visit was contempla-"The Post Muster presented it to her when he ted.
