NEW EGYPT.

To the People of Erie, Jerusalem and the country round about Jordan, Greeting

I WRITE unto you at this time for the purpose of informing you of my whereabouts, and asking you to come to me that you may be filled with all wisdom, and your spiritual and temporal wants be supplied whereby your humble servant may see the travail of his soul and be satisfied

Now, therefore, I say unto you, if any lack knowledge or Books or Paper, or Ink, or Blank Work, or any of the articles in which I abound, call at New Egypt, Hughes Block, and let them freely ask and I will freely give, for an equivalent even unto the half of my possessions

Having tarried near the market place for a long time giving and receiving, and doing good to all as I had opportunities, the spirit (of the times) said unto me, "Arise and go into Egypt," whereupon, obeying the impulse of the day dream, I left Mt Carmel and has taned to New Egypt, where all things are now ready to receive my old patrons, for whose kind attentions and liberal support in times past I am much indebted, humbly asking a continuance of their patronage, my best wishes and to abide with them for evermore

Now brethren I would not have you ignorant of the manner that my present abode bears a similarity to ancient Egypt We have benefactors here who, when the poor people from Jerusalem and the country round about, come to fill their sacks with food and raiment, and frequently too without a cent in payment the cost—Payicans charge but little for medicine, and give advice gratis, and we have good Samaritans who seek after good minister the wants of the poor, the widow and the orphan

Being fully conscious that the earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof, that we are all but stewards upon his bounty, I would say unto the widows and orphans, if there be any who are not able to pay their dues to me, to call and I will forgive their debts and receipt their bills to the uttermost farthing It may be all will not have faith in these promises, come and see neither did Joseph's brethren believe that they and their whole ones were all to be fed from the bounty of him whom they sold into Egypt, But what power had their ignorance and unbelief to frustrate the plan by which their welfare was secured. It is true they could not enjoy a confidence in their brother as they knew him to be, but he was as much their protector in the dungeon as when they believed

I am expecting soon a new supply of BOOKS, STATIONERY &c., from the east, but cannot promise to sell them cheaper to my neighbors should my friends want till they arrive but will sell as low as the hard times will admit of. "He that hath ears to hear let him hear"

To my little friends I would say that I have still a few brown Slate Pencils for those who are not able to purchase, gratis

Vinegar exchanged for Rags as usual

Finally, my brethren, never be weary in well doing Seek and ye shall find OLIVER SPAFFORD.
