THE TWO BETROTHALS.

THE wide pale glebe that shadowed
Doubt on the sacred floor,
And I came to the window,
When so oft we stood before.

"Nay, Miss; but the country is in danger."

"Nay, Miss; but the country is in danger," said the young man, who had already been advised the fact by Henrietta.

he was taken away from home by parties who did not know, and that after being nearly starved, he was left to die on a little island in the middle of the bay.

FOUND DEAD.

FOUND DEAD—dead and alone,
There was nobody near, nobody near,
When the sexton died on his pillow of grief.

Useful Old Man.
During the season of 1796-7, a wealthy merchant—in conformity with the custom of the times—gave a dinner party to a few gentlemen, among whom was a member of Congress of that period.

A Touching Story.

A Touching Story.
The editor of the New York News, in passing through this city lately on his return to the tropolis, was at the depot of the Hudson River Railroad, East Albany, and accompanied by a truly patriotic, though by no means uncommon, circumstance.

JOHN BELL ON THE PLAINS.

JOHN BELL ON THE PLAINS.—We were much pleased yesterday to receive at our office a call from our young friends John W. Wadell and Benjamin W. Russell, who have just returned from the plains. Messrs. Wadell and Russell have seen the elephant, and the Buffalo too,
and relate some amusing incidents of the journey,
one of which may be called a regular pitched battle between John Bull and an American or buffalo bull.
