THE OLD DRUG STORE.

FRIENDS, customers and the public, high and low, rich and poor, have confidence we have so long and liberally shared, in accordance with the same we again make our vernal visit—not to call your attention to any new fashion, though there is fashion in medicine—but to assure you that through all the mutations and fluctations, the changes and chances—varied and manifold as they are, and our city have passed through we are still permitted to occupy the old location and position—just where we have been the last fifteen years—and where we still have the pleasure of inviting those whose acquaintance we formed in days of long syne Cheered and encouraged in our weary round of toil and duty, by a large portion of the North end intelligence around us, we hope to continue on in our old course, endeavoring to be just, kind and courteous in our intercourse with all classes, and, disclaiming all pretensions to superior merit or ability to serve the public, we offer the past, as our guarantee for the future, and feel confident that an experience in the business of over twenty years, and a residence among the same people for over eighteen, are considerations of importance in the qualification of those that fill the responsible position of Apothecaries, and will receive the attention of the cautious and prudent, as they will now, and we continue, as usual,

TO KEEP THE LARGEST STOCK

as well it's the greatest variety, in our line, to be found in this city, "selected" and purchased in the houses of established reputation, and from men whose character is the best guarantee for the superiority of what they sell And as the time, apparatus and skill required to select and test each of the hundreds of articles, Medicinal, Chemical, Botanical and Pharmaceutical, of which our stock is composed, is more than we can command, we prefer—as we think our customers will—the mode we have adopted in being the more reasonable and satisfactory Still, as in other articles, in the hands of the unskilful or incompetent, many fail in effecting satisfactory results, we prefer that our articles should be judged by a different standard and therefore, for further proof, refer to those physicians—the most honorable of the profession—who rely entirely on us for their supplies—and whose success is a abundant evidence that they know both where to obtain, and how to administer, pure and appropriate medicines.

Our list of Patent Medicines is extensive, embracing all those usually called for in this community many of them highly spoke of, and much used—though not having a Regular Physician in our interest to test their quality and fitness, and therefore disinclined to undertake so important and delicate a duty ourselves—we cannot speak of their worthiness with that degree of assurance we otherwise might Our business is divided into the following departments:

Medicines, Wines and Liquors, Groceries, Window Glass, Glass Ware, Paints Oils, Dye Stuffs, Varnishes, Brushes, Perfumery, Fancy and Miscellaneous Articles.

Our stock of Medicines is very extensive, embracing every article, Chemical, Mineral and Pharmaceutical in use by the Regulars as well as those most commonly used by Botanics and Thomsonians, together with a very general assortment of Shaker Herbs and Extracts

Our Wines and Liquors are of the purest and best; selected, purchased and kept for Medical purposes only, and warranted to be as represented

In the Grocery department we are not extensive, but what we have is always of the choicest and best; perhaps particularly nice in their tastes, cannot fail of being suited.

In the Line of Paints, Oil, Varnishes &c., we are and long have been, the most extensive dealers in this city. Our list enables us to carry a full and complete stock of materials for House, Coach and Chair Painting, but also every thing called for in Portrait, Ornamental, Mezzitinto, and other Fancy Painting, also Gilding, Bronzing, &c.

In Window Glass our stock is necessarily larges than all the rest in the city combined, as we are most extensively engaged in the manufacture of Window Sash, Blinds and doors, consequently we are obliged to keep on hand at all times not less than one to five hundred Boxes of Glass, comprising all sorts of fifty differentsizes, of various qualities thicknesss, etc., of French, English and American manufacture

As to Brush s, such as Paint, Whitewash, etc. etc., we have every thing that can be desired in all the various departments in which they are used

And as for Perfumery, Fancy and Miscellaneous Articles, Combs, Brushes, Hair Oils, Pomatums; Soaps, Colognes, Extracts, etc , we have enough to meet the reasonable wants of the entire community

As to our Prices,

We believe the people to be the most impartial, as well as competent judges in the matter, and best know where their interests are most promoted Hence the reason why our customers by far outnumber, and our sales exceed by thousands those of any similar establishment in Erie—with this we are content.

Erie, May 13, 1855 CARTER & BROTHER, No. 6 Reed House.

NEW EGYPT.

To the People of Erie, Jerusalem and the country round about Jordan, Greeting:

I WRITE unto you at this time for the purpose of informing you of my whereabouts, and asking you to come unto me that you may be fed with all wisdom, and your spiritual and temporal wants be supplied whereby your humble seeva it may see the travail of his soul and be satisfied.

Now, therefore, I say unto you, if any lack knowledge or Books or Paper, or Ink, or Blank Work, or any of the articles which I do handle, call at New Egypt, Hughes' Block, and let them freely ask and I will freely give, (for an equivalent,) even unto the half of my possessions

Having turned near the market place for a long time, giving and receiving, and doing about to all as I had opportunity, the spirit (of the times, said unto me, "arise, and into Egypt," whereupon, obeying the impulse of the day dream, I left Mt. Carmal and hastened to New Egypt, where all things are now ready to receive my old patrons, for whose kind attentions and liberal patronage in the past I am much indebted, humbly ask a continuance of their patronage, my best wishes shall be and abide with them for evermore

Now brethren I would not have you ignorant of the mystery that my present abode bears a similarity to ancient Egypt. We have a Pharaoh, who rules over the people from Jerico and the country round about, come to fill their ears with food and raiment, and frequently too without a cent in payment thereof—Physicians charge but little for medicine, and give advice gratis, and we have good Samaritans who seek after and administer the wounds of the poor, the widow and the orphan.

Being fully conscious that the earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof, that we are all but stewards upon his bounty, I would say unto the widows and orphans, if there be any, who are not able to pay for their dues to me, to call and I will forgive their debts and receipt their bills to the uttermost farthing. It may be all will not have faith in these promises, (come and see,) neither did Joseph's brethren believe that they and their little ones were to be fed during a series of years whom they sold into Egypt. But what power had their ignorance and unbelief to frustrate the plan by which their welfare was secured. It is true they could not enjoy a confidence in their brother until they know him, but he was as much the protector in their unbelief as he was after they believed.

I am expecting soon a new supply of BOOKS, STATIONERY, &c., from the east, but cannot promise to sell them cheaper than my neighbors should my friends wait till they arrive; but will sell as low as the hard times will admit of. "He that hath ears to hear let him hear."

To my little friends I would say that I have still a few books State Pencils for those who are not able to purchase, gratis.

Vinegar exchanged for Rags as usual.

Finally, my brethren, never be weary in well doing. Seek and ye shall find OLIVER SPAFFORD,
Hughes' Block, two doors south of Jas. Hughes store.
Erie, April 5, 1856—47.

"THE ERIE DIFFICULTY"
Wide Tracks! Narrow Tracks!! MAKE TRACKS!!!

THE greatest difficulty in Erie, aside from the "Erie difficulty," has been to get Shoes that are shoes, Boots that are Boots, and Gaiters that display the fine proportions of the foot, and yet will not produce corns. This difficulty, however, with all our other difficulties are but "small potatoes," and few in a hill at that, has been obviated at

C. Miller's Boot and Shoe Emporium,

No 8, Williams Block, State street, to which place "all the world and the rest of mankind," are respectfully requested to "make tracks," and satisfy themselves by examining stock and prices. This establishment don't defy competition, but the proprietor simply says to his old friends and the public that a shop is practically conversant with the Boot and Shoe business, he has no doubt he can furnish a better article for the same price than any shop else in the city. A significant expression this is. ☞Don't forget the place, No. 8 Williams Block, State st. Erie, April 26, 1855—39 C. MILLER.
