Pennsylvania Democratic Convention.

The Pennsylvania Democratic Convention was in session at Harrisburg yesterday. A despatch save Mr. Buchanan has been nominated by acclamation, the Dallas party all going for him. Resolutions were offered by former Cass men in favor of sending a Buchanan delegation, and adopted. Hon. J. L. Dawson, a friend of Gen. Case, is the leading man in this demonstration. A series of resolutions was adopted by acclamation, which in substance are as follows:

Strongly for the Union; deprecating the agitation of Slavery; endorsing the Kansas-Nebraska act and the repeal or the Missouri Compromise act, and denouncing Free Soil and Know Nothingism

The Convention then voted for Canal Commissioner, but no one was chosen on the first ballot. On the second ballot George Scott, of Columbia, was nominated, and Jacob Fry for Auditor General, on the fifth ballot.

The ticket was completed by the nomination of Smith Ives, Surveyor General.

Numerous congratulatory speeches were then made in regard to the election of Mr Wise in Virginia. - Adjourned sine die.

Obituary of Capt. Dollins.

On Friday last, Feb 29, Capt Daniel Dale

"On the lat of July, A. D 1796, nearly 60 years ago, Capt Daniel Dobbins found himself the inceting adjourned to Tuesday evening.

A large number of persons assembled on Tuesday standing, for the first time, on the site of our beautiful city. Half a dozen log cabins, recently erected, were dotted over the county, now called Erie; all the rest was wild gloomy forest, | ded to by the audience, after which the following resotenanted by the Red man, who disputed his right to the soil with the Grizzly Bear, the Wolf, and the Panther As manigration poured into the then settlement of Eric, he became a man of note and importance, and, on the breaking out of the late war with Great Britain, he was employed by Government to build vessels of war, and felled the first tree which was used in building the vessels of Commodore Perry's fleet, and to transport men, arms, and ammunition along the chain of Lakes. And during the whole of that war, was constantly engaged in perilous voyages and adventures Through all these scenes of hardship, danger and peril, the hand of Providence guided him, and brought him safety till peace was declared. One incident alone of his adventurous life will illustrate my text. At an early period of the war he was taken prisoner by the British and in dians at Mackinac, his vessel and freight taken from him; and the others on board were set free on giving their parole of honor, not to take to arms against Great Britain during the war, and allowed to come home. But the sturdy here of the Lakes refused to give his parole, and after some time escaped from his guard and made his l way homewards; sometimes on the water, some times through the wild forests on foot and a one. pursued by the enemy, a reward offered for his capture, a price set upon his scrip.
