B. F. SLUAN, EDITOR.

VOLUME 26.

ERIE, SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 12, 1856.

THE ERIE OBSERVER. IN PUBLISHED FUELER SATURDAY BY

BENJ. F. SLOAN AND M. M. MOORE, OFFICE, CORNER OF STATE AND FIFTH STR B. F. SLOAN, Editor.

Trans if paid in advager, or within 3 months, $1.50 if not paid as above $- will be charged at An equations falling to pay within the car, the paper will addenormue; and the accounties with a proper officer for solution. TERMS OF ADVELLISING

TERMS OF ADVELLISIAU

Stateen lines or less make a square

quare, one work, $ 7. If the square 5 in utility $3.00

One two 100 One 6 550

One square a vest, changeable at piesaure, $4

Lab quarres—3 months, $6 6 months, $3 9 months, $11.50, 1

Test, $14

One column or 10 square tes: $14 (ne column, or 10 squares—cue vear $50, 0 months, $30, 3 months, $18 ar with $1st of the Business Directory at $3 per annum of cards insorted in the Business Directory at $3 per annum of the Business and the state of the Merchants and others requiring frequent changes in their steethements will be allowed two squares, paper, and card, for $15 for shiftman space, the charges will be in proportion, and the savertusments must be strictly contined to the legitimate business of the advertuser. Pay ment for transient advertusments required a advance. Bits for yearly advertising will be presented had wantly. A reduction of 10 per cent will be made on all except temporary advertisements, when paid in advance.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

CHAUNCE'S BLEBERT,

WITH HOSKING, HILLIGHER,

WITH HOSKING, HILLIGHER, COURT POLICY,

THE FOR HOOM, NO LIS MARKET STREET, PRIMATE PRIMATE STREET,

MCCRESDY, MOTT & BRUNDAGE,

No. 161 Messelar Lear, Corner of Fruid street, New York

Institutes of Truje instined Campaiene, 20 & 30 pr. ct. Alcohol and N. E. Rum. Also, Manufacturers and Deasers in the following articles of the best quaint: and offered at the lowest market prices. Burning Finish, Spirits Turpentine, Far, Lich, E. Sin,

Soft and Hard Jurgentine, Bright Varnish, Coal Far, and Naval stores, of every description

Thos Bertz, Distiller

GALERAITH & DAVENPORT.

THOSE BETTA, DISTRICT AMAGE

GALBRAITH & DAVENPORT,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Other near, of printed the new Court House,

Ette, Pa

WH A CARREST DESCRIPTION OF A DAVENPORT

DRS. BEEBE & DICKINSON,

HALVO entered into Co-partnership women respectation offer their professional services by the criticis of arms and ordinit. Especial anticution will be given to obstetrics

A REBE

DELERS in Groceries, Provider R, Product, Fork, Fish, Sait, Grain, Flour, Fruits, Nuts, disass, Nais, Livoons, Fais, Wooden, Wilson, and Stone Ware, Ac. Lerus Cas. Fries and N. 4 Wright a Block, State Stree, 4 does above the Post Office, Iri. Pa. 64

LYTLE & RISHMORE,

E.OC. State Street, a diors above the Fish MORE, rashioxable Merchant fallons, out to Fubir Square, a fet doors west of State street, Erie

January and State street, Erie

Bealers in Stores, Its, Copper, brass and Sheet Lon Wars. State street, two doors north of C. E. Wright & C. S. Exchange Office, tending street, two doors north of C. E. Wright a C. E. Exchange Order, tree, the J. I. Tanner.

J. I. Tanner.

J. S. John Kern.

PROLETERER, State street, between Siver in and Fighth streets, Ets, Fa. Manufactures to order, and also scepa constants for mie Solas, Superior Spring Matricases make upon a new and co-ceilent principle, See urass Matriaces, Hair Matricases with and without springs, as Prince very mouthate.

BARTON HOUSE,

J. C. Jackson, Proprietur. Water street, Mendyale, Pennsylva nia Principal Stage Office.

WILLIAM THORNTON,

THOMAS MOORHEAD,
NOTABLY PUBLIC, WARTANIASTER OF THE STATE DOS SHARINGS OF THE STATE OF THE STAT

C. Room, Wright's Block corner of rather than the EMPIRE STORES.

Apperla & Grissold, Johnson, and rather Pear Serve and discreption of Freign and Domes, and rather through Computing, Country & Notice state at cet, the long to the A. Oriswold. Sat, Flour, Weter Lime and Passer. Part. B. Ca, east of the

E. H. ABELL.

Successor to William of Sherman,

PAGCERRAY ART. And it Square, between the need flows and Brown's ciot. Pi takes taken in the obstoy of the art and warrante, not to fac.

L. W. OLDS do CO.,

MARCFACTURES and Winders also netail disers in Wen and Cis tern Pumps of specior quanto, the Indicates in ordinos in use shop on I wells street near reading for i. Pa

Aqueduct for darrying water for land, tarm or mechanical purposes for sale chesp

RICH RESA A ARTECOMES RICHARD G. HERRON,

WHOLEBALE and Retail beauties: Drugs, dediction, Paints, Crs., Wholebale and Retail beauties: Drugs, dediction, Paints, Crs., Window Gass, Dys. Stuffs, Brunnes Fredunce Fine Seaps and Destists' Findings, No ordered from , Err., Fa. 33. D. D. WALKER & CO.,

D. D. WALKER & CO.,

FORWARDING, Produce, and Commission Merchant's fourth Wave-house west of the Public Bridge, Lin, Pa. A so dealers in Coal. Saft, Phaster, Staceo, Fish, Lino, and Lime Ston, Iron, Na. s., Stoves, Castings, Ac., with undergassed fact times for sting pinc either by Steam seats, Proposed Section of Coalings and D. D. Walker.

THOUGH, M. STIN,

Late of the pinc of C. Lomins & Co.,

DEALER in Clocks, Wat his force, and the coals, whereas and retain

LIDDELL, KEFLER, & CO.,

WILLIAM S. LANE.

ATTORNET AND COLNSELION OF CAR — Third or Jackson's score at northeast corner of the Fub to Separate

M. SANDFORD & CO.,

BEARER ON GOLD, SHOT INCANDED, Co., Co., Co., Separate Separate Supposed to Separate Supposed Sup T. HERRON STI ART,

HIFT SELLD,

DEALER in Enclusive formation of the order and tell realists, Name and Historical Selection and Selec H. JARECKI,

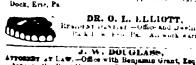

U. B. GUNNION,
DEALER in BOOKS, State one of sound of Magazine Couran Full in a those suggest Mash. Now happened in Proceedings of the Couran Full in Sound worst of Couran Full Sound Source west of Couran Full Sound Source west of Couran Full Source Sour BOOTH & SIEWART. WHOLESACT ST. Sich a close of the will be seen that the will be seen the Riemann and the seen that t

JOSMA KELLOGG,

CARTLE & REOTHER, JOHN HEARN & CO.,

Manuscripe and factor of the second of the control Fish, and sgent for a daily free of Upper Lass Stranger Profit. Motrow.

Dock, Enc. Pa

SITTING IN SUNSHINE

Sitting where the golden sanbeams Lighting with a meliow radiance spacious hall and corridor-

Sitting in the laughing sanitght-Naught to him the covery light. On those eyes are shadows deeper And a pleading sadness telling

Blindness there bath left its blight Par adown through swaying branches Poising low on airy wing, Timid birds are trilling softly

Patient is the brow so hueless, The wan cheek no bloom doth west But the gentle lips are parted, And sweet thoughts are impressed there Faint reflections of the visions

Shrined within those pertais fair Who can tell what bright creations To our outward light denied, Tinted with the heart's emotions, Doth it bring thee joy or pain? As with bowed head thou dost listen. Till it doe-the ingering strain Silent still-to calch the echo As it sweeps the air again!

With a weight of unwept tears -I -ibutes meet for in hter cares' Oh! the deep, unfathomed saddies, As those eyes are raised to mine,

Pite salumt ring stark do like When the hapi as " o ind shal se Plus the shrouting darkness der, And dong the messac table t

Truth divine reveals to thee

Lettle descriptions were added to the cause of kess current maney and land Warra to hoght and to the cause of these made on all the principal color and to know in who names the money which had conscience kept Benford silent; he ceased to I visited one of these made on all the principal cities to hand and let it fall.

| Conscience kept Benford silent; he ceased to I visited one of these made on all the principal cities to hand and let it fall. Jet so televity; and, in a short time, the great of the place consists of the miner and by the presence of the miner at th e ergyman, who has apparently pleased the patrou by his reading, was not equally fortunite in as if on fire With compressed ups, and his eves fixed more than ever upon the discommitted curate, the old man thanke I han for his discourse . "I am Lord Warleign, he said, of have received your week y statements as I desired—they are xoellent-come to me for an hour to morrow I shall expect you at eleven" Before Mr Benford had recovered his composure, his lord-stip had gone "He is very kind," said the curate, when he related the occurrence to his wife -- but I don't ike him. His hand was like cold from-I telt is it it had been a sword-and what a nuisance it is he found me in such a dress."

But Mrs. Benford, also, had never scena" rd. and was devoted to the aristocracy . . . His andship is very kind, I am sure, to have asked you

"He has many livings in his gift," said Mrs Benford, thoughtfully

"A fine voice," said the gentleman

the colleguy ended, and Benford proceeded to "I wish you good morning, Mr. Benford," the Sunday School.

never known. Benford was not a man of obser- story Good morning, too, my little dear. better." vation, and trok no notice of the peculiar man. What layou won't shake the old man's hand? ner of his reception, the long gaze with which You look frightened, Lucy Will you come and servations," said Benford. "But I have some —of his successful life; touched lightly on the Lord Warleigh seemed to study his countenance, see me again Lucy his infield?" He dwelt upon strange suspicions about his lordship which I slight abberrations of a mind enfeebled by years to the sun, constitute the miner a complex ment. and the pauses which occurred in his conversation | the name as if it pleased him. nes ay; and when the fourth visit within the cd Benford towards the door "I don't like as he said the horrid word. week was announced to Mrs. Benford, there was you, and will never come again." "Drinks!—a nobleman!" no end to the vista of wealth and dignity she Benford broke out into apologies, and a cold ford; "impossible!" fore-aw from the friendship of so powerful a perspiration: "She's a naughty little child, my "I don't know," replied the rector of Swilk. but not a schoolroom or a ward was ever built. and shadow on a group is starting in the ex-

"And he has asked me to bring the children, ren, my lord, are very foolish-" His lordship says he is very fond of chil. "That they speak truth even when it is dis-things in the house."

b-tween his lordship's house and this. I won't requested that he would continue to keep his ac- excellent man Sir Hildo. He is only a baronet side door noiselessly opened, and Lord Warleigh the hands of the gratified clergyman. He opened o'clock: the night was dark and windy; a feeble s cpt in He stood still at the threshold, and it; and the first line that met his view was a moon glimmering at intervals through the sky, looked at the group before him. He seemed credit to the Reverend Henry Bedford, of the and added to the gloom she could not disperse

COP but now most happy-" to beine if; at last he got a volume from the mediately honored,—and with these tangible ing up "What in heaven's name has brought shelt, of the most gorgeous colored engravings, he returned to the pars mage and poured the last you are?" THE TWO COLLEGE FRIENDS. and took her on his knee. He showed her the he returned to the pars hage and poured the beautiful birds represented in the book; told her guine as in gluttering array upon the drawing. where they lived, and some of their habits; and compare your A great change speedily took place in the rety great change speedily great place in the rety great change speedily took place in the rety great change speedily wiin Dulcibel's glowing face same, and her brother's name Winnington Harvey You have heard, perhaps, of his melanchwho died wit is I was tweive-Lucy Mainfield my uncle " " And did she tell you any particulars of his

No, u y local. She spoke very little of the to Wells—his ladship wid institute you any face, its eyes on mine; and to-night, the worst cach, which all connect at the mine proper. The past. She had been very unhappy in her youth day you like."

On all the year. I cannot go home."

On all the year. I cannot go home."

On all the year. I cannot go home."

On all the year. I cannot go home." -s disappointment in love, we thought; and way be me there was no one else who knew "

young, that it I ever went into the West I should ry to find out his grave.

And for that purpose you are here;—it was to medical this you came to Warleigh?" His l id-nip's yes flashed with auger

Ob, no. my Brd; it is only a coinciden e. that wall, but the place is not far off. In tac-I believe it is nearer than fou-in Lucy thought

"The map of the country, my lord. Oakfield "Truly aristocratic He is descended from | does not seem more than twenty miles off." "And your uncle is buried there?"

"The girl is but three years old and the boy The manager of the bank at Warleigh called on gretted the circumstance very deeply. "Bat one. I don't think they'll see much difference him one day, and in the most respectful manner we shall prebably be more intimate with that count, as heretofore, with the firm. Now, the to be sure, but his title is older than Lerd War-"What? Not the baby? the beautiful little account of Mr Benford was not such as would leigh's. How good in him to give you the livat that moment of a balance of eighteen pounds your character." But Benford was positive, and taking his little seven and fourpence However, he bowed with It was now autumn The middle of October o' My lord," said Benford, "I came at the hour at these vulgar tradespeople, Bulk & Leoby, ven when he heard a knock at the front door. It was you fixed. This is my little daughter. You turing to play such a hoax on a friend of Lord opened by the maid, and soon he perceived stepe asked me to bring her to see you I hope you warleigh. This was now the designation by in the passage; a tap came to the door of the which her husband was most respectable in the parlor. He sat down and talked with the greatest kind put his good luck to the test he drew a cheque not a word.

o'The rot still quence." rejoined the clerical you to be calm."

Which seemed to me a great while, the speed agent; with resting nought but thather and umbrellas," as Pope says. He has also heard of Broombank—it was there I built the castle.—

But you won't ask me to go back to the slackened, and the car stopped as we rode on to brellas," as Pope says. He has also heard of Broombank—it was there I built the castle.—

But you won't ask me to go back to the slackened, and the car stopped out on the ground You are Winnington Harvey's nephew? Jour kindness to the poor, your charity, and The library is above the very spot where the local now see clearly the path we had traveled many other good qualities, and he has done him plant grew with the metal in its roots. I won't represent you to the valuable go there, for to-night—to-night is the anni-

Inc. only other remarkable using connected and properties in the conty other remarkable using connected and properties in the conty other remarkable using connected and properties in the conty other remarkable using connected and properties in the conty other remarkable using connected and properties in the conty other remarkable using connected and properties in the conty other remarkable using connected and properties in the conty other remarkable using connected and properties in the conty other remarkable using connected and properties in the conty other remarkable using connected and properties in the conty other remarkable using connected and properties in the conty other remarkable using connected and properties in the conty other remarkable using connected and properties in the conty other remarkable using connected and properties in the conty other remarkable using connected and conty of the conty other remarkable using connected and conty of the conty other remarkable using connected and conty of the conty other remarkable using connected and conty other remarkable using co

before; and it was only when the rector of a superstitious nor a timid man, but there was something in Lord Warleigh's manner that something in Lord Warleigh's manner that something in Lord Warleigh's manner that straining his eyes in the direction of his finger, mind to go up to the eastle, and wait on Lord warleigh was illed a saw, or fancied he saw, a pale white face, where every piece must be knocked week before, and ever side hung in the warm growing palpable in the darkness, and fixing its way by the blow of a pick.

There seemed to be a regular system of streets.

There seemed to be a regular system of streets.

There seemed to be a regular system of streets.

There is a superstitious nor a timid man, but there was something in Lord Warleigh's manner that the fict here is something in Lord Warleigh's manner that the fict here is something in Lord Warleigh's manner that the fict here.

The had not defer the fixed between time part of the fixed between time part of the fixed between the part of th

"And all because poor little Duleibella said

"He ean't bear malice for a mere infant's ob-He was invited to return on Tuesday; on Wed. "No,-never, said the little girl, and push. I fear his lordship drinks." He almost shuddered found peace, as he had died in the house, almost you would think indeed that it was a very Hades,

"Drinks!---a nobleman!" exclaimed Mrs. Ben-

"A gentleman to see you, sir," and a figure and held out his hand. "I see visitors so rarely, resent the suppose d insult, Benford walked down entered the room. Benford looked round amazed. Mr. Benterel—and ladies—"he added, looking to the bank and come to an explanation with with a small to the terrified little girl who stood both the partners, in the private room. There eyes on Benford's Wrapt up against the cold, wonder at the old man's face—"ladies so seldom was paid in to his name, in London, and trans- ers; with his hat still on his head, and his hand present the uselves here, that I was surprised—mitted, in the ordinary course, to his country resting on a long staff, stood Lord Warleigh, bankers. In fear and trembling-and merely to pale, ghastly, with lips distended, and uttering for a hundred and twenty pounds, which was im- | "Your lordship!" exclaimed Benford apring

me in my professional character as a visitor of and Benford touched Lord Warleigh on the fatal car, for it is the last time he will see the fatal car, for it i

"The man promised, though evidently with had passed away, with all his wealth and all his are so feeble that we come attountly and asno expectation of being able to comply with the miseries; and nothing remained but a poor old expectedly upon little equads of workers. The request, and Benford returned to communicate to figure propped up in an arm-chair, with the fitful lumps, more in some semantics of camely that lord Du'cibel, how can you behave so? Children, my lord, are very foolish——"

That they speak truth even when it is disagreeable; but I expected it, and am not sur
Thou is now, replied the rector of Swilk.

The will was contested. Heirs at law sprung treme.

The will was contested. Heirs at law sprung treme.

I walked on musingly Pick! Pick!

I am not sorry, I assure you, to be going away agreeable; but I expected it, and am not sur
I told you from the first I did not like him. His estate of Combe-Warleigh changed hands, the of the mule boy to his animais, and the rolling castle was converted into a mili; the library was off of the car. torn down, and a shaft sank where it had stood. Their occupation is suggestive, t.o. thought I. When the workmen had descended about eight burrowing the fire stuff lerete from the surface they came to a skeleton, a land. The guide who accompanied me seemed quite Archeeological Society, proving with certainty the signals, of the manners and regulations of the body had been sacrificed by the Druids; and a miners, and of many other things controversy arose between him and Dr. Toadquarian I keep it to myself. Down Amongst the Coal.

the operations the veins are followed up, small settlements be- the destroyer passed over them come formed along the route; as they give out some of the fire-damp?
the villages die away, and new settlements are "See some of vill Lalmost shrick d. formed at the next scene of operations. For this TERR & PAYNE,

A great change speedily took price in the respective speeding to the superior spe reason, the great coal works are found at short. I can show it to you with perfect findunity." CLURK & METCALE.

BANKERS AND EVERANCE BROKERS, Every applicant — ford and held up her little mouth to give the unesteposite limit and report of the requirements of every applicant of the requirements of every app

H. B. HAVERTICE.

Square Brief Birch, the Program of the Large and the owner people on a What is a Lord Warleigh, starting up and the best black for the country of the large and the owner people of the country of the large and the owner people of the country of the large and the owner people of the country of the large and the owner people of the country of the large and the owner people of the country of the large and the owner people of the country of the large and the owner people of the country of the large and the owner people of the country of the large and the owner has borden as to drow a large and the owner people of the country of the large and the owner people of the large and the owner has borden as to drow and the large and the owner people of the large and the l on the most reasonable terms and some reasonable terms and the most time again. When I touched their hands, they drew hands, they drew hands a chord the most time again. When I touched their hands, they drew hands a chord time again. When I touched t retirement his lord hip performed his devotions the girl b'ushed and trembled, and wouldn't go seld in saw any samper without suspecting that engagement she turned away her head. When sold in saw any stringer without suspecting that he had maked below and a year I he had just returned from paying large sums to he had just returned from paying large sums to he had just returned from paying large sums to he had just returned from paying large sums to he had just returned from paying large sums to he had just returned from paying large sums to he had just returned from paying large sums to he had three thousand a year I would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim ber promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim be promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank would claim be promise, she said to me, 'Arthur his nome at the mank were, into some at the right land power, into a structure, into the right land power, into a structure his the mank would be manked. The sum and the mank was not a structure his the mank would be the little fat men, with a cough which was in struggling, trying to hide itself under the shad; this weight became lighter but was not entirely would never stop. "Should the chain break!" I scarce dared to whisper to myself. At last, Mr. Benford Sir Arthur Hayning—I was Lord Warleigh, and would never stop. "Should the chain break!"

Sir Allide is very good," said Mr. Benford what am I now?"

I scarce dared to whisper to myself. At last, modestly; "I hin common sense is what I aim at" "You are Lord Warleigh, my lord. I beseech after what must have been a little time, but day you like."

of all the year. I cannot go home."

coal forwarded thither from the distant working "How Like Thunder it Smells "—The

The only other remarkable thing connected "Your lordship is most welcome to remain. I grounds, and from theuce to the surface. The Harrisburg (Pa.) Republican sets the shlowing enevelent action in favor of Mr. Bendford. | look!"

But, in the mant me, all intercourse between | Lord Warleigh held Benford's hand, and looked | return ever insatinte. - We were taken into one cure in his way, and his way is peculiar. He and shadows on his stiff and motionless face.

Benferd was greatly shocked, but a little honSometimes, however, many are hang up ored, too. It isn't every parsonage parlor where around, and you are could be inspect more closea lord with fifty thousand a year condescends to ly their operations. There is, lowever not a die. He preached his lordship's funeral sermon great deal to witness in the mecanonical execution. to a vast congregation. He told of his charities Kaocking the coal from the rock with his pick. would not divulge for the world except to you. and honorable exertion; and trusted he had To come across a body of these then thus engaged, in the arms, of a elergyman. His lordship's es and that the miners were finds in ain ite. The tates were sold; the sum realised was to be ap- peculiar smut gives a most oction wal expression plied to the foundation of schools and hospitals, to the countenance, and the effect of the highs tern, and a spade. The curious thing was that | an intelligent person, and I learned a number of the spade was deeply imbedded in the skull - interesting facts from Lis conversation. He Mr. Fungus, the antiquary, read a paper at the spoke of the operations, of the arrangement of stool, who clearly proved at the British Associa- fire-damp-the most dead y enemy of the operation that it was the grave of a suicide of the tor. Scarcely a day passes but some are turned time of King Alfred. I am of a very different with it, often fatality the larminess of itself, opinion; being a sensible man and not an anti-None but those who have visited the coal lands from it-any blow from a rick may let a flood of our State can form any idea of the immensity of poisonous super out up a the operator. The strains navious in lear— the neid out his hand and sum of twelve thousand six hundred pounds! Mrs. Benford retired to her room, as they had to said, "You—you there, so soon?—at this lime of the div." And she!—who is she?

"My lord," said Benford, "I came at the hour at these vulgar tradespeople, Bulk & Leohy ver. it the bread of life. During the last year, the head. It feels as if power may compressed on profits accruing to the State from the mines were either side about the temples, t gether with a upwards of nineteen millions of dollars; in coming time, when the number of capitalists is in miner becomes conscious of his, (and he knows creased, and the facilities for operations become but too well what it pertended to beer he can greater, who can calculate the wealth that will do in to drop like a deal man and gravel into the pour from these Golcondas of coal? Schuylkil, mud and water-drop instantly, and thrust his county is the present great theatre of action I toud, feet and banes into the mire as far as visited the place a short time since to witness strength will serve. So all be, see up ish this Puttaville, the principal town of the county, but should be neglect the winner, or even be was at one time the scene of very extensive to turdy to take advantage of it, no must suffer works; they are now worn out, and the operations most horribly. Instances have been known are proceeding further into the interior. The where men, though haif burned in the mud. city is said to be completely undermined. As have had the flesh burn a from their backs as

"Speak low," said Lord Warleigh. "I've the villages die away, and new settlements be. to me ewilly, and resked if I should like to see

"Yes," said be, "we to the Davy's safety lamp made by all the principal color of these settlements—called Se made by all the principal color of these settlements—called Se made by all the principal color of these settlements—called Se much be suffered to know in whose names the money which had much be suffered to know in whose names the money which had been consisted to know in whose names the money which had been consisted to know in whose names the money which had been consisted to know in whose names the money which had been consisted to know in whose names the money which had been consisted to know in whose names the money which had been consisted to know in whose names the money which had been consisted to know in whose names the money which had been consisted to know in whose names the money which had been consisted to know in whose names the money which had been consisted to know in whose names the money which had been consisted to know in whose names the money which had been consisted to know in whose names the money which had and let it fall.

Clair—for the purpose of being initiated into the underground mysteries of smoke and flame, and which the more deserving out to know in whose names the money which had and let it fall.

There is again he interferes!" said the old underground mysteries of smoke and flame, and the child perceiving the change, went tremby and the know in the latest perceiving the change, went tremby and the child perceiving the change, went tremby and the child perceiving the change, went tremby and the know in t denly recovered and appeared on San lay in pan, which of on puts me out of temper church. His leadship gournally sat in a necessary to the live gril's name. Lucy Mainfield? You neckloth that it was evident he was determined with might aimost have been mistaken for a prior of two appeared very combinations. Law a carpeted very combinations have been mistaken for a prior of two appeared very combinations. They all seemed to have found me was a christal agent.

In pan, which of on puts me out of temper for, red fine 1 min so choked up in a white came into my head to call the sufferer him. It himself fitfully at what was to come four guide shouted for the eagle a section of the fit, red fine 1 min so choked up in a white came into my head to call the sufferer him. It himself fitfully at what was to come four guide shouted to the eagle a section of the fit in the diffully at what was to come four guide shouted for the eagle a section of the fit in the attempt his cousin. They all seemed to have found me heart gave when our guide shouted to the eagle a section of the fit in the attempt his cousin. They all seemed to have found me heart gave when our guide shouted to the eagle a section of the fit in the attempt his cousin. They all seemed to have found me heart gave when our guide shouted to the eagle a section of the fit in the attempt his cousin. They all seemed to have found me heart gave when our guide shouted to the eagle a section out gring the reagle as the fit is hinted fitfully at what was to come.

I shall never forget the awful thump that my his they are not gring the reagle as the fit is hinted fitfully at wha removed during my stay in the mine

It was no good, however, hor i into wrong vest

Down! Down! I thought the old car on, while the smanner pace it is noy he had in his pantalcous picker, was a harrefular. He, of course, could not dark fatherwing away funds in that manner Hampited table wife: "Mary, have you got investigat charge?" Not a cent

* Got may small change, the right (Nothing but a she lag - '.ir' he with pillars you gave me last night.)

'No. sir.' I'll tick him on four couts in a way " knife and drew it across has a George's shilling. four cents, affords him as much parasure as to

George Law mustibat Luchtil finghe re

Select Poetry.

Suggested by a visit to the Blind Asylum of Baltimore Through the open casements pour-

Sitteth one with drooping lashes Shading low a pale sheek o'er' Than the moonless gloom of night

Unaware what speechless yearnings To that heart their song doth bring:

Inrough that unformed finey gude 45' perchance, some memory drifting From the dim, ut known deep tide Music, with its 'wildering cadence,

Naught of joy -if joy it bringeth -As thy lids were downward drooms:

Something in their soulless beauty Draws my very heart to tuine, Kindling turoug . m. thoughties being Hope tank on targie blest the future retirement his fordship performed his of contents the gir, it using any removed, and the manner recorded by Mrs. Drowes—and Sho clung to her father's hand when the eloquint Dr. was more cooperate than to Don't force her," said the old man in a his none at the bank when the eloquint Dr. was more cooperate than the bank and worldn't. But would, he drew a heavy verset on the mournful tone "I knew soe wouldn't But front of his room, and must have been luded you won't go in anger, Lucy? Benford, you'll into pleasing siumbers by the subdued mumble, forgive me?" of the orator's discourse. On this ceasion by the firging me?"

of the orator's discourse. On this ceasion by the O, my for I," said the curate, immensily grawas observed to look with currosity towards the tiffed, and sat down again now clarge man. All through the prayers he was clarge man. All through the prayers he haed his eyes on Benford's two -never inting them for a moment-never changing a muse en ver altering his attitude. His hair, now sover i white, fell nearly down to his shoulders, his no ble features were pale and in dienies. Tail, upright, gazit g-gazing-the congress on ob is ried bis lord-hip with surprise. ord mounted the puips' - when he we seen in sack gown and bands, and his elent rich voice gave out the text, suddenly his berdship's face underwent a strange contort; n-h rapidry drew the curtain across the pew and was no in it seen. The congregation were serry that their new

the sermon. The preacher, himself, was by no means offended. He knew Lord Warieigh was STERRETT & GRYY.

IMPORTERS, Jobbers and Retail beaution. Wet and for original to close raiman to require any instruction from sew and stone Ware, from a first action of the poster, but tapes at the first party of the first beautiful form. The flower first beautiful form and he went on as usual and prenched to the House, Erie, Pa to cley ra man to require any instruction from por In the vestry, he was roying aside his official c stume when the door pence, his cassick was off, his coat wis not on, he was in his short sheeves, and the great man came in Ben that was overwhelmed with e pfusion. He had haver spoken to a lord before-his face glowed past. She had been very unhappy in her youth to the Coole None of the doctors have ever o en there, nor any of the atterney"That's only a proof," and Benford, a mule tickled, it must be owned with the distinction, "that his lordship is in good health and not litigious; but I shall junge of him better to

Otho the Stutterer." "And yet I don't like him His hand is like a sword " With which repeated observation, the grave next week"

"What a good man he is!" exclaimed the prised. Good day wife. "They'll be so delighted to see the fine angell Lord Warleigh will never forgive you seem to justify such a request, seeing it consisted ing merely from the good reports he heard of for keeping him away " girl by the hand he walked to the Castle and the politeness which a curate always displays to was past, and an early winter was already beginentered the library His lordship was not with. a banker, and expressed his gracious intention ming to be felt. The preparations for removal thetween her father's knees, and gazed with mutes could be to doubt of the fact. The money was but with the cloak now drooping on his should d his lordship carelessly; but still looking sad "Yes my lord Dulcibel was my mother's oly fire? He was murdered? You are Winnington Harvey's nephew?"

"She dead - . - she ?"

"Yes, my lord I think of going over to see his wife that the animosity of the great man flames of the expiring fire throwing their lights you cause our carriers in the burrowing move. continued said Warleigh, suddenly, but very kindly. she didn't like him. It was certainly very fool.

How the interview went off on Monday was "You have told me a strange piece of family his ish in her to say so to a lord; but she knows no hand felt as cold as a sword." Soon after this a series of miracles occurred "I never felt his hand," said Mrs. Benford, to Mr. Benford, which filled him with surprise. in so and a voice that it was pretty clear she rein, and Benford drew a chair near the table, and of continuing his patronage to Messrs. Bulk & were completed, and on the following day the opered a book of prints for the amusement of Looby, and the latter gentleman, after another Parsonage was to be described, and the possession his daughter. While they were thus engaged a courtous how, retired, leaving the pass-book in of the new living entered upon. It was nine tended to represent a smile "Sir Hildo Swilks ow of that great fact. She pined and pined, and of Somerset has heard of your great elequence, her father's heart broke; and I was rich—I was 'Sir Arthur Hayning—I was Lord Warleigh, and seif the honer to present you to the valuable go there, for to-night—to-night is the anniliving of Swilkstone Magna; it is a clear income of tight hundred a year, with a good parsonagehouse, and two packs of hounds within—but, brought me up. If was dear old cousin Lucy,

who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was tweive—Lucy Mainfield."

The manufacture of the present you to the valuable go there, for to-night—to-night is the anniliving of Swilkstone Magna; it is a clear income to the present you to the valuable go there, for to-night—to-night is the anniliving of Swilkstone Magna; it is a clear income
to the present you to the valuable go there, for to-night—to-night is the anniliving of Swilkstone Magna; it is a clear income to the pick axe was plying in the hole;
there was a heap of earth thrown out, and six.

Where was a heap of earth thrown out, and six.

Where the car had stopped was an open space, inght; it is very unclerical—the bishops ought to interfere. Por is the triumph o'er the 'mid
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy,
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died will be I was dear old cousin Lucy
who died the Larth where the car had sunk at an angle of about an old sunk at an angle of cousin Lucy in the time. The hare, as Thomson says, or fox as I say."

into the air; its edge went down—I saw it fall.

You have proof, I suppose?" said Benford. There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence the pit.—

There was silence then and forever in the pit.—

There was silence the pit.—

There was silence the pit.—

There was sil "You have proof, I suppose?" said Bouford, There was silence then and forever in the pit.— informed that this are was kept burning to proof.

"O, yes, my ind and left me all the little thinking it just pessible that the plethoric gen. I filled it up with my feet—with my hands. I due a greater draft into the mine. Branching of the little thinking it just pessible that the plethoric gen. I filled it up with my feet—with my hands. I due a greater draft into the mine. Branching of the little thinking it just pessible that the plethoric gen. I filled it up with my feet—with my hands. I due a greater draft into the mine. money see had She used to say I was very like tleman before him might be an impostor about to levelled it on the top. I beat it down. I built off from this central position, were various galend with n-king the loan of a pound.

great halls above it; but it won't stay quiet.—

leries on passages pointing in every direction—

The plate currier that gets adead of Grip, has ed and scaled. You have nothing to do but to go and day, and at ten o'clock I hear a step, I see a Railroads are laid through the entire beggle got to start early, that s all when his ferts que wild be likely to seinsit. Mr and he could have persuaded himself that Lord and recross each other at every imaginable curve. Judge noticed the abstructures of his guest, Bent rd Warleigh's description of what he personned was and angle, and through them troops of mules and endeavored to obviate it, by pixeing the wishes and angle, and through them troops of mules and endeavored to obviate it, by pixeing the wishes and angle, and through them troops of mules and endeavored to obviate it, by pixeing the wishes a second or obviate it, by pixeing the wishes a second or obviate it, by pixeing the wishes a second or obviate it, by pixeing the wishes a second or obviate it, by pixeing the wishes a second or obviate it, by pixeing the wishes a second or obviate it, by pixeing the object of the pixein or obviate it, by pixeing the object of the pixein or obviate it, by pixeing the object of the pixein or obviate it, by pixeing the object of the pixein or obviate it. if he lords ap will not receive my visit as a down upon the breast, and his lordship was no glibor, year aps to will not object to secure a select. A clock in the passage sounded two; me in my professional character as a visitor of and Benford touched Lord Warleigh on the long look behind him when he is put into the you will like that; it s a good piece.

Benford, thoughtfully

"And is most liberal to the poer," chimed in her husband.

"Goen—goon," cried Lord Warings to things—on a vert was food of clergyman." looked in his face; he spoke to him gently, loudthings—on a vert was food of clergyman." looked in his face; he spoke to him gently, loudthings—on a vert was food of clergyman."

"Mention my request to nim it you have the ly, but still no unswering sign. No; not to the least interesting feature in the last interest "And is most liberal to the peer," chimed in straining and the peer, chimed in straining and the straining and the peer, chimed in straining and the peer, chimed in straining and the peer, chimed in straining and the str force—burning every one within its reach. It occurs most generally in turn , where there is want of ventilation, but no mine is entirely free in time, the gas may poss wer him with at harm;

come formed along the route; as they give out, After a recital of these terrors, the guide turn-

I thanked him furriedly but declined the simple with a series of the construction of the street in the gars of people all around me the was by means of the inclined and left me as legaler with the street, intitle gars of people all around me the was by means of the inclined and left me as legaler with the street, intitle gars of the inclined street, and all mystosasted as some fitting away who they saw him come; the street, intitle gars of the inclined and two street in the street, intitle gars of the inclined and two street in the street, intitle gars of the inclined and two street in the street in the street in the street, intitle gars of the inclined street in the street, intitle gars of the inclined street in the st The Modate Bushook & No I bushook & commenced chasing up to for it piece —

It was no good, however, but it to wrong vest

He then turned to his son Haven't you got a smooth one? 'No, sir.'
'Well, hand it bete, not good the your knife, Saying this Mr Gilb to K as son George's

And you never heard the friend's name?"

No. Cousin Lucy never mentioned it, and heard the parish was transacted by letter as the business of the parish was transacted by letter as the had burned nearly down. Beaford was not vein, and explored it to its utmost limits; this latter the English manner, till it becomes almost before; and it was only when the rector of a superstitious nor a timid man, but there was vein proceeded over a quarter of a mi.e.—other putrid; at least, all the feathers come out easy