

THE ERIE OBSERVER.

MONDAY, MAY 24, 1880. DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS. GEORGE SOOTT, Columbia Co. JACOB FRY, Jr., Montgomery Co. TIMOTHY IVES, Potter Co.

Democratic State Central Committee of Penn. The Democratic State Central Committee will meet at Harrisburg, at the St. Charles Hotel, Monday the 26th of May, at 10 o'clock in the morning. Important business should be discussed.

A Liberal Arrangement. We have the pleasure of announcing that the Railroad Companies between this and Cincinnati will carry all passengers desiring to attend the Democratic National Convention in that city on the 2d, or half price.

The President's Message. We give to-day the message of the President, communicating to Congress the reasons which have influenced the Executive in recognizing the government now existing in Nicaragua.

Two years and a half ago, when the rail road troubles commenced, the Democratic party of Erie county was united. It was in a minority it is true, but still it was powerful for good.

To Be Dismissed—The Washington Union has an editorial which indicates the early dismissal of the British Minister.

Don't Want to Come In—A vote was taken in Oregon early last month, upon the question of framing a State Constitution.

The Washington Star states that the President having received the new minister from Nicaragua, has determined to prevent all hazards, the departure of armed bands from the United States for Central America.

Still They Come—An election for city officers took place in Terre Haute, Ind., on the 6th inst., which resulted in the election of Chambers Y. Patterson, Esq., the old line Democratic nominee.

Sudden Death—We learn that Judge J. C. Bonham, of York, Pa., who participated in the reception of the Hon. James Buchanan in that borough on Monday week, was taken ill with pneumonia, on the same evening, and died on Wednesday following.

The Courier & Enquirer's Washington correspondent telegraphs to that paper, under date of May 19, as follows: A correspondence has taken place between Messrs. Clayton and Crampson.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY AND OUR LOCAL DIFFICULTIES.

Two years and a half ago, when the rail road troubles commenced, the Democratic party of Erie county was united. It was in a minority it is true, but still it was powerful for good.

Thus, Democrats of Erie county, we show that from the moment this unfortunate difficulty originated—from the moment it became obvious that there would be an issue made—the last act in the drama, when Pollock signed the present law, the Democratic party here at home, in the Courts, and in the Legislature, has been the sustaining arm upon which the people have had to rely.

They cling to party; they determined to "take the Administration," to "put down the Pope," to "avenge the Nebraska swindle," to "secure freedom to Kansas," by defeating Breckenridge, and to accomplish this we found during that campaign the most load-mouthed of the anti-railroad men check-by-jowl with rail road men of the first water in crawling into deserted on buildings and dark gorges for the purpose of establishing Know Nothing Conventions.

The Washington Star states that the President having received the new minister from Nicaragua, has determined to prevent all hazards, the departure of armed bands from the United States for Central America.

Still They Come—An election for city officers took place in Terre Haute, Ind., on the 6th inst., which resulted in the election of Chambers Y. Patterson, Esq., the old line Democratic nominee.

WASHINGTON.

The speech of Mr. Grant under the Kansas question, is considered to be one of the most distinguished of his career. In reviewing the course of the war, he has shown a wisdom in relation to the reconstruction of the South, and a general subject of slavery, and a general subject of slavery, and a general subject of slavery.

Thus, Democrats of Erie county, we show that from the moment this unfortunate difficulty originated—from the moment it became obvious that there would be an issue made—the last act in the drama, when Pollock signed the present law, the Democratic party here at home, in the Courts, and in the Legislature, has been the sustaining arm upon which the people have had to rely.

They cling to party; they determined to "take the Administration," to "put down the Pope," to "avenge the Nebraska swindle," to "secure freedom to Kansas," by defeating Breckenridge, and to accomplish this we found during that campaign the most load-mouthed of the anti-railroad men check-by-jowl with rail road men of the first water in crawling into deserted on buildings and dark gorges for the purpose of establishing Know Nothing Conventions.

The Washington Star states that the President having received the new minister from Nicaragua, has determined to prevent all hazards, the departure of armed bands from the United States for Central America.

WASHINGTON.

The speech of Mr. Grant under the Kansas question, is considered to be one of the most distinguished of his career. In reviewing the course of the war, he has shown a wisdom in relation to the reconstruction of the South, and a general subject of slavery, and a general subject of slavery, and a general subject of slavery.

Thus, Democrats of Erie county, we show that from the moment this unfortunate difficulty originated—from the moment it became obvious that there would be an issue made—the last act in the drama, when Pollock signed the present law, the Democratic party here at home, in the Courts, and in the Legislature, has been the sustaining arm upon which the people have had to rely.

They cling to party; they determined to "take the Administration," to "put down the Pope," to "avenge the Nebraska swindle," to "secure freedom to Kansas," by defeating Breckenridge, and to accomplish this we found during that campaign the most load-mouthed of the anti-railroad men check-by-jowl with rail road men of the first water in crawling into deserted on buildings and dark gorges for the purpose of establishing Know Nothing Conventions.

The Washington Star states that the President having received the new minister from Nicaragua, has determined to prevent all hazards, the departure of armed bands from the United States for Central America.

WASHINGTON.

The speech of Mr. Grant under the Kansas question, is considered to be one of the most distinguished of his career. In reviewing the course of the war, he has shown a wisdom in relation to the reconstruction of the South, and a general subject of slavery, and a general subject of slavery, and a general subject of slavery.

Thus, Democrats of Erie county, we show that from the moment this unfortunate difficulty originated—from the moment it became obvious that there would be an issue made—the last act in the drama, when Pollock signed the present law, the Democratic party here at home, in the Courts, and in the Legislature, has been the sustaining arm upon which the people have had to rely.

They cling to party; they determined to "take the Administration," to "put down the Pope," to "avenge the Nebraska swindle," to "secure freedom to Kansas," by defeating Breckenridge, and to accomplish this we found during that campaign the most load-mouthed of the anti-railroad men check-by-jowl with rail road men of the first water in crawling into deserted on buildings and dark gorges for the purpose of establishing Know Nothing Conventions.

The Washington Star states that the President having received the new minister from Nicaragua, has determined to prevent all hazards, the departure of armed bands from the United States for Central America.

WASHINGTON.

The speech of Mr. Grant under the Kansas question, is considered to be one of the most distinguished of his career. In reviewing the course of the war, he has shown a wisdom in relation to the reconstruction of the South, and a general subject of slavery, and a general subject of slavery, and a general subject of slavery.

Thus, Democrats of Erie county, we show that from the moment this unfortunate difficulty originated—from the moment it became obvious that there would be an issue made—the last act in the drama, when Pollock signed the present law, the Democratic party here at home, in the Courts, and in the Legislature, has been the sustaining arm upon which the people have had to rely.

They cling to party; they determined to "take the Administration," to "put down the Pope," to "avenge the Nebraska swindle," to "secure freedom to Kansas," by defeating Breckenridge, and to accomplish this we found during that campaign the most load-mouthed of the anti-railroad men check-by-jowl with rail road men of the first water in crawling into deserted on buildings and dark gorges for the purpose of establishing Know Nothing Conventions.

The Washington Star states that the President having received the new minister from Nicaragua, has determined to prevent all hazards, the departure of armed bands from the United States for Central America.

WASHINGTON.

The speech of Mr. Grant under the Kansas question, is considered to be one of the most distinguished of his career. In reviewing the course of the war, he has shown a wisdom in relation to the reconstruction of the South, and a general subject of slavery, and a general subject of slavery, and a general subject of slavery.

Thus, Democrats of Erie county, we show that from the moment this unfortunate difficulty originated—from the moment it became obvious that there would be an issue made—the last act in the drama, when Pollock signed the present law, the Democratic party here at home, in the Courts, and in the Legislature, has been the sustaining arm upon which the people have had to rely.

They cling to party; they determined to "take the Administration," to "put down the Pope," to "avenge the Nebraska swindle," to "secure freedom to Kansas," by defeating Breckenridge, and to accomplish this we found during that campaign the most load-mouthed of the anti-railroad men check-by-jowl with rail road men of the first water in crawling into deserted on buildings and dark gorges for the purpose of establishing Know Nothing Conventions.

The Washington Star states that the President having received the new minister from Nicaragua, has determined to prevent all hazards, the departure of armed bands from the United States for Central America.

Advertisements and notices at the bottom of the page, including 'MARRIED', 'DIED', 'A Watch Maker Wanted!', and 'THE CONTINENTAL VOYLISTS'.