MATERIAL AID TO GEN WALKER .- Gen. that city, on Monday night, the 28th inst., to hear Mr. P. Soule, late American Minister to Spain, discourse on Walker's greatness, on the wrongs of Nicaragua, and the succor of her champion.-With his fine elecution and his vivid French imagination, the distinguished orator drew glowing pictures of manifest destiny and of future Central American greatness; of the duty of the "Young South" and the glories of "Southern expansion;" of the danger of New Orleans with British causes pointed as it were into her very doors from the Bay Islands. He declared that Monroe doctrine must and shall be enforeed:" that Walker's chief obstacle is the "evil spirit in the North," because the annexation of Nicaragua would counterpoise the North: that is a few weeks Walker would "sweep the Costa Ricans like dust from the face of the earth;" that with suitable material aid he would cortainly succeed, and San Salvador and Honduras would join him; [of course we will annex them too;] and that Walker's bonds would be a good investment to the amount of $250,000, which it let.
