A FIRE IN THE REAR!

WAS LOVE, FREE COLOR AND FREMONT WON'T GO DOWN IN OLD YORK!!

FREMONT REPUDIATED

The following card, which we copy from the York Eagle speaks for itself The writer of it ras. it will be seen, a member f the Convention hich nominated Fremont, but will not support im He saw the character of the elements in hat Convention, and he exposes them in a forible manner Read the card:

Col. THOMAS: After due reflection, and the trictest examination of the various facts relative o the Presidential question, which were presend to me, I feel it my duty to express my conictions fully for the benefit of your readers and hs those who favor justice and right.

I was choosen a delegate to the National Rohlican Convention, which assembled in Philaelphia in June 17th last, to nominate candidates or the Presidency and Vice Presidency, and hav- g refused to support the ticket then and there ominated, it may not be amiss, and I consider my duty, to give my reasons for so doing — ot to my immediate constituents alone, how ver is this due, (as there were scarcely enough resent at the meeting which elected me as a legate, to fill the offices) but to the whole State. cannot, however, pass those few by, without lling to their minds the great pleasure the eeting afforded us, and the timely relief of our xiety when some of the outsiders joined in apauding the eloquent address of the Hon J A. ngham, especialy when he alluded to and eulo ized the immortal HENRY CLAY and GENERAL AYLOR.

I know there are thousands in Pennsylvania ho consider themselves Republicans: but was he Philadelphia Convention controlled by such nfluences? Certainly not—and I shall endeav- r to convince them (the true Republicans) that he said Convention was entirely influenced and ontrolled by Abolitionists, Socialists and Spir tual Rappers It should have been called an Abolition Convention, and then we would have seen their real strength At the call of real Republicanism, there is scarcely a voter in Pennsylvania who could not cry out, "HERE AM I." The name is so bewitching as that of "Democracy" used to be The Abolitionists, should have read the fable of the Eagle and the Owl before they attempted to lead the real Republicans into that black, infidel gulf.

To prove that this Convention was controlled by every species of infidelity, from Nigger Worshippers down to Spiritual Rappers, I need only refer to the treachery of Judge Spaulding in having from the list of nominees the name of the Republican's choice, the Hon JOHN M'LEAN he did this without giving Judge M'LEAN a chance of a ballot, and even refused to give the name of the writter of the letter upon which he based his authority for the act Had he then been honest enough to state the name before he read the letter, the Convention would never have committed the political suicide, they would have found Ohio broke up in a row As this time the M'LEAN blood was at boiling point, and my only regret is that the Pennsylvania delegation refused to bolt when they were solicited to do so by oth r delegations who offered to lead off But his friends were honest, ardent, and they determined to cling to McLEAN as long as there was hope. Alas, the last cord which held together the true Republicans, was finally severed—our candidate, without even a fair hearing, or a consultation, which was all that was desired, was thrown from our bosoms, and hurled back to be devoured by the "Darker higher law Spirits" who are ready in their concealment behind the screens, to bid why" Because he would not suit their particular, purposes—he could not be made the proper MEDIUM through whose "RAPPINGS" there could hope to accomplish their designs

It is evident that the professional politicians and place hunters would hold such Catonic indignity of principle, and rectitude of aim, as shine through all Judge M'Leans life and writings, in dread His is not the pliant character to be bended to their base uses, or to be made the instrument of their personal animosities and secret schemes of fanaticism A constitutional jurist, he would govern the country by the Constitution and laws, and not in obsequious servility to the dictation of a despotic clique of political gamblers and tricksters MILLARD FILLMORE and JOHN M'LEAN are both types of the better days of the Republic, and like the truly patriotic and great men of the past, they enjoy the confidence and respect of the unbought and unpurchased people, while they provoke the enmity and malice of the invidious, corrupt and mercenary, who would sell their country for lucre and office Such men cannot be maltreated with impunity before a free and virtuous people.

The slaughter of Judge M'LEAN was brought about by the very men who never had but one idea—NIGGERISM What was their conduct in 1844? When the Whig party was battling against POLK and the annexation of Texas a Slave State they refused to give their support to freedom, and threw their votes away on BIRNEY, thereby defeating not only HENRY CLAY in the question of Free Soil And now, forsooth they expect to obtain Whig votes—now they dare not unite, and even urge the friends of HENRY CLAY, whom THEY defeated so shamefully, to support them and their absurd notions

The so called Republicans come before the world with a cunningly devised platform, and would feign make us believe that the success of their ticket would be a Republican triumph — but what is the platform? Freemen of Pennsylvania, look at it! and look, also, at the candidate In the preamble they refer to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, but in all the following resolves the subject is not again alluded Did the Convention even refer to the Fugitive Slave Law? No, it is not once mentioned in the whole platform? Are they then in favor or opposed to it! Who can answer? Taken together the platform is a complete jumble, in that it expresses and what it omits But after all the platform is made to suit the candidate — What has been FREMONT'S course while in the U. S Senate? His votes as the official record bears witness, were in every instance joined with the most ultra slavery party By his vote he refused to acknowledge that Congress had power to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia, and every vote which he cast was with the Butler, Brooks, Toombs and Stephen's school of politicians

Thus, my fellow citizens, I have briefly given my reason for refusing to support the nominations made at Philadelphia, and I now freely declare that my first and only choice, of all the candidates in the field, is MILLARD FILLMORE The sentiments which he expressed in his various speeches since his return from Europe, are far more satisfactory to all the sincere friends of the Republican cause, than the meagre and non committal pledges of FREMONT. possibly can be In FILLMORE, "the model President," we have a tried statesman—a man of ability and experience, who will not allow any part of the country to be oppressed and imposed upon, but who will administer the government in strict accordance with the Constitution. Nor can I find it in my heart to compare him—lofty, able, illustrious as all acknowledge him to be—with FREMONT, the petty tool of Messrs. Seward, Greely, Hughes & Co.

And, finally, believing it to be impolitic to unite the growing fortunes of MILLARD FILLMORE, with those of the fast waning prospects of Fremont, I sincerely hope that each party will have their seperate Electoral ticket, feeling confident that our candidates have sufficient strength, in themselves and their principles to carry this State, while a union would give Pennsylvania to Buchanan it is impossible to serve two masters—those who are not for us must be against us, and while we can boldly and fearlessly approach the voters with FILLMORE and DONELSON, we would necessarily become crippled, not only in Pennsylvania, but all over the Union if we consented to a fusion as that proposed by the friends of FREMONT

I am, my dear sir, your fellow citizen,

C. H. BRESSLER,

Delegate to the late Republican Convention.

From the Plains.

The St. Louis Republican has letters from Fort Laramie of June 13, containing the following intelligence:

The Indians are quiet, and come very little about the road. The Sioux, since the battle of Ash Hollow, have stood in perfect dread of Long Knife, as they call Gen. Harney.

We have met with several parties of the Saints returning from Salt Lake to the States. All we met gave a terrible picture of the state of affairs there now The poorer class had to subsist for months on roots, such as thistle, seco, &c., which the Indians gather and sell to them for $1 per bushel The grasshoppers, which caused the famine last year, have commenced again this season, and bid fair to destroy the present crop of wheat and vegetables Many of them appeared very much dissatisfied with the Mormon faith, and stated that they had been deceived. That the poor had everything taken from them in the shape of tithes and taxes to support a few leaders in the church. Be this as it may, many of those we met were real objects of pity, and gave evidence, in their utter destitution, that Mormonism affords but little food for the body, at best, let it be as it will with the soul

NEW York, July 30

We have melancholy news from the coast of Labrador On the 1st inst that coast was visited by a hurricane, unexampled in fury There was a fleet of 30 vessels on the fishing grounds when the hurricane appeared, and twenty-nine of the thirty were wrecked, and nearly all on board perished

In addition to these, three large ships went ashore on Dog Island. They will be a total loss. Their crews have also mostly perished Some of the fishing vessels were from New England.

CARLISLE, Pa, July 30

We are were visited yesterday and last night with heavy rain, accompanied by thunder and lightning Five barns and one house were destroyed in this vicinity The barns were filled with the new crops, and the losses fall heavily upon their owners. There are reports of similar losses in the neighborhood

Restoration of Sight.

The undesigned, though but 21 years of age, and having all the appearance of health, began to lose his vision while the ball of the eye was bright and natural I could not read any length of time—the lines and letters running into each other—and various spots or specks moved about before the sight I applied to Doct. Knapp, Oculist of Buffalo, at Borwn's Hotel, Erie, and he once purged me with a pospect of restored sight, if commenced immediately. I placed myself under his care and now at the end of two months, my vision is clear, and the black spots before the sight have disappeared The discase was in the optic nerves, being called Amaurosis, and I am glad to state that I have escaped loss of vision, by skillful treatment.

I now visit Dr. K each Saturday forenoon, at Conneaut, Tremont House—but expect to be through treatment in a couple of weeks

MASS MEETINGS

OF THE

DEMOCRATS OF PENNSYLVANIA

"The Union Must and Shall be Preserved."

The Democrats of Pennsylvania, and all others in favor of preserving the Union of the States, now seriously endangered by a sectional agitation, led and controlled by the open enemies of the Federal constitution, and conducted upon the alarming idea of repudiating nearly one-half of the States of the Union, are recommended that Mass Meetings will be held at the following times and places, of the friends of JAMES BUCHANAN, for President, and JOHN C. BRECKENRIDGE, for Vice Pres ident:

At Erie, [illegible] on WEDNESDAY the 27th day of August, 1856, being the day after the Democratic State Convention.

At Greensburg, [illegible] on WEDNESDAY the 3d day of September, 1856.

At Bellefonte, [illegible] on WEDNESDAY, the 4th day of September, 1856.

At Harrisburg, the Capital of the State, on WEDNESDAY, the 10th of September.

At Philadelphia, on the 17th of September, being the anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States.

Eminent democrats, from [illegible] States, will [illegible] present at all these meetings, to address the assembled people.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Read what is said of Great Home —MR CARTER I think it due to you and others that I should state publicly the benefit that I have derived by the use of your "Female Restorative Cordial," as the knowledge of it may be the means of affording relief to others laboring under the same afflictions that I was. for, had I known of, and used your medicine two years ago, have no doubt it would have saved me from much weakness and suffering, that I have undergone since that time

About two years ago I began to be troubled with Weakness, Pain in the small of the Back, and especially with a pain in the pit of the stomach, which at times caused a great faintness, and general feeling, that would almost overcome me, and render me for a while quite miserable and distressed, as these troubles continued my strength failed, and I became very nervous, and at times subject to great depression of spirits and despondency of mind, so that I had no heart to undertake or go forward with my business, but felt as if I must give up everything, and give way to tears In this distressing condition I commenced [illegible] the advice of a friend—the use of your FEMALE RESTORATIVE, and the changes which it has wrought in my feelings is truly wonderful It has lifted me up out of the wretched state of weakness, fear and despondency, restored my strength, revived my spirits and brought back my cheerfulness, and I am now able to discharge my duties—which are not light—with my former ease and vigor This change in my condition is seen and remarked by those around me, as well as felt by myself—and now I ask should not a medicine that is capable of affecting so much good be made known? Surely there are thousands now ignorant of it, that did they but know of it would resort to it and find the same relief that I have Yours, respectfully,

The Great Domestic Remedy

For Pains, Soreness, Stiffness of the Joints, Lameness of the Back or Neck, Swellings, Rheumatism, etc., is the Smart Weed Liniment The recommendations with which it meets its work is sure to convince all that give it a fair trial, of its great worth as the best and antique of having it always on hand—a necessary, safe and certain means of meeting, and curing many of the everyday ills [illegible] to which we are liable It is one of the quickest things in the world with which to break up a cold, remove obstructions of the [illegible] soreness and stiffness and relieve in the bones.

TO PARENTS.—At [illegible] in which children are most frequently troubled with Bowel Complaints, it may be well for parents to know that Worms are a fruitful source, and a frequent cause of these derangements, and for a return to health and regularity cannot reasonably be expected so long as the system is kept in a state of irritation by the presence of these animals The evacuation is therefore a condition of health This can be readily done by a few doses of the GERMAN WORM CANDY, which removes both the Worms, and the slime in which they are bred and non inhabit, in not disagreeable, irritating, nor heating to the stomach and bowels, but just the contrary pleasant to the taste, and liver purifies the breath, and regulates the state of the Liver and Bowels

To Women in Delicate Health.—To raise the spirits, quiet the nerves, soothe the feelings, and calm the mind; to impart cheerfulness and reliance in place of gloom and despondency, nothing that we know of is equal to the Female Restorative and Mother's Cordial. No woman in delicate health should fail to use this most valuable medicine It is peculiarly adapted to meet their cases, and impart that strength and vigor to the system so, without which life is but a burden

A VAST NUMBER.—In Persons an [illegible] vast number of Women there are throughout our [illegible] with constitutions naturally feeble, or rendered so by [illegible] tion or habit, whose lives are a burden to [illegible] and a distress to their friends, a support to none but Doctors and Druggists Constant weakness having rendered them Nervous, Fearful, Irritable, complaining, Low spirited, and irregular, unfit for the duties of life yet compelled by circumstances to fill stations, that require the possession of all their faculties in full vigor What a condition to be in, and yet what hope of escape To such as have not already lost all confidence in Medicine, is given up as useless all further effort after relief, we would say For that Remedy, from [illegible] circumstances have claimed so much research, and which is so seldom fails to meet the wishes of those that use it, is the [illegible] attitude in Carter's Female Restorative and Mother's Cordial

Use Antheliatic Wafers, the only [illegible] and [illegible] remedy for Worms They are entirely free from the [illegible] Cinnamon and [illegible] can eat them as readily as candy For [illegible]
