DETRICIAN for DISEASES of the LUNGS. (Fermely Physicians to Clasimanti Marine Hospital and Inveltés Science. May be consulted at the Monis, Saturday "IL Connectivities Detract Communication, Saturday "IL Meadville, Barton Houns, Thursday "IL Meadwille, In the Prompton Houghtal Loudon. The great root, instead the direct manner All medicines are estimated by their action upon the organ requiring rebief. This is the important that upon which fradesien is based. If the stomach is 'diseased, we have medicined directly into the stomach if the lungs are diseased, brighted to the interest of disease fadesicies is the application of this principle to the trustment of the lungs, for it gives us direct secons to these intrinsic nir-cells and tubes which ile out of reach of every other means of administering medicines. The reason that consumption, and other diseases of the lungs, have heretofore resisted all meetings and yet were applied to the stomach. Their action was intended to be local, and yet, they were so administering the medicine in direct contact with the disease, without the foul disease within the lungs were unmolested. Inhalation brings the medicine in direct contact with the disease, without the disidevamings of any visited action. Its application is so simple, that it can be employed by the youngest infant or feelbiest trivial! A cold sected in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralste sales, which ended in chrome rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackennies, I tried your Pills. Thair effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now egiticity well.
