Government. Now they control none. Then to the City of the Montesumae, to vindicate the non slaveholding. Now there are sixteen free together the Pennsylvania voltigeur and the Paland fifteen slave States, with six or seven Terri- metto volunteer, under a northern general. We have twenty two free States and fifteen slave and of the people of the States. All that we is nothing in this picture to alarm the Senator from Ohio, as an element of political power he cortainly does not feer it. The Northern States have an assendency in both branches of Congress and in the Electoral College. Where, then, shall we look for aggression? Is it in territorial acquisition. Certainly not. When our independ. ence was established, the States north of Mason & Dixon's line, (as shown by the Senator from Alabams, (Mr. Clay,) in his speech made during the last winter,) possessed an area of but one hundred and sixty four thousand square miles, and those south of the same line an area of six hundred and forty seven thousand square miles. Now, the slaveholding States possesses an area of . Mant hundred and eighty two thousand square miles, and the free States, with the Territories inevitably to become free States, an area of over one million seven hundred thousand square miles. Surely the Senator and his party cannot be alarm ed at such aggression as this. And yet this charge of aggression was a constant and fruitful subject of discussion for the Republican party during the late campaign

The fugitiue slave law was another. The law was talked of, even by men of position in society, as though it had no constitutional authority-as shough it were the mere act of Congress-and that by its agency alone slaves were reclaimed They knew better, Mr President. They knew that the law on this subject is nothing-the Constitution everything The law gives no man the right to his fugitive slave. The Constitution has done this, and the Supreme Court of the United States has so decided; and the law is but the ex ecution of the constitutional provision. Therefore, those who rail against the law rail against the Constitution; and those who reject any por tion of that instrument repudiate all its blessings The Schator from Ohio has not hestitated to do this, and yet be claims. I believe, to be a friend of the Union. Senators representing States, the Legislatures of which have taken distinct ground against the execution of this law, say they are for the Union and the constitutional rights of all the States. Now, was not this constitutional provision one of the compacts of the Union?was it not one of the compromises of the Constitution? Certainly it was; and no man has a fair claim to friendship for either who will not hold that it is to be faithfully executed. The denunmation of this law was one of the potent means of the campaign, to swell Mr. Fremont's vote. How much of loyalty to our people and their frae institutions there is in it I leave others to

But I do not wish to be misunderstood. I am not standing here either as the advocate of slavery or the defender of the South. I speak but to vindicate history, and particularly the history of the late Presidential contest, which has been so unfairly referred to I do not desire, nor have I ever sought, the extension of slavery; and heartily do I concur with the Senator from South Carolina (Mr Butler) when he said the other day, "I do not want the extension of slavery" Mr Butler. I beg to be understood correctly The Senator from Maine asked me how the remark which I made was to be construed? I said that I now maintain, as I have always maintained, that all lines of distinction being wiped out, I was in what lawyers call a condition of indiffer. ency. I said, let the institution go where it would; I would not attempt here either to restrain or extend it.

"Mr. Bigler. I think that is the substance of the choice of those who settle the new common wealth.

That is all I have ever desired. It is all the Texas, (Mr. Rusk.) if I understood him, expressed the same sentiment. Is there not author tv enough here, sir, to show that the widespead cient reason for complaint, cailed a boy toexs allegation, that we seek the extension of slavery by the agency and power of the Government, is

I do not agree nor do I sympathize with much that is said at the South on the subject of sla.

I have read articles from the "Southside Democrat," the New Orleans "Delta," the Charles ton "Standard," and other Southern papers, on the subject of labor, comparing white and black la-I have no sympathy with the Barnwell Rhett eschool of politics in the South, who talk so incessantly and so flippantly of a dissolution of the Union, as though it had cost our fathers nothing, as though it were worth nothing, and its dissolu tion would remedy a single one of the evils com plained of; and I certainly have no respect for the suggestion of Governor Adams, of South Southern statesmen and the Southern people will do the same thing I have, however, an admiration for that class of Southern statesmen who only remain in the Union as equals.

There is another class of political philosophers been speaking, for whose opinions I have, if posaffes, who, in attempting illegally to abolish slasolve the Union and aggravate the evils they la: | magistrates whether he would make the requisite ment Although in the main these men acted promise, he refused, saying, "Au I to obey the with the Republican party in the late canvass, laws of God or the laws of men?" When Sunday arrived, I made my appearance in his pulpit During sermon time, Dea con E-, who sat directly under me, kept his eves constantly upon me, as if he was unwilling to lose a word of the discourse. The congregation being dismissed, I descended from the pulpit. and was warmly thanked by the Descon and other members of the church, for the excellent sermon I had preached I was pleased with their flattery, and thinking that it must have been excellent, as they said so, I determined to preach it to my own flock on the following Sabbath. I had sourcely finished reading the first psalm, when looking down, who should I see but Deacon E-, observing me with all attention Never did a preacher feel worse than I, at the sight of that good man. He had come from his parish in order to hear me, and I was going to preach the same sermon that he heard the Suti day before. PROF. DE GRATH-My dear sit:—I must inform-you of the beneficial effects I have experienced from your Electric Oil. I have seen terribly afflicted for thirteen year past with Neura, yis another complaints to such an extint have now sufferings been that have been unable to waik two squares without stopping to rist and for rive years I have not had a good night a rist, being unable to skeep from pain. About the 2d of this month I commenced using your Electric Oil, taking about the more internally and applied it externally so the small posteril parts. On the man in the first than I had done for many years, and now, at the end one rock, I am libra new man: can alse, well, walk any distance, and attend to my deties. Your Oil having done for me in this short time what the entire Medical Faculties of the Your York Colleges of Medicine and those of the Jeferson and Points visual of Philadelphia have falled to do in 13 years
