DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

HALL OF THE HOUSE

HARRISBURG, March 2, 1857.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock A M by Col John W Forney, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee

On motion of Hon Ario Pardee, Murray Shallon, Esq of Erie, was unanimously chosen Temporary Chairman of the Convention

Mr Whallon on taking the chair, addressed the Convention as follows

Gentlemen of the Democratic State Convention, and Fellow-citizens, to whom I am indebted for the honor of presiding over your deliberations, and the continuance amongst you of the Government

Resolved, That as representatives of the great party founded by Mr. Jefferson, and the sole political heritors of the other States [illegible] upon the principles and just result of the [illegible] and upon the [illegible] attached to the [illegible] and the [illegible] and the [illegible] and