-The Philadelphia North American save "It seems pro bable from present appearances thatt he next Congress will pass bills for the organization of the embryo Territories of Nevada, Dacotah, Arizonia, and Neosho. When Minnesoti shall be admitted into the Union the number of States will be thirty two." " Oregon and Washington (will raise the number to thirty four, and Nebraska and New Mexico to thirty six: and the four new Territories when admitted increase the circle to forty. Should Texas and California each be divided into three States, as is proposed, the number would be raised to forty-six. Then there is the propesed State of Superior or Itasca, making the number forty-seven. We have omitted Utah; but if that Territory be admitted as a State, the number would be forty-eight This number would be reached without any division of Nebraska, Oregon, or Washington. But the former is large enough for six or seven States, Oregon for three, and Washington for two. These calculations serve to convey an idea of the rapid growth of our republic, the immense extent of our unsettled territory, and the importance of the legislation affecting it."

-A most singular trial has lately taken place in Mont real. Dr. Jean Baptiste Pheophille Dorion, a person of gentlemanly appearance, of standing and position in society, and in the nesession of wealth to the amount of upwards of $90 000, was charged with stealing silver spoons, two promissory notes for $100, a gold-headed cane and six books from Doctor Leveve Donan, (whom he attended in his last sickness.) on the 20th of June, 1851 nearly six years ago, and the chief witnesses were two brothers of the prisoner, who saw the goods taken. The accused said that the charge was the result of a conspiracy to ruin him, but the jury, after an absence of five minutes, found him guilty. When the verdit was announced the pri-oner staggered in the dock, and was asby pale The sentence has not yet been pronounced.

--Interesting intelligence has been received from the State survey of the Okefenoke swamp, which covers nearly a fourth of the map of Georgia. The great swamp does not appear to be a swamp after all So far from being impeded by water, the expedition suffered severely from want of it, and were compelled to sink three wells for drinking and cooking parposes. The underwood also was found of almost fabulous thickness, through which they were compelled to cut their way with knives, whereby they were so much delayed as to be in danger of starvation. their supplies being exhausted. The most erroneous opin ions have been entertained of the extent and nature of the whole region. No published map gives any idea of its geography. The survey will prove a fortunate venture .--The submerged portion is found to be easily drained, whereby thousands of acres of the most valuable cotton lands in the South will be reclaimed.

-- The will of Miss Elizabeth Gelson, daughter of the late Jno Gelson, merchant, of New York, was offered for probate a few days since. After making various bequests to her relatives, &c , to the amount of $35,000, the will distributes $16,000 among missionary and other charitable societies, as follows: To the American Board of Commissinners for Foreign Missions, $5,000; Board of Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterien Church, (at Philadelphia,) for the promotion of Domestic Missions. $3,000, Board of Education, same Church, $2,000; Ameriean Tract Society, New York, $1,000. A handsome dona tion is also made to the American Bible Society.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, April & 1867 Last wook opened with May weather but on Wednesday ve had a blast of wind from the very heart of the North Pole, which caused all living and breathing things to shrink back into the upmost depths of their winter woolens. The fashionables have been quiet enough as there is nothing just now to excite them and they have hardly recovered from the shook which their weak nerves experienced at the extremely improper behavior of "John Dean and his Mary Ann." By the way, the newsboys are making a fortune at retailing the adventume of this merry couple, embalmed in woful rhyme, and "hitched" to the popular air of "Villikins and his Dinah," for the very moderate asideration of "only one cont." We quote the "morsel" as Burton calls it: times to think free schools a curse where " only" papers of

"Now all your stars fathers who have daughters fair, "Of dashing young coachases I'd have you beware, "Especially if from Ireland, for I tell you they can, "When they try, blarney over you or my Mary Ann."

In connection with this "interesting subject," we may mythat there is an ondir going the rounds that this jolly Irish soachman has withdrawn his claim for the present upon his thir Marianna, and retired into the country to get rid of some of the "heat" or to be groomed into condition .--His young bride returns to her father to meditate over love's folly; and John, with his $1,000 in his pocket can luzuriate in the groon fields of Columbia County and try his hand again, perhaps in the business in which he has preved himself such a proficient. Look out for the handsome coachman. John is a whole team-but, for shame, John, to sell your fair bride 'so cheaply. What will the girls think of you after this?

There has been a little set to between the luminaries of he singe; Matilda Herren, prima donna, Laura Keene, lesser light, and Mrs. McMahon, a millow candle which will not be hid under a bushel, though it could hardly illuminate a pint mag. These worthies get retorical over each others failings through the medium of the public press, when they have no more important matters to occupy their attention. Ole Bull, the man who draws molody from the intestines of the most unmelodious of creatures, who draws a thous and harmonies from a single catg-t, is adding to his formor reputation by his present performances. He is one of the seven wonders of this part of the world.

Business of every kind continues very quiet. Tess, fire rackers, and bandanna "wipes," in fact, every description of goods derived from the celestial country, are held very high, and paying enormous profits to the large houses en gaged in the China trade. A. A. Law and Bro., one of the largest China importers was a large purchaser last week of very expensive and valuable paintings. This is one of the least objectionable extravagancies of the times, to say the least. Loss money paid for costly dresses and more for those adoraments of home which cultivate at once the mind and heart would be an improvement in our domestic conomy. Cotton Goods of home manfacture bring pretty fair prices new, though all our manufactories both of col ton and woolen fabrics 'are ]osing money at the prices ob' tained in this market. The importers are doing a losing business, and some heavy failures may be looked for, es pecially in the silk trade, if the present state of things con tinues long. Western debtors are disposed to stay ou West, at least, very few of them appear in this city either n person or by prexies in the shape of bank notes.

The Times has a queer development, which may be com mended to losers of registered letters and those who pay their clarks poor wages. . froms time ago that 'paper pub lished a list of registered lotters mailed to their effec, but never reseived. But on Saturday, Mr. Holbrook, por office agent, publishes a statement that the post office Aad receipts for all the letters which it was said never were re ceived! The Times in reply, comes down handsomely,and says that the statement is correct-that 'the thefts were committed by their own clerk, and adds: "merchants and business men generally are far too careless in regard to the class of persons who are sent to the post office for their letters. It is very common to intrust this important and seponsible duty to those employees who are in the most nferior positions, and who are the most inadequately paid for their services. A direct temptation to dishenesty is thus thrown in their way."

The (Vinstitution is mistaken. No one who reads the Observer's strictures upon the past and present position of the Genetic upon the tariff question, would suppose the we were an advocate of "Pretection." What we have said about the Gazette in connection with this matter was legitimate criticism upon its inconsistency. It formerly professed to regard "Protection" as the only salvation of the country -- it joined heartily with its party in this state in Jenouncing the course of Wilmot while in Congresseven within a month, it endeavored to make a point against Senator BIGLER upon this very idea of Prostection-and yet it now stultifies itself, shows its want of fair and determination. Thousands of others will parsue a like bonorable journalism in its attack on BRILER, by heartily oining in the support of a Free Trade candidate for Governor. We too believe " that protection to Home Mannfactures is not a living issue;" but that is no reason why re publish the following receipe for the benefit of our tidy housewives, who are ever ambitious to make everything a journal that has attempted within a month to make it a "living issue," should not be held to its own position. If Senator BISLER "betrayed the iron interest" in voting for the relaction of the tariff-and the Gasette says he did-then in what position is the Gazette now, in supporting a Free Trade candidate for Governor ? NEGRO VOTERS .- The New York Legislature has a bill before it that provides for an amondmont of the Constitution so as to allow all the negroes in that State on equal terms with the whites. Negroes in that State vote now, subject to a property qualification, however. Under that qualification there are now about 6,600 negre voters in the State. To extend free suffrage to all negroes would add ten thousand votes, making the whole negro vote in New York 16,000. The Albany Atlas, in commonting on this proposition, estimates the free solored population of the State at upwards of 50,000, nearly all which remains in the counties in which it existed before slavery was abalished in the Stat. The number of colored voters which the proposed amondment to the Constitution would create, it estimates at 18,660. It thinks the measure, hewever,
