Democratic County Convention.

The Democratic Central Committee of the County of Erie, request and call upon the democratic voters of the County, to assemble at their respective places for holding elections, on Saturday January 10th, 1885, at 10 o'clock, P. M. (except the City of Erie) and select two delegates from each township, Ward and Borough to attend a County Convention, to be held in the City of Erie on Monday February 1st, 1885, at 10 o'clock, P. M. for the purpose of choosing two Representatives and, in connection with Crawford, one Senatorial delegate to represent the County in the ensuing State Convention.

News of the Week.

A few days since the Albany N. Y. Atlas and Argus published an account of the attempted suicide of M. W. Hoopster, a farmer of Schenectady county. The article has since been informed that Mr. Hoopster had a considerable amount of different friends, and on the morning of the 1st he received intelligence that he had been for the amount of one of the notes, with the prospect of having to meet others. This so depressed him that he resolved to prepare the rash act. From his singular manner, and from the words that he uttered, his friends became apprehensive that he intended to do himself some harm. He started for a barn about half a mile from his residence, the girl following him at a short distance, to prevent his overhauling her. He entered the barn, she came up and entered also, and the horrible spectacle of her father suspended by the neck, and black in the face, met her gaze. She immediately ran to him and tried to raise him up, but finding her efforts unavailing, she turned her head and saw her father's body hanging from the beam, and she then laid him on the barn floor, took the cap from his head and ran to a spring. He died, and was returned and commended to his friends. After a while he began to breathe. She then left him and called assistance. She was taken home, and is now in a fair way of recovery. This is one of the most remarkable instances of female courage and thoughtfulness that has ever been on record.

HARD WILDS AND THE GAMERS.

The excitement of the last few months has done more good to the poor than any other cause. It has done more to excite the sympathy of the rich than any other cause. It has done more to excite the sympathy of the rich than any other cause. It has done more to excite the sympathy of the rich than any other cause.
