Volume XVII (for 1856) will be furnished to subscribers, entire, for $I; Six cupies for $5; Ten or more copies at 80 cents such.

To you ask how all this can be done?

Ans. The Agricultural has a larger regular circulation than a dosen of the ordinary Agricultural and Horticultural journals. A few cents profit on each subscriber, gives a large sum to be appropriated to paying the best privates,—onliciting information—costive Engravings—and for Seeds for free distribution.

Further: the Publisher is determined to issue a journal that shall not only be an soors to the Agriculture and Horticulture of our Country, but one which shall be a valuable and so full of instruction in every department of Soil Culture, whether on a large or small scale, that no nerson (secont those and to up in height scale, that no nerson (secont threes and walls without a foot of spare % and) can afford to be without it.

#30,000 were spent upon the Agriculturist lastyear, and as the present new and vinewed subscription list variants it, the sim will be doubled for, 1858.

The Publisher's motto is: "get up the Best paper irst, and make money afterwards if he can."

If you want such a Journal, with the extra Seeda, &c., send $1 (in gold, or 3 cent P. O. stamps, or bills of kanke in good credit at home) and you will receive the January number at once, from which you can select the seeds. A bushel of prime white pure Barley worth at Rife, and no profit to buyer.

At Paris, Canada West and vicinity, any quantity of good Barley, and dull, at 31 to 37 cents.

Thus a boahel of good prime pure Barley is warth at Eric 40 cents and se more, and the purchaser can make nothing by buying it. Any thing but prime purpularley cannot be sold.

The subscript sincerely regrets the above low, dull sold flat state of the Barley market every where. The above statement of markets is correct. Over throughtsarkets the subscriber has no control, and the Farmers are aware that he buys to sell and to ship. It would be absurd to expect the undersigned to pay more for Barley than i is worth. Men generally do not dessign paying soors for an artist than its walse.

In worth. Men generally do not design paying soors for an articitant its value.

Being struegly arged and solicited by the Farmara last spring I loaned to them by contract, and at prices which havely covered the court, a large quantity of Seed, in primonts from 2 to 150 bushels.—This Need, thus loaned, is my Cash capital in Trade, and I new need it. The Contracts generally expire the last day of January. Those indebted to me for Need are hereby respectfully informed that desire the immediate payment of the same, without respect to per sons, either in good isarisy, at what it is worth, or in Cash. Any Farmer indebted to me for Seed Barley, by seeing me porsonally on or hafore the 20th day of January, 1556, can probably be released from his souteract by paying his Seed in Cash. I am sempelled to request an immediate attention to this notice in four or five of the county papers. I trust it will be deemed sufficient to insure the presspi attention of January the subscriber wishen to purchase no Barley this season, farther than amounts owing him for Seed.
