

Great, she rests not until that cap- his gentle Indian girl."

amounts to something like a Rip Rap protection. lbis. I believe, is a She sprang to her feet at his declaration She in other places the water is higher in the lake gloomy brow The recollect, that the occupation twined her arms around his neck and imprinted than the prairie outside the wall. The wall in the some parts of Minnesota, a single kiss upon his forehead. Then drawing some places is ten feet high; it is 13 feet wide 'Aye, and Carrie is a blewing," ponse in a lightened tone. And is not good health a blessing f "Be that kiss, our betrothment Now hear at the base, sloping up both sides to 5 feet wide 'Yes, I suppose so,' said he almost linghing 'And is not this soft cool air, this mellow on the top. The wall is built entirely of host. ders, trom zaros tons to size, down to fifty pounds. senton, had to contend. The me. Tak a wasa would alaim me for his bride berra, trom turne tons in size, down to fifty pounds. If all their foes were the Daco. In another moon be thinks that I shall be his, They are all what are called lost rock. I am no moonlight, and the star spangled heavens, a blessing ? geologist, and consequently can give no learned Of COULDE description of them. They are not, however, patives "to the manor born." Nor has the wall "See our heautiful garden; how softly it sleeps in the monalight. Dil you not till me been made by the washing away of the earth and to day, that you never saw such beats and cableaving the rocks. There is no native rock in bage, such outons and squashes? and shall we this region Besides, this is a continuous wall, not have potators for ourselves and our neightwo miles of which at least is higher than the born, if wa should only be so blessed as to have are goue to the far hunting ground," she musland. The top of the wall is level, while the Why, Carrie,' said be, taking the soft hand a spirit that might, had it been allowed to sym. anv?' land is undulating, so the wall is in some places " He bever forgives " Then suddenly star. two feet, and in others ten feet high. These in his, that was putting back the bair, smoothly, rocks, many of them at least, must have been from his forehead, 'one would think we had brought a long distance-probably five or ten miles In Wright coupty, the lost rocks are nothing but blessings, to hear you tell the story." him down like the withered tree that shuts out 'And I am not done yet; I think I have a scattered pretty freely; but as you approach this blessed listle home here in this clean, sweet lake they disappear, showing that they have been pleasant cabin, and the blessedest good, kind gathered by some agency, when or by whom, hishusband in this pleasant world, if he would not the remain a place to remain, Tah a was sa will throw his tomahawk into his in the ground are grawing up through the wall, tory will never unfold. Some of the largest oaks get the blues, and threaten to leave this beautiful land, and go back to New York, every time pushing the rocks in, in some cases -outside in the wind blows the wrong way Aye, George, Dos't get discouraged;' all well yet go well, and others, accommodating their shapes to the rocks. Not long was Marcus left in doubt as to the The lake abounds with excellent fish. The land we shall bless the day that we stuck our stakes futcutions of his ettemy. Numbers of the paintin that township yet belongs to the government. on the prairie.' When I was there, in the spring of 1856, the "Well, I suppose I shall have to stay, whether wind had blown a large piece of ice against the it is best or not, you are so determined to be looked forth threateningly upon him. Go where he would, do what he would, there seemed to be blessed with everything; but women folks don't down, so that the water was running out and have to suffer as men do flooding the farms of some of the settlers, and Carrie smiled to herself, as she t.ok her babo ment Still he did not heed them. With a wary they were about to repair the wall to protect upon her breast, and remembered the hours of minister was constantly preaching, praying, and their crops. It is a beautiful farm hand nearly toil and trial through which she had passed, of exorting upon political issues-and his deacons the nights of wearisome watching and care, and laymen followed suit at the prayer and con. A Mormon with his Wives and Babies En change A week had thus passed, and no deciall around this lovely lake. The readers of the Gazette should not imagine of the days of censeless exertions, often when ference meetings. Finally, a worthy old farmer, searcely able to bear the fatigue. But she did one of the staunchest and best members of the that the wall around this lake is as regular and Mississippi, he perceived the treacherous Ta-haas nice as the wall around the Fountain in front not feel to murmur. There was to her a joy in church, and a firm, undeviating Democrat, was of the City Hall in New York, nor need any enintention of abstracting his rifle, Springing to daty, in being true and carnest in working out was called upon to offer a prayer, which he did as tertain the theory that it is a natural wall; but one's destiny. That made all the hours and days follows: the shore he caught the Indian in the very fact. it has been built hundreds, and probably thou-Seising his weapon he presented it at the breast worth living, though there was here and there, sands of years. The antiquarian may speculate by whom this mighty as well as ornamental work was done, but it will only be speculation. as abe looked over the past, dark shadows flitting which has received Thy protecting support to and fro, like the cloud shades over the billowy ever since the great Jeffertonian struggle. "Pog of a Dacutah" he cried "back to your prairies, while the sun gilded all the rest with Continue to bless the old party which has, under people ! Are you not a thieving Sioux. Be-We Notwithstanding the water in the lake is pure ightness Thy protection and providence, brought great Long and carnestly they est and chatted at the bleasings upon this Republic. If it be Thy pleas and cool, there is no visible feeder or outlet .--are not friends, and if we meet again blood may This lake is about twelve miles north of the lo abin door, and her genele words and kindly en- nre, and I believe it will be, O carry that party cated line of the Dubuque and Pacific railroad, couragements lifted up his heart, and he rose on through this struggle to a complete triamph. " 'Tis the white man's blood that Tah awa-sa and about one hundred and fifty miles cast of the morrow, and went forth to his work with a the former place. The time is coming when the renewed resolution to struggle and to conquer ' lake will be a great place of public recort.

'Yes, Carrie, Dick is a blossing.' 'And is not Carrie a blossing?' abe added, as she left the warm kiss of affection upon his brainess, and righted up in a few days what he in a few days what he bad, in his monients of dispondency, set down as an utterly bankrupt concern. There is many a man was sinks down in help-old fool, enybow, and marm allers said so when stifling down his emotions and clearing his throat he warn't about,)then I put on the gears, an' out mi recollect, that the occupation | twined her arms around his neck and imprinted They may not, however, be con- berself to her full height she exclaimed and with which the pioneers of i its now generally termed, the but I will sooper go to my resting place in Man-Their Chiefs, Wab a shaw, iton's bosom, than live in bia wigwam I am Loo.ta-mahaand others, for a time yours forever."

was not until the U. S. troops She took back the kiss she had given, with inteist Fort Ripley on the Minnesota rest 194-Marcus Cooley, then some ed ears of age, left his home in Verred for the far west. He was a ting up again, she continued "You have the surbut hopes, untiring energy, arm of strength, and the courage of the brave?" Beiston By degrees ho worked his. If he comes here it is only to entrap you. Cut as Western States "prospecting," wantil he had reached the borders your view from the prospect beyond. You must Massissippi, above the Falls of St. show no mercy for he will show none to you. In hat he found a place to suit bim. - a moment, when the back of the stranger is turned the destiny that fate had in store brain Remember!" Away sped the glad maiden. vieting a "claim" he propeeded to of his og-hut, and the improvement Some three weeks after his arrival. day startled by the appearance of a. ed warriors were daily seen around his clearing. From beneath the dark underwood, darker eyes as girl at the door of his honse --

i kin iness he beckoned to her to moment she perceived his eyes the started like the timid fuwn, a hundred eyes fastened upon his every movemirpths of the forest. The next while came again, until his man eye, and careful observation he noticed every cross the threshold and stand a while engaged in his homely ded demonstration had been made. One morn-At last she accepted from him ing while bathing early in the calm water of the a which she looked long and ad "suchug face, that it briliantly wa-sa steal down to the bank, with the evident Det be gave ber some trinkets, all Fall receive with gay laughter. * fin the little trappings, she would " pavel neer, to see ber image in its of the warrior.

and her visits become, that he had uper bir One day she failed to gone I say, and come no more to my hut. mance The West was all aglow aut brev, and the sun was just sink | be shed " then another figure throw its subtrior of his humble home. | would have The stranger's scalp must hang and discover. d a warrior, dressed here at the belt of the brave." the manner of the Dacotah war. There flashed in the rising sunbeam the glitter of a tomshawk With a deadly sim the Indian threw it full at the head of Cooley. A slight

-aud Marcus : The stranger. iah a wassa the Black-wing-of-thun if all the Rigwam of the pale refraud. The brave of many The white man escaped, but the next moment "I up to the stranger that has the warrior was rolling upon the ground in the the heart of Mah le too-ah, the agonics of death Cooley's bullet had not missed ur pof the Dacotabe?--- Umph !" | its mark. s come ist me have your hand in

Then uprose on the air the yells of a hundred aul I saw her here I would be light onstume and stood waiting for the coming and an your tribe event There were loud calls, among the Inmachines, when from the dark dians, as if from lip to lip ran the summons to "frag where Manitou's fire is the spot. In a few moments more, from every the 'r un the Rad river of the direction appeared the red denisen's of the for a down upon us, to destroy with est Stealthily they approached. There was a and with their bard hearts. The terror in the manner with which the white man tent of the Red man." the Red man." was regarded as he stood there proudly, undaulity replied Cooley "I come ed and defiant. As they closed upon him the the land true I hold neither Snow-drop, rushed into their midst, and throwir trand Peace is my wish, ing herself into the arms of her white lover to be first blow that shall turned towards the approaching numbers. With hab ever speaks fair, but like the With forvid elogaence she held then spell bound "b stream, te his words. Beneath She might have triumphed had not a new charthe prestation of the second part of the second part of the second. This is a second presented bimself upon the second. This "aghe, conceased. I know your was Wab-a-shaw, the head chief of the tribe and to violate any rule, air; I will go to the gallery;" " auguage-I know to , how the mighty warrier of them all. Over his broad and the brave old man whose name is synopymous movement of the body, and the weapon was bur:

ied beneath the silent waters of the river beyoud.

General Scott:

"At an euchre party an evening or two capacious shoulder, and scross his breast, hung a with the military glory of the United States, line tave I over offended ing tomahawk was in his belt of wampum. He seat in the crowded gallery, alone and unnoticed. ^{be} then, is not peaceable! What | rich, and elaborately worked blanket A glitter was a noble specimen of the brave Sachems of the Meiting Snow drop, should fild Striding up to the dead body of the Indian as promised to come to the wig- he uttered one sad ery, then motioned to his ago, one of the members indulged pretty freely "a tile bis squaw, to be the people to remove the copps of their kinsman. in milk with whisky in it. Indeed, he overload When last I whisp red iffe giared flereely upon the young adventurer, ar the love may of our tribe who had so unfortunately invoked vengeance had to leave the room for the purpose of 'casting ed his stomach; and as a natural consequence t eyes Or the spray he addressed Cooley. dark eyes Once like the spray he addressed Cooley.

5

sur danced in the light of her "You have come to the haunts of the red-Now, like the shadow in the man to murder and destroy! When yout are "Shall I assist you?" said his friend, com-Now, like the shadow in the man to murder and destroy! When yout are is a darkness above her brow. first resounded through these woods, my people miserating his pitiable condition.

The House has lately adopted a resolution outting off from the privilege of the floor all persons the hundreds of children, to teach them of the their fanatical and injurious political schere except Justices of the Supreme Court, Governors mysteries of science, and put into their hands mes, if it will be thy will to do so, as I veryly be. of the States, officers of the House, &c. Yesterthat weapon of defence and power for the future, lieve it is. Be on the side of Democracy, O Lord a good common school education? Do you see as thou hast been for the last fifty years, and on day, while the House was in session, a tall, stonty they bot that the Indian maiden infuriated savages. Cooley hastily resumed his gray haired old man dressed in very blain clothes yon imposing building in the distance, with its the 4th of March next we shall witness the inau. approached the principal entrance of the ball, and evidently not aware of the new arrangement, lege. Mark those Church spires, that point stiempted to enter. He was stopped by the doorheavenward; liston to the busy hum of machinery, keeper, who inquired if he was a Chief Justice the mill and the factory, the bustle of trade or a Governor. "No, sir, but by resolution of Have you taken it all in? Congress I am entiled to the privilege of the floor."

Now look again. See you that matronly woman "Are you an officer of the army?" asked the doorkeeper, looking with some doubt at the stal- left a foot print. The glossy hair show no minwart old man. "I am, sir, my name is Soott- ging of silver; the rose has not faded from the Winfield Scott, of the United States army."- obeek, though its badding brightness has expan - political associations. Let us hear something of ficulties in Utah, and the elderly ladies present feed you." The manner of the doorkseper underwent an in- ded into full bloom, and the red at the heart is Thy word and merey on the Sabbath. We have were his six wives, and the thirty children were "And I stantaneous change, as he very politely informed not quite so deep; the voice is still soft, and the stready been plied to fulness with political fa. a portion of his progeny. the Gen. of the repeal of the resolution, which langh silvery and cheerful. the Gen. of the repeal of the resolution, which laugh silvery and cheerful. gave him a right to the floor. "But." said he.

'Don't get discouraged, George; all will yet pass in Gen. I will take the responsibility mycome out right.' self." "No, sir," was the answer, "I do not wish

'Iv'e not heard anything else but don't now, after all my struggling.' . 'It is very unpleasant to be sure; but you remember how often, when we lived in the let them take cars of him, and provide us with a of Cleveland ladies, as they would gaze and stare ened to leave and go back to the old haunts?" 'What if the company should fail shall we abundane, in such a time of trists as this, we lose powerful pressure and misfortune, by cold words of reproach and murmuring, has been driven from where else; for you resist the prayers of Deacon the paths of duty and honesty to crime, in. sanity and even suicide; many an one, too, by recklessness and wild speculation, by spurning all I told him that it was not fair to take shap judg. sanity and even suicide; many an one, too, by section, and you must go with me; you are mine. recklessness and wild speculation, by spurning all I told him that it was not fair to take snap judg. I told him that it was not fair to take snap judg. I told him that it was not fair to take snap judg. a sufferer in all his mistakes, has worn ont a fullow in that style for I had not got faithful and cheerful heart, and brought upon for my family to live on. But the devil kept the told him rite strate. He reared pathize and oheer, have staid his strengthened of life, and gone down with him, in trusting faith and love, to the end of the earth's pilgrim.

age, blessing and being blessed. In these times of trouble, let wives be cheer. and husbands fail not to trust and honor them with confidence and love.

..... How a Church was cured of Premontism.

The Hartiord Times relates the following, and ouches for its truth -----

" A Congressional church in a neighboring State you; and don't you'think the poor Devil set right tention was given to religous questions. The with me

'O Lord uphold the old Democratic party, on all fitting occasions.

Bless James Buchanan, the tried and pat up at the same house thing, if that wus what he wus arter, for there's house the dining room hary a hoss ever fooled durned fool enough to bonest statesman, and guide him safely naturally attracted great attention, and many to the Presidential chair. Bless John C. Breez. were the inquiries made in reference to them, Let us skin over the score of voars. Do you inridge, the young and sealous Domoerat, see those fine brick school houses, with their Give them victory. O bless the opponents of blfries and clear sounding bells, calling together Democracy personally, but utterly destroy > massive walls and towering roof? That is a col- guration of Pennsylvania's favorite son, and the people of this country will once more settle down in their peaceful pursuits instead of waring wick. in their aspect, who were evidently a good deal edly, section against section, interest against in.

fulness, and turning them, unhappily, into mere edly guided to victory, and sustained in the es-the hands of the Federal or Abolition party, and art to rule, I shall claim one half of the time in behalf of the Democratic party, so that there may "This was a stumper. It was the first prayer ever offered publicly in that house for the suc- ter finally exploded and there was a general scat-inning "This dream seems like a reality more than a dream. I'thought I was going bridle, and totin' the gopher plow on my bome late one night, and on the mountain met ga" When we come to the fence, I let down a the Devil. He came up behind me and laid his lep; that made dad mad, he wanted to jump the less despondence, for the want of a pleasant word great haw upon my shoulder and said B you and cheering look; many an one, in a time of must go with me; I told nime is a prepared. into the gopher, and away we want, and leanin for ard to his pullin' right peart; and we made He said you will never be prepared to go any sharp plowin', dad goin' right over the bushes au sprouts same as a real hoss, the only difference bimself the torture of a wailing and tried spirit his grip on my shoulder, and it aches at this and kicked once or twice, and fotched a equeal that goaded him through all his future years- minute. I said let us reason the case, for you wus nor any horse in the deestrict, an' sot into runnin' away jist as natural as ever you seed. "I let go the plow and hollerd won, dad, woal but ye mout us well said won to a boomestive.--how, for he could do any thing he had a mind Jewhillikins how he run When he came to a bush he'd clear it, gopher and all; per'ups he tho't there mout be another settlement of bald hornets in it, and that wus safer to go over than thru, an' quicker dun. Every now and then he'd paw one side of his head with fust one fore leg and then tother; then he'd gin himself an open hand. ed slap, that sounded like a wagon whip, and runnin' all the time, and carryin' that gopher jist about as fast and high from the yearth as that the Devil had me sure. So I said getting ever a gopher was carried, I swar. When he desperate, sit down here and tell me more lies oum to the fence he busted rite thru it. tarin' than Descon 8 ---- ever did, and I will go with nigh onto seven panels, scatterin' and breakin' the rails mightily; and here he laft the gopher, get so completely enlisted in the presidential down and cried! That dream, Gentlemen, and gears, swingletrees and klevis, all mixed up, not contest, for Fremont and Jessio, that little at the pain in my shoulder is what is the matter with a durn; most of his shirt stuck to the bro wath a durn; most of his shirt stuck to the bro." ken end of a splintered rail, and night up to a piat o'hornets staid with the shirt, a stingin' it all over-the balance on 'em about a gallou and a half, kept on with dad. He seemed to run iift adsactly as fast as a hornet could fly for it was the tightest race I ever did sec: down thru the A good Mormon story is told by a friend of grass they all went, the horuets sorter makin' it ours now traveling in the West, looking after the look like smoke all around dad's head, and he commercial increases of the house with which he with nothin' on but the bridle, and nigh onto is connected, and who possesses a large fund of yard o'plow line sailin' behind him. I seed he shy wit, which is brought admirably into play was aimin' for the awimmin' hole in the oreck. what the bluff is over twenty feet perpendicular

MAX.

While stopping a abort time since at a hotel to the water, and it's nigh onto ten deep. To in Cloveland, Obio, it happeneds that the Marsh Keep up his character as a hoss, when he got to Children, a tronp of juvenile commedians famili the bluff he jist leaped off, or rather, he jist kept iar to us all, numbering 28 or 30, arrived and on rannin'. Now right thar, boys, he ourdid the the blaff he jist leaped off, or rather, he jist kept thing, if that wus what he wus arter, for there's leap ever sich a place; a mule mont have done it but dad warn't actin' mule. I crept up to the edge and looked over. Thay was old dad's bald head, for all the world like a peeled ingun, a bobwho and what they were, where from and wither is' up and down, and a horset a sailin' and cir-They occupied an entire table-all under twolve years of sge, dressed alike, and nearly all clin' round, turkey-bassard fashion, and every girls, with five or six middle aged females-their ones in a while, one, and sometimes ten, 'us make a dip at dad's head. He kept up a peart teachers-sprinkled among them. At the head of the table sat Mr. Marsh himself, grave, solema dodgin' under; sometimes they' hit him and and dignified in manner, a sort of Alexander sometimes they'd hit the water, and the water wie kivered with drowned horaets. Selkirk in a small way, monarch of all he sur-"What on yearth are ye doin' than, dad ! veyed At the table and by the side of Mr. Quiz sat two or three gendlemen somewhat rural mys I.

"" Don't (dip) you see these infernal varmints mystified at the appearance of things, and on (dip) onto me ?

What,' sed I. 'Them are hoss flies 'thar edly, section against section, interest against in. In putting the question of what it meant, they were different what,' sed I. 'Them are hoses fit thready and the constraints' free the Christian church informed that the grave personage at the head ye and't really afeared of them, are ye?'

Hoas flies ? sed dad; they're rale (dip) ginewine bald hornets, you (dip) infernal cuse. "Well, dad, you'll have to stay that till nile, Washington to settle with the President the difficulties in Utab, and the elderly ladies present and arter they go to roost, you come home and Th

"And knowiu' dad's unmodified natur. I broke from them parts and sorter cum to the copper mines. I staid hid about till next arternoon, good look at Marsh, then at the family arrange. when I seed a fellow traveling, and sed I: "What was goin' on at the cabin this side of town itself, was, soon in commetion, all eager the creek, when you passed it ?' "Why, nuthin' much, only a man wus sittin' in the door with nary shirt on, and a woman wus "What disgusting women," exclaims Miss Prim. greasin' his back and arms, and his head was "What an old wretch," responds a whole troupe about as big as a ten gallon keg, and he hadn' the fust sign of an eye-all smooth."

"That man's my dad,' sed L The chidren at last became alarmed-their "Been much fiten in this neighborhood late.

teachers next, and Marsh was quite beside him. ly ?' sed the traveller, dryly. self, not knowing whether to look upon all these

" Nun wath speakin' of, personally or pertie attentions as favorable to his success, or pretend ularly,' sed I. "Now, boys, I hain't seen dad since, and ing something of a more serious nature. The mat-would be afeard to meet him in the next tak years. Lot's drink."

. We are curious to know how many feet

. . .

npon whose brow forty summers, have scarcely es from the political strife and bitterness which of the table was a delegate from Brigham Young, left a foot print. The glossy hair shew no min- are rending them assunder, destroying their use. a prominent and noted Mormon, on his way to beseeh Thee, especially free the Christian oburch.

naticism, and our minister has become a stump orator against the good old party which Thou in Thy wisdom hast held up so long, and so repeat. ments, retired, and the house, as well as the discouraged George, these twenty yeary, Carry; tablishment of sound measures. O, turn his mind, to look upon a true prophet and his barem. "A-I am tired of it. Just think what a fix I am in from these thinge, and direct his attention to his maxing smart children for the kind," says one. religious duties, or turn him over directly into old cabbin here, here on this very spot on the true minister of the Gospel. At any rate the at the Utah saint with all their eyes. lone prarie, you used to feel just so, and threat present state of things cannot last. If politicians be bankrupt? Shall-we complain, if out of our be fair discussion within these walls. Amen!

'Yes, but,' and George, the influential Judge cess of the Democratic party and its nominees, ter unally explosed and there was a general sort-of the county, the owner and indweller of that though hundreds of prayers and exhortations ladies, and hearty gunaws on the part the men beautiful mansion, who held in postestion half had been made igninat that party. When the who were sold. Mr. Marsh determined to show of the great surrounding landscape, the old man had finished, there was allence for half his card—ordered his bills to be immediately steps, through all the changing vicissitudes there in him He said he would have me any ful and ready to bear their part of the burthens. I told him to push over a big tree that grew close and ground it all to powder. I thought of all manner of impossible things, and began to feel know I am pretty good at pettifoging a case be-fore our Esquire, but a devil a bit of reason was

"I said if you will do some things I ask you to do I will go with you. Its a bargain said be. by us, and down the mountain it went, roots and all, more than forty rods. Split that big gran. ite rock, said I, and down came his big iron fist

Route for Washington.

They would then have sent him in the swift - Hic-no-l'll-l'll-bio-l'll ry it alone!" is the swift a lady yet whose shoes were not to make the minister attended to be have been bin in the swift - Hic-no-l'll-l'll-bio-l'll ry it alone!" at his injuries?" * . * (* K)