WASHINGTON, April 1. Mr. Stephens would not now discuss the bill having heard that a substitute was to be submit ted. He gave way to Mr. Montgomery, of Pa. who offered the Crittenden substitute, as amend proposing to admit Kansas into the Union, and that measure and endorse it with whatever of to refer the Licompton Constitution to a vote of authority and influence pertains to them the people; in the event of its rejection by them a Couvention to be called to form a new Constinake. The substitute was its best interpreter. He had furnished copies to some members and was ready to supply the press.

Mr. Quitman, of Miss., offered a substitute which is the same as the Senate bill, with the omission of the declaratory clause that the people shall have the right at all times to alter or amend the Constitution in such manner as they think proper, &c.

Mr Humphrey Marshall wished to amend the original Senute bill, by striking out the same clause which was proposed to be omitted in Mr. Quitman's substitute.

Mr. Stephens retused to yield the floor for that purpose, and demanded the previous question. Mr Marshall wanted Mr. Stephens' refusal o be borne in mind, and entered on the record The question was taken on the adoption of Mr Quitman's substitute, which was negatived.
