

BENJ. F. MOORE, Editor. BLOAN & MOORE, Publishers and Proprietors.

Democratic State Ticket. FOR SUPREME JUDGE. WILLIAM A. PORTER, OF PHILADELPHIA.

FOR CLERK OF COURTS. WESTLEY FROST, OF FAIRVIEW CO.

News of the Week.

The will of the late Joseph Paul, a wealthy farmer of Washington township, Bucks county, is just now the subject of much surprise and comment.

A statement has just been laid before the Senate, which shows how very handsomely the State has been assisted by one of her agents.

Under the authority granted by the Legislature, various commissions have been appointed to investigate the various matters which have come before the Legislature.

Mr. Lovin Fisher, of Newfane, Niagara county, was on examination before Justice Donnelly, of Lockport, N. Y., on Thursday last.

Some shrewd outsiders, in New York, assuming the name of Olyphant, Bartlett & Co., and claiming to be extensive manufacturers of West India coffee, have been for the past month doing a very business in vending country.

A frame broke out on Tuesday night at Harrisburg, in a frame stable attached to McGowan's Hotel, on the corner of Second and Chestnut streets.

On Sunday evening Charles Burkhardt, of Monroe, California, with $2000 in gold dust, was married in Detroit to Miss Mary Miller, daughter of a rich brewer.

The Newark (N. J.) Advertiser says that some of the leading Southern Adventists in that city have again set a period for the destruction of the world.

James R. Wilson, a wandering polygamist, has been arrested at Philadelphia. His mode of operations appears to have been to make the acquaintance of some female who had money, and induce her to marry him.

On Thursday morning of last week, says the Brownsville Times, about a dozen persons, some at work near Wharves' Barn, where the steamer is being repaired.

A man for driver is pending in Rochester, New York, which originated in a dispute between Mr. B. and his wife as to whether they should have had a child.

It is stated, on what appears to be credible authority, that the city of Cincinnati, Ohio, possesses more property than any other city in the United States.

UTAH, NOT KANSAS.

The majority in Congress, particularly that portion of the majority elected as Black Republicans, toward the policy of the Administration in attempting to force the Mormon into submission, attaches the whole weight of its influence to the fact that the President is a Democrat.

The bill of the late Joseph Paul, a wealthy farmer of Washington township, Bucks county, is just now the subject of much surprise and comment.

A statement has just been laid before the Senate, which shows how very handsomely the State has been assisted by one of her agents.

Under the authority granted by the Legislature, various commissions have been appointed to investigate the various matters which have come before the Legislature.

Mr. Lovin Fisher, of Newfane, Niagara county, was on examination before Justice Donnelly, of Lockport, N. Y., on Thursday last.

Some shrewd outsiders, in New York, assuming the name of Olyphant, Bartlett & Co., and claiming to be extensive manufacturers of West India coffee, have been for the past month doing a very business in vending country.

A frame broke out on Tuesday night at Harrisburg, in a frame stable attached to McGowan's Hotel, on the corner of Second and Chestnut streets.

On Sunday evening Charles Burkhardt, of Monroe, California, with $2000 in gold dust, was married in Detroit to Miss Mary Miller, daughter of a rich brewer.

The Newark (N. J.) Advertiser says that some of the leading Southern Adventists in that city have again set a period for the destruction of the world.

James R. Wilson, a wandering polygamist, has been arrested at Philadelphia. His mode of operations appears to have been to make the acquaintance of some female who had money, and induce her to marry him.

NEW YORK.

Business is looking up a little while the country trade is coming in here to some extent and will be down in crowds as navigation opens.

The bill of the late Joseph Paul, a wealthy farmer of Washington township, Bucks county, is just now the subject of much surprise and comment.

A statement has just been laid before the Senate, which shows how very handsomely the State has been assisted by one of her agents.

Under the authority granted by the Legislature, various commissions have been appointed to investigate the various matters which have come before the Legislature.

Mr. Lovin Fisher, of Newfane, Niagara county, was on examination before Justice Donnelly, of Lockport, N. Y., on Thursday last.

Some shrewd outsiders, in New York, assuming the name of Olyphant, Bartlett & Co., and claiming to be extensive manufacturers of West India coffee, have been for the past month doing a very business in vending country.

A frame broke out on Tuesday night at Harrisburg, in a frame stable attached to McGowan's Hotel, on the corner of Second and Chestnut streets.

On Sunday evening Charles Burkhardt, of Monroe, California, with $2000 in gold dust, was married in Detroit to Miss Mary Miller, daughter of a rich brewer.

The Newark (N. J.) Advertiser says that some of the leading Southern Adventists in that city have again set a period for the destruction of the world.

James R. Wilson, a wandering polygamist, has been arrested at Philadelphia. His mode of operations appears to have been to make the acquaintance of some female who had money, and induce her to marry him.

THE PEOPLE OF KANSAS DESIRE ADMISSION.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 29, 1858. To the Editor of the Union:—DEAR SIR: I have received within the past few days eight hundred copies of the Territory, (mostly from State men) all setting forth their anxiety for the speedy admission of Kansas as a State into the Union.

The bill of the late Joseph Paul, a wealthy farmer of Washington township, Bucks county, is just now the subject of much surprise and comment.

A statement has just been laid before the Senate, which shows how very handsomely the State has been assisted by one of her agents.

Under the authority granted by the Legislature, various commissions have been appointed to investigate the various matters which have come before the Legislature.

Mr. Lovin Fisher, of Newfane, Niagara county, was on examination before Justice Donnelly, of Lockport, N. Y., on Thursday last.

Some shrewd outsiders, in New York, assuming the name of Olyphant, Bartlett & Co., and claiming to be extensive manufacturers of West India coffee, have been for the past month doing a very business in vending country.

A frame broke out on Tuesday night at Harrisburg, in a frame stable attached to McGowan's Hotel, on the corner of Second and Chestnut streets.

On Sunday evening Charles Burkhardt, of Monroe, California, with $2000 in gold dust, was married in Detroit to Miss Mary Miller, daughter of a rich brewer.

The Newark (N. J.) Advertiser says that some of the leading Southern Adventists in that city have again set a period for the destruction of the world.

James R. Wilson, a wandering polygamist, has been arrested at Philadelphia. His mode of operations appears to have been to make the acquaintance of some female who had money, and induce her to marry him.

NEW YORK.

Business is looking up a little while the country trade is coming in here to some extent and will be down in crowds as navigation opens.

The bill of the late Joseph Paul, a wealthy farmer of Washington township, Bucks county, is just now the subject of much surprise and comment.

A statement has just been laid before the Senate, which shows how very handsomely the State has been assisted by one of her agents.

Under the authority granted by the Legislature, various commissions have been appointed to investigate the various matters which have come before the Legislature.

Mr. Lovin Fisher, of Newfane, Niagara county, was on examination before Justice Donnelly, of Lockport, N. Y., on Thursday last.

Some shrewd outsiders, in New York, assuming the name of Olyphant, Bartlett & Co., and claiming to be extensive manufacturers of West India coffee, have been for the past month doing a very business in vending country.

A frame broke out on Tuesday night at Harrisburg, in a frame stable attached to McGowan's Hotel, on the corner of Second and Chestnut streets.

On Sunday evening Charles Burkhardt, of Monroe, California, with $2000 in gold dust, was married in Detroit to Miss Mary Miller, daughter of a rich brewer.

The Newark (N. J.) Advertiser says that some of the leading Southern Adventists in that city have again set a period for the destruction of the world.

James R. Wilson, a wandering polygamist, has been arrested at Philadelphia. His mode of operations appears to have been to make the acquaintance of some female who had money, and induce her to marry him.

THE PEOPLE OF KANSAS DESIRE ADMISSION.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 29, 1858. To the Editor of the Union:—DEAR SIR: I have received within the past few days eight hundred copies of the Territory, (mostly from State men) all setting forth their anxiety for the speedy admission of Kansas as a State into the Union.

The bill of the late Joseph Paul, a wealthy farmer of Washington township, Bucks county, is just now the subject of much surprise and comment.

A statement has just been laid before the Senate, which shows how very handsomely the State has been assisted by one of her agents.

Under the authority granted by the Legislature, various commissions have been appointed to investigate the various matters which have come before the Legislature.

Mr. Lovin Fisher, of Newfane, Niagara county, was on examination before Justice Donnelly, of Lockport, N. Y., on Thursday last.

Some shrewd outsiders, in New York, assuming the name of Olyphant, Bartlett & Co., and claiming to be extensive manufacturers of West India coffee, have been for the past month doing a very business in vending country.

A frame broke out on Tuesday night at Harrisburg, in a frame stable attached to McGowan's Hotel, on the corner of Second and Chestnut streets.

On Sunday evening Charles Burkhardt, of Monroe, California, with $2000 in gold dust, was married in Detroit to Miss Mary Miller, daughter of a rich brewer.

The Newark (N. J.) Advertiser says that some of the leading Southern Adventists in that city have again set a period for the destruction of the world.

James R. Wilson, a wandering polygamist, has been arrested at Philadelphia. His mode of operations appears to have been to make the acquaintance of some female who had money, and induce her to marry him.

THE PEOPLE OF KANSAS DESIRE ADMISSION.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 29, 1858. To the Editor of the Union:—DEAR SIR: I have received within the past few days eight hundred copies of the Territory, (mostly from State men) all setting forth their anxiety for the speedy admission of Kansas as a State into the Union.

The bill of the late Joseph Paul, a wealthy farmer of Washington township, Bucks county, is just now the subject of much surprise and comment.

A statement has just been laid before the Senate, which shows how very handsomely the State has been assisted by one of her agents.

Under the authority granted by the Legislature, various commissions have been appointed to investigate the various matters which have come before the Legislature.

Mr. Lovin Fisher, of Newfane, Niagara county, was on examination before Justice Donnelly, of Lockport, N. Y., on Thursday last.

Some shrewd outsiders, in New York, assuming the name of Olyphant, Bartlett & Co., and claiming to be extensive manufacturers of West India coffee, have been for the past month doing a very business in vending country.

A frame broke out on Tuesday night at Harrisburg, in a frame stable attached to McGowan's Hotel, on the corner of Second and Chestnut streets.

On Sunday evening Charles Burkhardt, of Monroe, California, with $2000 in gold dust, was married in Detroit to Miss Mary Miller, daughter of a rich brewer.

The Newark (N. J.) Advertiser says that some of the leading Southern Adventists in that city have again set a period for the destruction of the world.

James R. Wilson, a wandering polygamist, has been arrested at Philadelphia. His mode of operations appears to have been to make the acquaintance of some female who had money, and induce her to marry him.