MONMELY has given to the consolidated work a circulation second to but one amiliar publication in the country, and has secured for it a combination of literary and artistic talent probably unrivaled by any other magnane in the world. During the first month, the sale in the trade and demand from subscribera exceeded work are universally conceded to have surpassed, in the richness of their literary contents, and the beauty and profuseners of their pictorial illustrations, any magnatics were before issued from the American press. Encouraged by these evidences of favor, the publishers have determined to commence the sew volumes in January with still additional attractions, and to offer such indecements to subscribers as cannot fail to place it, in circulation, at the head of American magnatics. I am never received with indifference anywhers, for the first thing I do is to anroll my engraving before I let anybedy know what I am after, and thus I get them interested before they know what a splended effer I am going to make them. Sometimes they ask my price for the engraving and I tell them $A, and when I offer them the engraving and Magazine one year for three dollars they are perfectly astonished.
