Publisher, No. 48 North Fourth St., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
CAUTION. The attention of the Publisher has been called to sparious editions of this work, put forth as "Marmitres of Dr. Livingstone's Travels in Africa." Ours is the only cheap Asparious Edition of this great work published, and contains all the imperious matter of the English Edition which is sold at $6; for the truth of this assertion, we refer to the following notices from some of the most respectable journals in the country:

Notices of the Press.

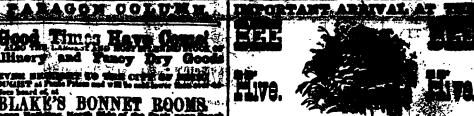

With truth we can say, that saidon is presented to the reading public, a work containing such a vest amongst of said instruction as the one in question. The volume is bindisonely illustrated, and presents that sucpes appearance of exploter for which Mr. Bradley's publications are noted.—Fundly Magazine.

In this volume we have presented input the whole of Dr. Livingstone's Travela, omitting only mismetific disails.—Medical and Surgical Reporter.

Let. The general reader will profer this to the English edition, especially as the coast is so triding.—Funna. Angular.

—Appear to great advantage in this edition, which is nedoubtedly the edition and summersumble to the reader who reads for practical instruction and ammersumble to the randor who reads for practical instruction and ammersument.—Silverday Peet. turns.
A special value is given to this values, by the addition of "Historical Notices, of Discoveries in Affect," and taken alteriates it would be difficult to mane any publication which more completely most the popular factors of our time for modifier, suffer which is strange, now, the school halfs for the for modifier, suffer which is dirange, now, the school halfs for of conficient, suffer publish in things and instead our phote of model is necessarily property. It takes the whole story, insign out digmention and opinion.
