"WHAT'S IN A NAME?"-Everything we may say Charles Lamb understood this matter when, speaking of giving children ugly Christian names, he said . "Don't Nicodemus s man into nothing" A boy's name has more to do with his happiness and prosperity than we are ant to imagine. A diminutive, ill sounding cog nomen has kept many a poor fellow in the back. ground all his days And an unlucky nickname, applied to the wearer by the caprice or malice of his fellows, not unfrequently affects his pe ceand respectability through life. We once knew n man whose rent bons fide name was "Stuffe Sickle" He was called "Stuff Pickit," for short. Wel', what of him? He was a "no body," of course, and his whole history "uix" Reader! if you are young (above hope y u are,) and married (as you ought to be,) and should have some and daughters it is not a that much depends on naming them properly ... Beware it top-heavy names -such as Byron, and Washing ton, and Shakspeare - which only serve to belittle the wearer Better by half call them all John and Mary, and then number them, as they do steamboats in the West Give them good, plain, manly, spelling book titles, and then af any man "nicknames" your child, prosecute him for slander

TERRIBLE ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE -The Buffalo Republic has the following: A young man, attempted to commit suicide at the house of Mr about 25 years of age, named Edward Collins, Marsh, on Carroll street He had been writing disposal letters all day up to 4 o'clock, at which time he drank from a tumbler a large swallow—nearly LOW FOR CABIL.

Raw eggs to the number of thirty were given the young man, and he soon vomited the acid, the fumes of which were very power: ful. His lips, tongue, mouth and stomach are completely excoriated. Last night he was very low, and not expected to live. This morning he is much better, with good pulse; and hopes are sentained of his recovery. The cause which led to this foolish act was jealousy of his wife, to the National Intelligencer says that Washington Irving, in his Life of Washington, page 453, vol in the Continenial Congress, the honor of having nominated Washington for the Commander-in-Chief. The election was by ballot, and was unanimous. Bancroft, in his last volume, page 393, be says: "Thomas of Maryland, nominated George Washington, and as he had been brought for ward at the particular request of the people in New England, he was elected by ballot unanimously.

By a typographical oversight the name of Johnson was omitted after the Christian name, Thomas, in Mr. Bancroft's work. It should have read "Thomas Johnson, of Maryland." John Adams claimed the credit of first suggesting the prepared to execute Picturer of all styles and works.

the contest came off in a rat pit rear the corner of Third and Sycamore streets, about which a number of the "fancy" had assembled to witness the "sport" The man and the dog were placed in the ring, and both went to their work energetically and bravely. The human creature, A manning would snatch up the rate in his hands, and, bit- FAMILY ing them across the back of the neck and spine, precisely as the terrier, kill them at once Both did well, but the man killed his twelve rats just as the dog had finished his tenth When the Scotchman came out of the ring be was covered with blood, and his hands were bitten in variousplaces, but he seemed to care nothing for his A THANSON'S wounds, after having obtained a triumph over

"Sound on THE GOOSE"-The Lafayette Argus relates the following, which, we take it, is AT HANSON a severe and cutting rebuke to that political priest and pious politician, Ray T L Breckin

Breckinridge met a member of the Old School Presbyterian church, the other day, who inquired of him whether he had called on Rev Mr. Allen, the new pastor of that church. Mr B. said be had not, and inquired of this member whether Mr Allen was "sound on the goose?" "What goose?" inquired the member

"The slavery goose," said B; "you know be is a Kentuckian."

"I do not know how sound he may be on your goose," said the member, "but I am satisfied he sound on Jesus Christ."
