

Democratic State Ticket. WILLIAM A. PORTER, OF PHILADELPHIA. WESTLEY FROST, OF FAYETTE CO.

News of the Week.

On Monday last we saw the Northern Central Railroad... The Erie Railroad, which this year on an extended chain of roads, via Williamsport, Elmira, etc., to Buffalo and Niagara.

Two young men from Wheeling, Va., attempted to land a young man in a buggy, on the 5th, found the water too deep, and the buggy getting fast on the rocky bottom, they stepped to the river to release their vehicle.

The opposition papers are filled with presidential speculations. The New York Express thinks this to be ascribed to the "proclivities of the American mind always to be engaged in the agitation of some topics of public interest connected with political men and subjects."

Gen. Lane, of Kansas, has been acquitted by the examining magistrates of the charge of murder in killing Col. Jenkins, and discharged. The decision is generally disapproved by the people of Kansas.

Next on the list, and the only other prominent name is that of Messrs. H. W. Walker, Esq., of this city, who is a lawyer, and a very able one.

The Kansas Daily Ledger expresses deep regrets that Mr. Deaver proposes to resign his position as Governor of that Territory about the first of August next.

Fanny Ferry boldly confesses that, in the recent rainy spell, which made walking so unpalatable, she had donned a full suit of the male variety's habiliments, and that equipped took a long evening walk, to her utmost comfort and satisfaction.

John Morrisey, the pugilist, thinks that Canada is the only place where a fight could take place without interruption. In a published card he says "I once fought in the United States for a thousand dollars a side, and the get that up and down the States."

The Albany Democrat says "It is a curious fact that every general election in the American army of the revolution was a Free Mason, except Benedict Arnold."

THE CONGRESSIONAL CAVALRY.

This district, since the late war, has been a political arena, and every interest which may be felt in the result of the election this Fall has been keenly felt.

After the late war, the district has been a political arena, and every interest which may be felt in the result of the election this Fall has been keenly felt.

After the late war, the district has been a political arena, and every interest which may be felt in the result of the election this Fall has been keenly felt.

After the late war, the district has been a political arena, and every interest which may be felt in the result of the election this Fall has been keenly felt.

After the late war, the district has been a political arena, and every interest which may be felt in the result of the election this Fall has been keenly felt.

After the late war, the district has been a political arena, and every interest which may be felt in the result of the election this Fall has been keenly felt.

After the late war, the district has been a political arena, and every interest which may be felt in the result of the election this Fall has been keenly felt.

After the late war, the district has been a political arena, and every interest which may be felt in the result of the election this Fall has been keenly felt.

After the late war, the district has been a political arena, and every interest which may be felt in the result of the election this Fall has been keenly felt.

After the late war, the district has been a political arena, and every interest which may be felt in the result of the election this Fall has been keenly felt.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

Thickly, under the auspices of the Republican State Convention, met at Buffalo on Wednesday.

Thickly, under the auspices of the Republican State Convention, met at Buffalo on Wednesday.

Thickly, under the auspices of the Republican State Convention, met at Buffalo on Wednesday.

Thickly, under the auspices of the Republican State Convention, met at Buffalo on Wednesday.

Thickly, under the auspices of the Republican State Convention, met at Buffalo on Wednesday.

Thickly, under the auspices of the Republican State Convention, met at Buffalo on Wednesday.

Thickly, under the auspices of the Republican State Convention, met at Buffalo on Wednesday.

Thickly, under the auspices of the Republican State Convention, met at Buffalo on Wednesday.

Thickly, under the auspices of the Republican State Convention, met at Buffalo on Wednesday.

Thickly, under the auspices of the Republican State Convention, met at Buffalo on Wednesday.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Any of our subscribers who may be troubled with too much money, and an excellent place to put it, by investing it in the Erie Railroad.

The Erie Railroad, which this year on an extended chain of roads, via Williamsport, Elmira, etc., to Buffalo and Niagara.

Two young men from Wheeling, Va., attempted to land a young man in a buggy, on the 5th, found the water too deep, and the buggy getting fast on the rocky bottom, they stepped to the river to release their vehicle.

The opposition papers are filled with presidential speculations. The New York Express thinks this to be ascribed to the "proclivities of the American mind always to be engaged in the agitation of some topics of public interest connected with political men and subjects."

Gen. Lane, of Kansas, has been acquitted by the examining magistrates of the charge of murder in killing Col. Jenkins, and discharged. The decision is generally disapproved by the people of Kansas.

Next on the list, and the only other prominent name is that of Messrs. H. W. Walker, Esq., of this city, who is a lawyer, and a very able one.

The Kansas Daily Ledger expresses deep regrets that Mr. Deaver proposes to resign his position as Governor of that Territory about the first of August next.

Fanny Ferry boldly confesses that, in the recent rainy spell, which made walking so unpalatable, she had donned a full suit of the male variety's habiliments, and that equipped took a long evening walk, to her utmost comfort and satisfaction.

John Morrisey, the pugilist, thinks that Canada is the only place where a fight could take place without interruption. In a published card he says "I once fought in the United States for a thousand dollars a side, and the get that up and down the States."

The Albany Democrat says "It is a curious fact that every general election in the American army of the revolution was a Free Mason, except Benedict Arnold."

NEW YORK.

How doth the city of Albany that was full of people? They are arrested, and the streets are full of people.

The Erie Railroad, which this year on an extended chain of roads, via Williamsport, Elmira, etc., to Buffalo and Niagara.

Two young men from Wheeling, Va., attempted to land a young man in a buggy, on the 5th, found the water too deep, and the buggy getting fast on the rocky bottom, they stepped to the river to release their vehicle.

The opposition papers are filled with presidential speculations. The New York Express thinks this to be ascribed to the "proclivities of the American mind always to be engaged in the agitation of some topics of public interest connected with political men and subjects."

Gen. Lane, of Kansas, has been acquitted by the examining magistrates of the charge of murder in killing Col. Jenkins, and discharged. The decision is generally disapproved by the people of Kansas.

Next on the list, and the only other prominent name is that of Messrs. H. W. Walker, Esq., of this city, who is a lawyer, and a very able one.

The Kansas Daily Ledger expresses deep regrets that Mr. Deaver proposes to resign his position as Governor of that Territory about the first of August next.

Fanny Ferry boldly confesses that, in the recent rainy spell, which made walking so unpalatable, she had donned a full suit of the male variety's habiliments, and that equipped took a long evening walk, to her utmost comfort and satisfaction.

John Morrisey, the pugilist, thinks that Canada is the only place where a fight could take place without interruption. In a published card he says "I once fought in the United States for a thousand dollars a side, and the get that up and down the States."

The Albany Democrat says "It is a curious fact that every general election in the American army of the revolution was a Free Mason, except Benedict Arnold."

NEW YORK.

How doth the city of Albany that was full of people? They are arrested, and the streets are full of people.

The Erie Railroad, which this year on an extended chain of roads, via Williamsport, Elmira, etc., to Buffalo and Niagara.

Two young men from Wheeling, Va., attempted to land a young man in a buggy, on the 5th, found the water too deep, and the buggy getting fast on the rocky bottom, they stepped to the river to release their vehicle.

The opposition papers are filled with presidential speculations. The New York Express thinks this to be ascribed to the "proclivities of the American mind always to be engaged in the agitation of some topics of public interest connected with political men and subjects."

Gen. Lane, of Kansas, has been acquitted by the examining magistrates of the charge of murder in killing Col. Jenkins, and discharged. The decision is generally disapproved by the people of Kansas.

Next on the list, and the only other prominent name is that of Messrs. H. W. Walker, Esq., of this city, who is a lawyer, and a very able one.

The Kansas Daily Ledger expresses deep regrets that Mr. Deaver proposes to resign his position as Governor of that Territory about the first of August next.

Fanny Ferry boldly confesses that, in the recent rainy spell, which made walking so unpalatable, she had donned a full suit of the male variety's habiliments, and that equipped took a long evening walk, to her utmost comfort and satisfaction.

John Morrisey, the pugilist, thinks that Canada is the only place where a fight could take place without interruption. In a published card he says "I once fought in the United States for a thousand dollars a side, and the get that up and down the States."

The Albany Democrat says "It is a curious fact that every general election in the American army of the revolution was a Free Mason, except Benedict Arnold."

Later from California.

The steamer Star of the West arrived in New York on the 17th inst. She has 1200 passengers and 2500 packages.

The Erie Railroad, which this year on an extended chain of roads, via Williamsport, Elmira, etc., to Buffalo and Niagara.

Two young men from Wheeling, Va., attempted to land a young man in a buggy, on the 5th, found the water too deep, and the buggy getting fast on the rocky bottom, they stepped to the river to release their vehicle.

The opposition papers are filled with presidential speculations. The New York Express thinks this to be ascribed to the "proclivities of the American mind always to be engaged in the agitation of some topics of public interest connected with political men and subjects."

Gen. Lane, of Kansas, has been acquitted by the examining magistrates of the charge of murder in killing Col. Jenkins, and discharged. The decision is generally disapproved by the people of Kansas.

Next on the list, and the only other prominent name is that of Messrs. H. W. Walker, Esq., of this city, who is a lawyer, and a very able one.

The Kansas Daily Ledger expresses deep regrets that Mr. Deaver proposes to resign his position as Governor of that Territory about the first of August next.

Fanny Ferry boldly confesses that, in the recent rainy spell, which made walking so unpalatable, she had donned a full suit of the male variety's habiliments, and that equipped took a long evening walk, to her utmost comfort and satisfaction.

John Morrisey, the pugilist, thinks that Canada is the only place where a fight could take place without interruption. In a published card he says "I once fought in the United States for a thousand dollars a side, and the get that up and down the States."

The Albany Democrat says "It is a curious fact that every general election in the American army of the revolution was a Free Mason, except Benedict Arnold."