Letters from Utah up to July 10th confirm previous advices, and describe the return of the Mormons from Provo to Salt Lake City. With their limited means of transportation, at least a month must clapse before they can get back again and be settled. Governor Cumming continues to be treated with the greatest possible consideration by the Mormons, whereas the other Gentiles are left severely alone, and are compelled to sleep out of doors in ambulances or wherever they can find a shelter. The correspondent of the Times says that Brigham Young and his people are very anxious for admission into the Union, and are exerting every effort to accomplish that result. They and quality of the dust as equal maintain that it is their constitutional right to be admitted, and they desire it, so that they can make a law legalizing polygamy, and placing it within the charmed circle of "States Rights."

> GARBLING THE SCRIPTURES. - Horace Greey, in a lecture on the sin of coveting Cuba says: If any of our readers are infected with the Cuba fever, or are in danger of catching it, we will thank them to take down their Bibles, and read, thoughtfully, from Exodus xx, 17, that commandment which runs thus : 'THOU SHALT NOT COVET thy neighbor's house, nor his wife, nor > his ox, not anything that is thy neighbor's." Our sharp cotemporary of the Petersburg Erpress takes up him of the white hat for his ignorance of the Bible, and says there must have been poor Sunday schools where he was brought Let us, says the Express, enlighten his benighted mind by informing him how this divine law does run, (Exodus xx, 17,) placing in ital. us some of his remarkable omissions from it:

"Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man servant, nor his maid servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's." Horace remembers or respects only what suits his creed While the Express had its hand in, it might also have reminded Greely of that other commandment, which says: Thou shalt not the commandment is the commandment in the commandment. u.i. Mr. Lomer, who was arrested it might also have reminded Greely of that other the by the Peruvian government on commandment, which says: "Thou shalt not
