THE LOST MEXICAN CITY.

A large city once stood here, its name is lost, its history unknown. For centuries it has been completely buried as with the lava of Vesuvius.

FEMALE HEROISM.

A number of years ago, a woman of the name of Isabel Lucas kept a small lodging-house in the southern suburbs of Edinburgh.

heard the sound of an old man walking along the passage with a silver canister which at once brought to her recollection her departed father.

She sank into her chair; the sounds died away in the distance; and almost at that minute her husband came in to cheer her, calling to the servant as he passed, in his loud and boisterous way, that she had stupidly left the outer door open.

Social Life in Germany.

A traveler who spends but a few days in a place, and then proceeds on his way, has very little opportunity of becoming acquainted with the social habits of a people.
