From the Ottowa (Illinois) Eree Trader PURSUIT OF A TRUANT HUSBAND.

For the last four years there has resided in this city, with occasional intervals, one "Dr. Askenazi, Hungarian physician"-a small man, of ill-favored yet strongly marked Jewish coun-tenance-speaking English and several other European Eanguages very brokenly, claiming to have been a surgeon in the Hungarian patriot army in 1848, and to have come to this country with Kossuth, but by his vernacular betraying that he was originally either from Poland or Southern Russia His mode of life was in the highest degree parsimonious-occopying gener-ally a small, cheap room, which answered as well for his office as dormitory and kitchen, in which he prepared his own meals. Among his intimates, who were very few, he passed as a man of great learning, and by those with whom he prac- SPRING BEDS. ticed, as a physician or surgeon, he was regarded as a man of great professional skill.

"Dr. Askenzai, Hungarian, was thus getting along smoothly and prosperously, until some ten days ago, when his dream of repose was very ANOTHER ABRIVAL BY CARS, NOV. 1st. materially interrupted by the arrival of a lady in this city, who claimed to be his lawful, wedded sponse-who made upon him in that character, certain mighty claims, and preferred against him certain weighty charges, the effect of which have been to place this little "Doctor" in limbo from that day to this. The lady baving proved the identity of her man, sought a legal adviser, in which she made substantially the following state. ment:

Some twenty years ago, then a lass of fifteen summers-the favorite of her, parents, who were in easy circumstances, living in the village of Kreens, (Krasnor?) Russia, near the borders of Poland-a Jewess-she made the acquaintance of a young man-poor, but distinguished for his learning and piety, named Asbur Seltzar. He had been educated for a rabbi, and had so greatly won the esteem and confidence of the chief rabbi of the place, that he was frequently en. trusted with the administration of the (Jewish) laws in his (the chief rabbi's) absence. Her parents and all parties assenting, she was married to the learned young rabbi.

On their marrioge, her parents gave them a marriage portion of about $1,000, on which they lived about a year at Kreeus, when the young rabbi suddenly disappeared, and was gone some three years before she ascertained his wherea. bouts. Finally, she heard of him at Danjzie, in Prussis, whither she followed him, found him, and returned with him to Serai, in Poland .-Here they lived together another year, during which a child was born to them. When the child was some three months old, they went on a visit to her mother at Kreena-remained there a few weeks, then started back for Serai. Ar riving at the border, the rabbi, it appeared, had provided a passport only for himself, and intimat. ing to an officer that the lady was none of his, and had no passport, he was conveyed across the stream, while she was left behind. This was the last she had seen of her loving spouse until she met him ten days ago in Ottowa.

But she was unwilling to give him up so -"halon's Hair Invigorator, frs. White's Hair Restores Arming herself with funds and the necessary pal.von's Katharion, &c., &c.
