One country, one constitution, one destiny

Huntingdon Oct. 24 1838.

Democratic Antimasonic CANDIDATES.

FOR PRESIDENT, William W. Harrison OF OHIO.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Francis Granger, OF NEW YORK.

The Rev. John P. Durbin President of Dickinson College; will deliver an address on Education at the Methodist Church, in this Borough, on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, 25th inst.

The absence of the Editor will be an excuse for any inaccuracies in our paper of to-day.

In order to accommodate some of our friends, we have inserted again the official returns of this county.

Every day brings to light some new fraud in the election. In Bucks county it is said, in a township where in counting but nineteen votes were declared in the box for Ritner—twenty-four good substantial citizens have come forward and declared that they gave the Judges Ritner votes—Is it any wonder that Ritner was apparently beaten, when such things were done.

Loco Foco Outrage! SENATORIAL RETURN.

On Tuesday of last week the return Judges of this Senatorial District met at Millintown, two being present from this county—one of whom was sent by 17 of our county return Judges; the other sent by the other eight, who had refused to sign the returns of this county. After meeting and consulting, the sage Judges advised by some equally wise counsel, decided that as there were no returns present signed by all the return Judges of this county—that consequently there was no return from this county, and they then proceeded to add up the votes of Perry, Juniata, Mifflin, and Union, throwing out the entire vote of Huntingdon County, & the three Judges from the three former counties, made out the following return which they called official, and they signed that and pronounced it official, although they rejected the vote of Huntingdon, because not signed by all the return Judges. If Huntingdon return was illegal, because not signed by all the return Judges; this very return, made by these three men is illegal, because neither the Judge from this or Union county, signed their return. The return of the three Judges

Union	Juniata	Perry	Mifflin	Total
Ever,	1607	1065	1907	1233—5815
M'Clay,	2260	850	873	1067—5050
Bell	2247	799	870	1048—5852
Frow	1603	1089	1503	1257—4994

The other two Judges then made out the following return, containing all the Counties, and all the votes according to law.

Hunt	Union	Juniata	Miff	Perry	Total
M'Clay	3716	2260	850	1907	873—8760
Eyer	2731	1607	1065	1233	1907—8543
Bell	3728	2247	799	1048	870—8742
Frow	2606	1603	1089	1251	1909—8452

The last return, which is the actual return of votes, gives J. M. Bell a majority over Frow, of 284—and M'Clay over Eyer of 221—By the return made without this county—the others have a majority. There has been a regular, and long arranged plan made by the Locos, to secure a majority in the next Legislature, and they have in three or four Counties performed this same trick, of throwing out a District, or Ward, or even County, to carry their men, regardless alike of justice and the wishes of the people. Commenced in fraud, it has been carried on in fraud; and they are now determined to establish the principle, that one illegal vote, is worth a thousand legal ones, to them, because they can destroy any outrageous township, that will give a majority against their men—and when they desire to secure a Senator, they have only to get one of the return Judges to refuse to sign the returns of a certain county, and they declare the return illegal, because not signed by all the Judges, and they throw off the county and pronounce their partisans elected—This is the plan. We shall hold up to public contempt the worthy candidates of such a party, if they pretend to claim their seats upon such a flimsy pretence. The votes of Huntingdon County, cannot be counted, because she will not worship their golden calf. Let the people of this county remember who are the actors in this scene of iniquity.

The citizens of this county will learn with no little astonishment, that some of their own citizens sanctioned these proceedings which declares their right of elective franchise a nullity. Will they not remember it!

"Go it."
"Ah Tam! ah Tam! thou'll get thy fairin."

Burns.
It would seem from the last "Advocate," that the various writers of its editorials, are still disposed to keep up a personal warfare. To its nominal Editor we have nothing to say, he is not an accountable being; and as for writing his editorials, he never was suspected of such a thing, he cannot write, an advertisement for a stray dog, without help. But we must drop a passing, "how d'ye do," to that worthy popinjay, who does the dirty editorials for the "Advocate." Only behind his master in iniquities, in the ratio of his years, he may of course, be considered a proficient—"young in years, but old in sin." Do you know him reader. Ask who was the major-domo of a certain military election—where he returned 22 votes for his friend, and eleven for his opponent—whereupon seventeen good men and true, swore that they voted for his opponent. It is true he did not swear to his return. It was considered a criminal thing to commit perjury then! This pattern of decency, whose crimson edged eyes, tells of his midnight orgies, is disposed to be funny on our hands, and says "No you don't! That's a fact Miss Nancy! you don't, but you do! and you had better stop it, or the man with the poker" (or as Doctors say, the man with the bowl away). You are a "tall chicken," are you, now,—you are "near the throne"—as near it as the foot-stool—"like master, like man" you are fit to be there; for when not needed you will patiently be kicked out of the way. As for the witicism of "go it Boots"—it might wake up a reminiscence of "go it," that would touch the smart young man in a smarting place. There was a time when he had to "go it"—and a clean run was all that saved him. As for the slanders against his master, we say, we have torn the mask from off his acts, and he stands, the "Great Exposed." Let him destroy the evidence, and then the people, may think him honest—but NEVER TILL THEN.

The War not ended.
When we issued our last paper, we had concluded that the electioneering campaign had ended; we were willing to consider ourselves beaten—if not in voting, at least in counting; and we really did imagine that the sociability which, had to no inconsiderable extent, been destroyed, and as a community of neighbors and friends, that friendly and familiar intercourse, which should characterize every honest, and independent citizen, would be again established. That the paltry and wicked, personal attacks upon ourselves would cease; we thought so, because, during a residence of more than three years in this county, we have never had occasion to pass an angry or disrespectful word with any of our neighbors. We have, however, some reason to imagine that the war is not ended.

As a partisan editor, we have always buckled on our armor, and entered the field fearlessly, and on all occasions, treated our opponents honorably. If mistatements were made, they were cheerfully corrected. Such has ever been our conduct; and we pledge ourselves, by the honor which is due to our country; and by the reverence we owe to our Creator, to render ample justice, where any injury has been inflicted. But if this war is to be kept up, we are ready for it! We shall quail beneath no threats. If this war is to be still carried on, we will bear our standard, as far as the bravest, into the ranks of our enemies.

We molest no one, we desire, and we love peace, and to enjoy, the friendship of our neighbors. But we will not tame, ly, nor quietly, rest, and let the ban dog and whiffets all join in their yell of discord, against our friends. If the nominal triumph does not satisfy our enemies, but they must add insult to injury; we are ready again, to unfurl the ensign under which we fought; and our blows shall be laid on with as right good will, as ever—live, and the same weapons shall be used. We are not to be insulted, because defeated, and tamely submit to it. Our friends are not to be trampled upon, with impunity, because cheated out of their rights.

We showed our willingness to hang up our arms; and let the victors riot on their "boots;" but when they make their cry "beauty & booty," when the fireside home must be invaded, after victory; then it again becomes our duty to "cry havoc, and let loose the dogs of war." It is our duty; and we never failed from that; although some of the debased, and degraded threaten us with personal chastisement, if we dare to open our mouths; we will be with our friends to the last and no threats shall force us from our course.

Let our opponents sound the charge, let them continue their villainous lies about our friends, or ourself and "May our tongue rest within our head, "Mute, as the voices of the dead"
If we do not return the assault, with all the power we are master of. We know no fear, we have a warm heart and a ready hand, for either friend or foe. We shall conduct ourself with sobriety, and propriety; and should any of the ruffians who threaten us, molest us, we promise them a greeting not to be forgotten.

We know, and dare maintain our rights, if assailed by any desperadoes; but we shall offer no insult to excite ill feelings. If then, this strife is to be kept up, it becomes every friend of truth and right, to stand by the right till it shall prevail, we shall thus quietly leave the matter, till we see the actions of our enemies. We shall not cry "peace, peace, when there is no peace."

THOMAS DOUGLASS,
September 18, 1838.

that it is the perpetual struggle of this weak pure stream of life, the gift of Almighty power) to disencumber itself of its vicious acid humors, with which it has become commixed.

This valuable medicine, being composed only of vegetable matter, or medicinal herbs, and warranted on oath, as containing not one particle of mercurial, mineral, or chemical substances, (all of which are uncongential to the nature of man, and therefore destructive to the human frame) is found to be perfectly harmless to the most tender age, or weakest frame under every stage of human suffering, the most pleasant and benign in its operation, and at the same time the most certain in its effects; on the root of every complaint, however deep, and of performing a cure that was ever offered to the world. This wonderful effect, too is produced by the least trouble to the patient, by merely swallowing a certain number of pills, and being called a few extra times to the purpose of evacuation, with the least possible sensation of pain, exhaustion of bodily strength, and without the fear of catching cold, or attention to dress or diet, in any way different from the accustomed habits. These pills cure in all cases, and cannot be taken to excess. Experience which is the touchstone of all human knowledge, has long borne testimony to the fact; and an extensive use of them has already verified its truth in this country.

These medicines cure by purging, and yet the weak, the feeble, the infirm, the nervous, the delicate are in a few days strengthened by their operation, because they clear the body of its bad humors; and invariably produce sound sleep. They are the safest and most efficacious medicine to take to sea, preventing scurvy, costiveness &c.

The operation of this mild medicine, which conveys immediate conviction of its utility. From the first dose, it is beneficial to the mind as the body; first calming the mind in all Mental derangements, Eccentricities, Nervous Affections, Irritabilities and Restlessness, from whatever source; complaints which have hitherto not been understood as the Hygeists have found them all to proceed from acrimonious humors in the blood; and, happily for the present and future race of mankind discovered a cheap and universal mode of purifying, curing and preventing.

The being cured of any disease, infirm or sore, is now no more a dubious or uncertain procedure—perseverance in the Vegetable Universal Medicines will always resgare active to best due course. The literary community, of both sexes, whose pursuits so much impair the faculties, will find a sure remedy in the Universal Medicines for preserving the energy and sprightliness of the imagination, and improving their health; old age will be obtained by the use of them and passed free from pain and infirmities. The are not enveloped with the mysteries of other medicines; they only require to be persevered in with sufficiently large doses, and the patient will come off well; when a disease is obstinate patients frequently do not take doses large enough.

The Medicines is comprised in three different articles only, viz: No. 1 and 2; the first is a powerful, but most mild and gentle, or opening medicine, detaching and partially removing the bilious rosy humors, viz: the No. 2 Pills carry off the and the serous acid, and putrid humors, incidental to the body; and act together as a erret in a warren, never resting until every avenue of the human frame is thoroughly cleared, and cleansed of its impurities. The Vegetable Cleansing Powders are of great assistance to patients and facilitate the evacuation of bad humours; they soften and detach the acrimonious plugs are cooling and allay the thirst. One, two or three powders may be taken together, the mix is sold in packets of 12 & 25 dollars; and 25 and 50 cent boxes—the two former consist of three boxes, viz: one box of No. 1 and two boxes of No. 2—the latter, one larger box with a division; the powders are in a separate box at 37 cents each.

In consequence of the repeated solicitations of the agents, and for the convenience of the public in general, boxes of 50 cents and 25 cents each can now be had of all the Agents.

MORRISON'S, The Family Advertiser
of the British College of Health, 5d Edition of the £2 7s; and PRACTICE PROOFS of the Hygean System of Physiology, including the "Origin of Life," "Treatise on Small Pox," "Letter on Chorea Morbus," and many esteemed cures effected in this country, as well as in Great Britain, 6th Edition price 37 cents.
The Hygean Medicines are all imported into this country at a great expense, notwithstanding which they are sold at the same price as in England. They have been six years before the American public; their pre eminent success in the relief of the afflicted methods can testify.

CAUTION.—In consequence of the high estimation which Morrison's Pills are held by the public, it has induced an innumerable host of unprincipled counterfeits to attempt imitations, and under deceptive terms thus to delude the navy, and foil their nostruffs for the Genuine Hygean Medicine; in consequence of which the Agent has taken the precautionary measure of having an extra Yellow Label fixed on each Packet, signed by the Agent of each State of District, and by their Sub-Agents, in every county; the imitation of which will subject the forger to the severest punishment the Law can inflict; and it is farther to be noticed, that none of the above Medicines can be obtained in any Drug Store throughout the Union; the Drug Stores being the principle source through which the Counterfeits vend their spurious articles.
Respectable parties may be appointed Agents on liberal terms, by applying to the General Depot, No. 34 South Seventh street, three doors below Market street, Philadelphia—and at No. 10 North Street Baltimore, nearly opposite the Post Office, where the Genuine Medicine May always be obtained.
