

New York election.

On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of last week. The general election for Governor, State officers, and Congressmen took place in the Empire State.

After having been "licked up," at home, and in Ohio, we did not look to New York with any hope of succeeding there, with our opponent, but did believe that C. C. Cambreleng, the great Loco Foco leader would be defeated in the city; and in these hard times, we were determined to call that a victory. He is beaten, for the first time in ten years! It is a victory! The whole ticket of the whigs has been carried in the city, by upwards of 1200 majority—as far as heard, there has been a gain of five Congress men. The whigs are confident that they have carried the State. We are determined to wait until we get out of the woods, before we halloo. If we do beat them in New York the way we will shout victory will be a caution to Davy Crockett.

The New Constitution—Canal Board.

When we left our desk, and our labors, three weeks since, we were under the belief that the new Constitution, had been defeated; although, as we then said, we voted for it, considering it much more democratic than the old one. We now, are however enabled to say, that it has carried by a majority of 1277. We rejoice at it. There are many, very many advantages which must result from its adoption the most important of which, we consider, that which entirely disrobes the executive of official patronage—we say entirely because, the expression of the people has been direct and unequivocal. The 7th Section of Article II gives the Governor only the power to appoint a Secretary. While 8th Sec. of the Article VI contains these expressive words. "All officers whose election or appointment is not provided in this constitution, shall be elected or appointed as shall be directed by Law." Could any thing be more plain.

The truth is that nothing is more certain, than the people have declared that they must have a voice in making the officers, who have the guardianship of their rights. There is no provision in the constitution, showing the manner of making Canal Commissioners; of course the Legislature must provide immediately, when it assembles, for the creation of a Canal Board. Our opponents, say that the friends of Governor Ritner are anxious to take the appointment of that Board from the Governor elect. Such an assertion is without foundation. The people have by their vote taken the power from any, and every Governor; and have also ordered the Legislature to provide a way, something more Republican, more in accordance with the wishes of the people, than the fiat of any one man. The people have so ordered it—and we should like to see the legislature that dare—no matter which party has the majority—give that enormous patronage back into the hands of the Executive officer. The truth is, it is made the duty of the Legislature to enact a law for the appointment of a Canal Board, and of course all this humbug, about the friends of Ritner, being desirous to take, that power from the new Governor is all for the purpose of deceiving the people themselves, in order, that they may encroach upon the provision of the new Constitution; and keep this patronage in Governors hands, so that they may cast lots for the spoils. Let the people read the new constitution and see if we are not right.

It is wholly immaterial which party has the power in the Legislature, it is incumbent upon that body, to make some enactment creating a Canal Board, and we intend to watch with a careful eye, to see who wish to provide the most Democratic plan.

We are in favor of their appointment by the joint Ballot of both Houses, for three years, (in the first instance, one for one, and for two, and one for three years) one to be appointed annually. This would always secure in that body, two individuals who had experience and who had been personally acquainted with the wants and necessities of the improvement system. And furthermore the oldest member in the Board always being the President of the body—this would always ensure that individual at the seat of Government who had been the longest acquainted with the affairs of the office. Every honest Republican will agree with us, that this is a safe, and a Democratic method, and will not subject the organization of the Improvement system to repeated changes, but it will be governed, and impelled on by judgement and practical experience. Will not the people agree with us.

War in Canada again.

A letter published in the 'Troy Whig,' says that Theller and Dodge have command of a large force (4500) and are making considerable havoc among the Queen's troops. Report says that the town of St. Johns was to be burned on the morning of the 5th inst.

A letter from Jefferson County N. Y., says that the whole county along the line, extending 50 or a hundred miles in to the U. States is in much agitation. Companies are being formed, and money being raised, in every neighborhood. The companions are sworn to preserve their secrets, and to "maintain the cause of Liberty throughout the world." It is estimated that there are 40,000 men within a hundred miles engaged in the revolt. On the British side of the St. Lawrence, every thing is fear and commotion. Efforts have been made to increase the Queen's forces, by compelling the militia to assist. There were 16 regulars killed in attempting to force their arms from the militia.

The Montreal Courier gives a number of cases where the loyalists overpowered the Patriots—and shows also that her humane majesty, has engaged some of the Indian tribes to assist her.

The above are the principle features in the rumors relative to the Canada War; what weight to attach thereto, our readers must decide. That there is some difficulty in the Provinces there is no doubt, judging from the tone of the Montreal Courier, a loyalist print.

ACCIDENT.

On Saturday, one of the Boat drivers on the Canal was severely injured, by the running away of his horses. He lost his seat, and was drawn furiously through the street, at least 200 yards. One of his legs was completely shattered from his knee to his thigh; the bone being broken in several places, the sinews and flesh however, are not broken. His head and shoulders, are much bruised and lacerated. His life was undoubtedly, preserved, by the "muddiness of the street. Had not the street been unusually soft, his brains must have been dashed out ere half the distance was passed. The name of the lad we did not learn. It is said he is from Newark, N. Jersey.

ANOTHER "REVOLUTIONARY" GONE.

Our valued cotemporary J. L. Slentz, of the Bedford Inquirer, has revolutionized the state of his household. Although he failed to elect his Governor, we rejoice to see that he has succeeded in the choice of his "lady love," and though failing to join in a shout of victory he has taken a "Holiday." May that "Holiday," shed its happy influence around his "bed and board," through a long, a peaceful, and a useful life. May she prove a guiding "star" to his path, may the "G" of plenty fill his "drawer" with her "quoins," and when "locked up" in deaths long sleep, may an "imposing stone," tell that there lies a great and good man who has left this, with a hope of an eternal "Holiday," in another world.

MARRIED.

On Thursday the 25th October, 1838, Mr. J. L. SLENTZ, editor of the Bedford "Democratic Inquirer," to Miss JANE L. HOLLIDAY, of the Borough of Bedford, Pennsylvania.

Remember the Poor.

"When the icicle is over your door, That is the time to remember the poor." OLD SONG. "Cold winter is a coming." As the wind whistles without, let not those who enjoy the comforts of plenty, forget, those who are exposed to the biting frost, and bleak winds of penury, and want. Charity is like mercy.

It is twice blessed;

It blest him that gives and him that takes; 'Tis mightiest in the mightiest." Many, who by mis-management, or perhaps mis-conduct, have failed to lay by anything for a rainy day, are forced to beg, first of their fellow men, the privilege to toil; or failing in that, may be, for a crust of bread, or some tattered garment to cover their limbs from the searching blast of a winter's day. Let not the hungry pass your door unfed—nor the naked unclothed. We know not what a day or an hour may bring forth. You, who to-day are clothed in purple and fine linen to-morrow may, mourn in sackcloth and ashes your own neediness. Be charitable—for such measure as you mete to others shall be meted to you again. Be charitable—for it is written, "he that giveth to the poor, shall not lack; but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse."

A season, almost unequalled within the memory of the oldest citizens, admonishes us that the wants and sufferings of the poor will be great, during the coming winter; and should the winter be equal in severity, with the summer that is past—many, very many, must want, or unless sheltered beneath the open hand of charity, some may perish. This is no fancy sketch—the sad picture has been realized, even in this our country, many a time and oft. Let us then call on all such as would "lay up stores for themselves, where moth nor rust will not corrupt, nor thieves break through and steal," to Remember the Poor.

Samuel Sturgeon.

This individual, who has been for so long the object of abuse, by the Loco-Foco Editors, has it would appear, appealed to the law for defence and protection. He prosecuted, in his own county, Alex. Lowrey, and recovered Four hundred dollars damages, and costs, three of the neighbors of both plaintiff and defendant acting as arbitrators. If friend Sturgeon, follows up the work, he will probably be enabled to recover as much from the mediants, as he lost by their master.

ITEMS.

NEW SENATOR FROM VERMONT.—The Hon. S. S. Phelps, of Vermont, has been chosen to the Senate of the United States, for the term of six years from the 3d March next. He succeeds Mr. Swift.

On the night of the 30th September last, near Marietta, Ohio, Henry Ranger was stabbed twice by his father-in-law, with a butcher knife, and died of his wounds. Morrison, the murderer, is in prison.

CURE FOR A COUGH.—Take a gill of Mustard-seed, a handful of Horse-radish, and a handful of Burdock, scraped fine; steep them in half a gallon of wine, and take a gill twice a day, two hours before eating.

HARD TO PLEASE.—A fellow was recently taken up in New York for bigamy, and being interrogated, said he had married five wives, and had not got the right one yet.

WELL HIT.—A backwoodsman, in undertaking to describe the habits of the gentry, said, "They eat so late they must always be hungry. They have their dinner at 8 o'clock in the evening, and don't eat their supper till after breakfast in the morning."

IRISH APPLAUSE.—Not long since the lord lieutenant was met by a funeral procession in one of the roads near Dublin, when the mourners one and all halted, and gave his excellency three cheers.

WORTH KNOWING.—Accidentally poisoning from corrosive sublimate is very common, and it ought to be generally known that the white of a raw egg is an unfailing antidote to the poison.

GAMBLING IN THE SOUTH.—A few weeks since, the Grand Jury of Yalobusha county, Mississippi, returned seventy bills of indictment against as many gamblers.

STEAM ON CANALS.—A successful experiment has been made at Manchester, England, for propelling barges on canals by steam. The speed is equal to eight miles per hour.

The Governor of Connecticut has issued his proclamation, recommending Thursday, the 29th of November, to be observed as a day of thanksgiving, praise and prayer to God.

We regret to learn that Mr. Bonsall, of the firm of Bonsall and Rovonrdt, and brother of the lamented Benjamin Bonsall, Marshal of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, died yesterday morning. He was walking the streets the day before in apparent health.—Philad. Sentinel.

LARGE REWARD FOR A MURDERER. The Nashville [Tenn] Whig, of the 24th ult. contains an advertisement offering one thousand dollars reward for the apprehension of John and Solomon Step, [who, on the 10th September, inhumanly butchered an old gentleman by the name of Frarely, in Hardin county, Tenn. The circumstances of the murder are these—The Steps resided in Tishomingo county, Miss and had a misunderstanding with a Mr. Lenox, the son-in-law of Frarely. In Lenox's absence they made a rude assault upon his family, for which he and his brother-in-law, young Frarely, held them to personal accountability. A rencounter ensued, and the deceased [the elder Frarely] interposing as peace maker, received several fatal stabs at the hands of John Step, and almost instantly expired. It is believed the Steps have made for Texas.

CURIOS.—As a train of railway cars was passing along an inclined plane on the railroad from Bolton to Kenynton in England, moving at the rate of 30 or 40 miles an hour, a man who was standing on the side of the railway threw a stone about the size of a hen's egg in a horizontal direction, and with considerable violence at the train. The stone was distinctly seen by a gentleman, who was seated in the last car, with his back to the engine, and he remarked that when it had attained its maximum of velocity, it appeared like Mahomet's coffin suspended in the air a few seconds within a foot of the gentleman's head. He seized hold of it; and described the sensation similar to that of grasping a stone in the state of rest, suspended by a thread. Thus it seems that the train and the stone had both attained the same velocity.

FROM THE EAST INDIA.

Juepoor.—Cholera is gleaming what famine has left, and is carrying off between two and three hundred persons daily. The same disease is raging with great violence in Tyjara, Bhurtpoor, and the surrounding country.—Agra Ukbar, June 7.

HORROR.—Cholera is raging here with great violence. On the 25th inst., 20 people are said to have died in one hour, and from that time till the succeeding day not one who was attacked escaped. Two shocks of an earthquake were distinctly felt on the 26th at a quarter to 7 o'clock A. M. accompanied with usual rumbling noise, and undulatory motion. This earthquake must have been the same felt at Allypurrh and Agra.

WIND AND FIRE. A scorching land wind set in here on Friday, and continued to blow ever since with the most suffocating strength. We understand it resembles in force and heat the land wind of 1836, during the prevalence of which some dreadful accidents happened in town. The whole of the Cutwall bazaar, with property of the value of Rs 15,000, was destroyed by fire, and several other conflagrations followed, originating in the uncautious habits of the natives in cooking their meals under sheds, or in thatched huts.—Madras Herald June, 20.
