

o Harrisburg and claim their seats in the Hall of the Senate, will enjoy the honor they deserve, Messrs. Frow & Eyer, whom the "Gazette" say are elected by handsome majorities, will meet the contempt and scorn they merit. Condemned by the people, they intend to tell the people, "they are beyond and above them they claim, and will have their seats." They, we suppose, intend to go to Harrisburg, and ere they will relinquish their seats, make Messrs. Bell and M'Clay, bring up witnesses and contest the election, thus adding some hundreds, perhaps thousands of dollars to the peoples expenses—when they have done so—they may retire amid the silent sneers of all honest men.

ANTI-MASONIC CONVENTION.

The Delegates to the Democratic Anti-masonic Convention met yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in the Temperance Hall, North Third Street, and organized temporarily by appointing Henry Cothel of New York, President pro tem, and Edward S. Williams of Rhode Island, Secretary pro tem.

The following committee was appointed to nominate officers for the Convention viz:

Mr. Parker of Pennsylvania; Beach of Ohio; Stevens of Pennsylvania; Clough of Massachusetts, and Williams of Rhode Island.

The following committee was appointed to propose business for the Convention viz:

Mr. Denny of Pennsylvania; Howard of Massachusetts; Graham of Ohio; Howell of New Jersey; Todd of Pennsylvania; and Elder of Pennsylvania.

The Convention then adjourned.

From the Penn'a Inquirer of Thursday.

In pursuance of the resolution of Tuesday, the National Anti-Masonic Convention reassembled yesterday morning in the Temperance Hall N. L.

President—HARMAR DINNEY, of Pa Vice President—Henry Cothel of N. Y.; Eleazar Clough, of Mass; Edward S. Williams, of R. I., and Rufus Beach, of Ohio.

Secretaries—John Williamson of Pa, and J. A. Stevens, of New Jersey.

The Committee appointed to prepare business for the Convention, presented the following report:

"That they recommend to the Convention to proceed to the nomination of candidates for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States, at half past ten this day—(Wednesday.)"

That the votes be taken viva voce by States.

That a committee of five be appointed to draft resolutions.

[The following committee was subsequently appointed—Messrs. Cooper, Pa. Purdy, Ohio; Williams Rhode Island; Watts, Pa. and Clough, Massachusetts.]

That a committee of five be appointed to draft an address to the citizens of the U. States.

[The following committee was subsequently appointed—Messrs. Stevens, of Pa.; Beach of Ohio; Cothel, of N. Y.; Ross, of Penn'a; Simpson, of N. Jersey.]

That a committee of one member from each State be appointed to select and nominate a National Committee of Correspondence.

That a committee of Finance be appointed."

The above resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The chairman having announced that the next business before the Convention was the nomination of a President and Vice President of the U. States.

On motion of Mr. Thaddeus Stevens, of Pennsylvania, General WILLIAM H. HARRISON of Ohio, was put in nomination as the candidate for the next vacancy of that important office. This announcement was received with great applause.

On motion it was resolved that votes upon the above proposition should be taken viva voce, by States, when the following result was announced:

FOR HARRISON.
Pennsylvania,	30
Ohio,	21
New York	42
New Jersey,	8
Rhode Island,	4
Massachusetts,	14
Total,	119

The Honorable DAN'L WEBSTER, of Massachusetts, was then put in nomination for Vice President, and received the same unanimous vote of 119!

The Convention was addressed with great ability by Messrs. Beach, of Ohio; Stevens of Pennsylvania; and Clough, of Massachusetts.

Adjourned to a quarter past 3 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Shortly after 3 P. M. the Convention assembled, and the minutes of the morning having been read, Mr. Stevens, as one of the Committee to prepare an address, requested on their behalf, further time, to carry the duty which had been assigned them into effect. A motion having been made to that effect, more time was granted, and, as we understood, the committee were to prepare the document and publish it at their leisure.

The committee on Resolutions, then presented a preamble and resolutions, both of which were drawn up with spirit, eloquence, and patriotism; advocating equality of rights, supporting the supremacy of the laws, and denouncing all secret and oathbound associations as pregnant with danger to liberty. The Sub-Treasury scheme is also condemned in these resolutions; as anti-democratic and contrary to the spirit of Republicanism—which can never tolerate the placing of the purse and sword in the same hand, The resolutions were adopted.

It was then resolved that an official account of the proceedings of the Convention be published in all the Democratic papers of the Union, and copies sent to General Harrison and the Hon. Daniel Webster.

A report from the committee of Finance and lists of the committees of National Correspondence, having been read, the Convention, after having recorded votes of thanks to their President and Officers, and to the Proprietors of the Temperance Hall for its use—adjourned sine die.

Traitors are growing Brave.

The Loco Foco papers throughout the State, with a few honorable exceptions, are endeavoring to incite the people to riot and bloodshed, if the enormous and appalling frauds committed by their party, at the late election, should be attempted to be investigated by the Legislature! They dread the exposure, and declare that before Porter shall be deprived of his seat for a single day, "fifty thousand bayonets shall bristle in the streets of Harrisburg," and that the "best blood in the State shall be spilled!"

Those fomenters of treason will see the best blood in the State spilled rather than have their frauds exposed! Verily, these are fearful times when an attempt to expose fraud and perjury, is to be the signal for riot and murder!! But honest men will rely on the virtue and intelligence of the people, and disregard the threats of these bloody-minded traitors.

Even the "Compiler" calls upon its partizans "to be prepared—be ready on the ground;" at Harrisburg, at the meeting of the Legislature, for the same purpose! Yes, the Editor of the compiler, the most pusillanimous poltroon and coward that ever disgraced manhood, has joined the pack that is yelping for blood! He has grown very valiant since his particular friends, Philip Henegy and John B. Clark, have left the neighborhood! But our friends abroad need not be frightened at the fierceness of the Major; he will never harm any one, except it be by running against them in his flight, as he did our friend Stevens some time since, to avoid cow-skinning!—[Get. Star.]

TERRIFIC COMBAT BETWEEN A HORSE AND A LION.

A Nobleman in the early part of the reign of Lewis XV., having a very vicious horse, which none of the grooms or servants would ride, several of them having been thrown, and one killed, asked leave of his majesty to have him turned loose into the menagerie, against one of the largest lions. The king readily consented, and the animal on a certain day was conducted there.

Soon after the arrival of the horse, the door of the den was drawn up, and the lion, with great state and majesty, marched very slowly to the mouth of it, when seeing his antagonist, he set up a tremendous roar.—The horse immediately started and fell back; his ears were erected; his main raised—his eyes sparkling—and something like a general convulsion seemed to agitate the whole of his frame.

After the first emotions of fear had subsided, the horse retired into a corner of the managerie, where having directed his heels towards the lion, and having reared his head back over his left shoulder, he watched with extreme eagerness the motions of his terrific enemy.

The lion who presently quitted the den sidled about for more than a minute as if meditating the mode of attack; when having sufficiently prepared himself for the combat, he made a sudden spring at the horse, which defended itself by striking his adversary a most violent blow on the chest.

The lion instantly retreated, groaned, and seemed for several minutes inclined to give up the contest, when recovering from the painful effects of the blow, he returned again to the charge with unabated violence. The mode of perpetration in this second attack was the same as the first. He sidled from one side of the managerie to the other for a considerable time, seeking a favourable opportunity to seize upon his prey; during all which time the horse still preserved the same posture, and still kept his head erected, and turned over his shoulder. The lion, at length, gave a second spring with all the strength and velocity he could exercise when the horse caught him with his hoof on the under jaw, which he fractured.

Having sustained a second, and more severe repulse than the former, the lion retreated to his den as well as he was able, apparently in the greatest agony, moaning all the way in a most lamentable manner.

What became of the lion afterwards, I never heard; but the horse was soon obliged to be shot, as no one ever dared to approach the ground where he was kept.
