Gen. Patterson has called out his Brigade and ordered them to march to Harrisburg - with fifteen cartridges of buck shot, and seven of ball. We understand that they have arrived.

Our friends who were returned as Senators from Philadelphia County, have refused to act untill investigations have been made. This is noble, and shows who are for holding their seats by fraud. The members in the lower house, have also publicly announced their anxiousness riot, so that the time which the law has laid down for contesting shall be passed. -then they will not investigate because, become a "den of thieres." there will be no law for it. ### The Cause of the Riot.

Every means have been taken to charge The rebels have thought proper to withdraw their forces from the [Senate to make no further demonstrations of vi-benet for the present. -Accordingly the senate met this morning and proceeded without interruption to transact its busi-ness. a report of which we give below:

Min ducy mater that the represented by the view below:

To the reflecting part of the citizens we have one word to say. What think you of all this? Are you prepared to see the laws of your country overthrown by a lawless band of bired bullies, led on by a man PAID FOR HIS TREASON out of man PAID FOR HIS TREASON out of the NATIONAL TREASURY—a UNI TED STATES OFFICE-HOLDER— J. J. M'Cahen, from the Philedelphia Custom House? Whether you are prepared or not, such are the facts. Nor de they end there, your Senators have been driven from the Hall! and their lives threatened in open day! Yet the assas-sin and the purchaser of his bloody hand and knife, boast of their purpose and laugh the laws to scorn. Have our laws become "a proverb and by word?" has the boasted security of our institutions crum-bled to the dust? and must a lawless, infuriated mob, usurp the halts of power, and drive your officers from their seatselse force them into obedience to their wicked designs? Forbid it Heaven!!

Let every man who loves his country--er institutions- and her laws-lift up his voice against such mad usurpations fraught with such direful--may be, bloody consequences. Let every voice be raised till its echoes shall be heard above the blast of the storm, exclaiming "SUS-TAIN THE LAWS, JUSTICE CLAIMS ITS REWARD."

Those persons who talk of bloodshedwho excite, and sanction the course of any mob-in its works of desolation, and destruction-are traitors to the institu tions of their country-Jacobins in heart. to have the matter investigated. Our and if their bones do not decorate "gibbet opponents, are trying to create mob and irons," the law will loose its victims--and the safe guards of liberty will ere long tumble to the earth--and her temple will Need we say that we do not wish to exculpate either party. The law will tell who are the guilty actors in this unholy scheme. Let those laws punish those who are guilty. If assassins, armed with DAGGERS' and PISTOLS can drive your legislatures from your halls because they do not like their enactments, where is your security. When that mob discov. ers that some of you have more property I fairs. At one time they deny that there is any noise or disturbance there; and with the next breath they charge Stevens and Burrowes with bringing it all on. The true cause of it all is but lately de-
