

a more conciliatory tone, and one calculated to cicatrize not excite any wounds, and we feel that the certain happy result would more than compensate him for his personal sacrifice.

Appointments by Canal Commissioners.

Joseph Riter, Supervisor from Hollidaysburg to Spang's dam.
William Price, ditto, from Spangs, to Huntingdon.
David Woods, ditto, from Huntingdon to Aughwick dam.
James Lavinton, ditto, from Aughwick, to the dam in Long Narrows.
Thomas O'Brien, ditto, from the dam in Long Narrows, to the North Island dam.
J. C. McCalister, ditto, from the North Island dam, to Highspire.
And from Highspire to Columbia, and vacancy.

These are the appointments on the Juniata Division. Let our readers observe, there are SEVEN. When Riter's administration made SIX, for the same distance, then these same patriots, howled like pelted hounds at the gross extravagance—and even the last Gazette, sends forth a feeble echo of their groans by talking of increasing offices. We intend hereafter to examine the old files of their papers, and furnish our readers occasionally with a little of their precept and practice. What a vile outrage upon a patient people, for Jos. Riter to make six Supervisors on this canal! What a pillianous division of the spoils! What a disgraceful paying off, of menial partisans! What an unholy plundering of the people's Treasure! So said these worthy patriots and their patriot master. Yet in violation of all these implied pledges—in violation of every precept preached—this new Reform Administration, has made seven. How honest they were on paper; how loathsomely corrupt in practice. It is strange the people can not see. But perhaps they do.

Joseph Riter. Who is he? eye that's a question, that but few of the people in the county can answer. He is a stranger in this county, we believe; having resided here a shorter time, than we have, yet it was disregarding the rights of the people to appoint us Collector. Don't you mind reader. More precept and practice; and if rumor does not lie, there are some dark passages in the history of his life, that would prove him as little deserving as some others, even though raised in this county. We understand too that his petition was not sent down until after he was appointed. But they say his Democracy has been dyed in the wool.

Wm. Price. Almost every body knows Bill Price; a tolerable "clever kind of a fellow, one whose head of brains is not particularly full." Whose boast is, that he is not a Democrat. Being a regular old blue skin federalist, who glories in the proud title. Yet this consistent Democratic, Reform, administration makes him a carrier, since he served so well as a stool pigeon.

David Woods!!!! As a man, we have no objection to Mr. Woods, a clever good sort of a companion, and with all, an active young, and for ought we know, or care, capable man. But his appointment; how was that obtained? He boasted that he never had a petition. But that he was asked three times to accept. It is a terrible mystery to the faithful, how Mr. Woods obtained such influence and power over the Governor. Certain it is! and we told the honest portion of that party, that such was the fact, but the idea was hooted at. Its truth has been proven. Not an applicant to the throne, but the throne a supplicant to his feet. His power is as complete as Van Amburg, the tiger tamer. He has his victim by the neck, and he deserves credit, for obtaining the power. When Porter's suit was before the arbitrators; who brought forth the old Books, that Porter said he had not seen for 15 years, and supposed them destroyed? David Woods. Who attended the Governor, during his sickness, when none but the Physician, and one other was allowed to see him? David Woods! and when the excited, and bewildered mind, wrought its spirit from the vasty deep, who heard and saw the storm in all its terror but David Woods! He has Davy by the neck, and he is a fool if he don't hold his grip. But where was the right of petition, when he was appointed, that was so sacred three years ago. Do you imagine that the honest people are fools, and will forget your professions.

These are all in our county, and we have no doubt, that in other counties they are the same; we shall examine and report the whole.

And reader, who have these men been appointed? In our town we have Henry Miller, Irvin Horrell, and John Coldstock. In the county there are Isaac Vandevander, James Porter, William Moore, J. G. Stewart, James M. Johnston and we presume dozens of others equally deserving, all old Democrats, the length of whose petitions would nearly reach to Harrisburg. They, their rights, and the voice of their petitions were discarded. Every man in this county knows of the unceasing labor of Messrs. Horrell (whose petition would honor the Governor himself) and Miller, in the cause of Mr. Porter, every man knows of their ability, and none would doubt their honest preference of Democratic principles, but the question might be asked are they not too honest. Mr. Coldstock is a superior mechanic, but has the mortification of seeing one of his apprentices appointed over him, and he must submit the mortifying operation of serving under him. Mr. Coldstock has nearly the whole time been employed as a master carpenter under Riter's administration, but from a personal difference between him and the supervisor he was discharged. He has had a petition despised, and a stripling appointed without one, over him. And Isaac Vandevander, one of the stand-bys of the Democratic family in this county, who allowed himself to be run on the ticket last fall under the implied promise of the appointment, his claims were laid up for the stranger, the Federalist, and the boy. The prayers of his petitioners were in vain. Maj. James Porter, a worthy, honest, and withal a good man was forced to sit dumb. We can tell Mr. Porter that politicians do not want men who have consciences, to fill offices. They may scruple to be necessary to their villany.

Of the others, we have not time nor room to speak; we shall continue the subject next week. In the meantime we ask the honest men, who supported Mr. Porter, if we did not tell them, they would be deceived.

THE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE, at New York, holds its sessions with closed doors, admitting none of the conductors of the press.

PENN'A. LEGISLATURE

In Senate on Saturday 2nd February; Mr. Penrose, rose in his seat, and read an article in the Keystone, and published in the last Advocate, which charges him with violating his oath, relative to calling an election in the districts of Centre, Clearfield, and Lycoming—Mr. Penrose stated, that the whole article, was a falsehood, and called on Mr. Myres, a Loco Foco from Delaware, who corroborated Mr. Penrose's statement. [we wonder if our neighbor will have honor enough to contradict the falsehood.] The appropriation Bill then came up, $50,000 was given to the West Branch canal, and that work discontinued; an amendment was inserted to appropriate $280,000 for the Juniata Breach, and $390, for repairs; in which shape the Bill passed.

In the House, a Bill was reported, to increase the salary of Judges. The resolution to increase the pay of the members was lost.

On Monday, the Senate passed the Bill, repealing the act of last winter, adding part of Franklin to Adams County.

In the House, the appropriation Bill was discussed, and postponed until Wednesday; (the 6th) Konigsmacher offered a resolution for a committee, to inquire into the causes of delay in printing the conventional debates, and to report if the contracts have not been broken, by unnecessary delay. The resolution was adopted; a resolution was passed, directing the Judiciary Com., to inquire into the expediency of electing a state printer, who is unconnected with the party press; a Bill was passed, for a new county, called Clarion, out of Armstrong and Venango.

The time of the Senate was consumed on Tuesday with minor matters, nothing of importance being done.

In the House, a resolution was passed for the appointment of a grand Committee, to inquire into the expediency, of removing the seat of Government from Harrisburg.

The appropriation Bill passed both Houses, with an addition of $280,000 for the repairs caused by the flood, and $30,000 for the West Branch Canal.

"The silken tie that binds two willing hearts."

MARRIED—On Thursday, the 7th by the Rev. Mr. Hodgers; MR. DAVID LONG, to MISS. NANCY WHITE of this borough.

(Communicated)
Miss White, is now, no Long-er White, For Hymen, threw that name away.
A little long-er;—and the right
Would Cupid prove, as clear as day.
Angels are White, tradition says,
And Long, may Long, believe the praise

Long may he be, her guardian here,
Her stay and hope, on life's dark sea
Long may her counsels—swever dear!
His guiding star, from wrong ere be;
Till Long, no Long-er time's slow pace,
Has made both White in death's embrace.

LAW NOTICE.
James Steel, Attorney at law, has removed his office to the frame building adjoining the dwelling house of Patrick Gwin and east thereof, and nearly opposite the store of T. Reed Esq.
Feb. 13, 1839.

TAKE NOTICE.

WHEREAS I, sometime in the month of January 1839, gave my single bill, unto Daniel D. Goodwin of Venango county, for the sum of Ten Dollars, under the following circumstances. In a payment of money by Christian Courts, to the said Goodwin, for me, he alleged that amongst the money, was one Ten Dollar note, a counterfeit, which he had received from the said Christian Courts; and asked me to bring in said note to Courts, which I agreed to do, and instead of giving him my receipt for said counterfeit note, (as he alleged it was) gave him my single bill.—This is therefore to notify all persons from taking an assignment of said single bill, as there was fraud, in procuring it from me.
