

More trouble in the Wigwam.

It seems that our old Democratic friend Price, is not the only poor fellow who is in trouble about his appointments.

But let us tell the story in proper order. Riter found, that to fill the dignified station of mud boss, he had a large supply of hungry patriots, who desired a share of the loves and fishes.

When Riter was elected, the unpardonable sin was committed, of increasing supervisors, but he lessened the number of foremen.

On Thursday last, a lovely bride A Phesant to a NATL was tied, She blushed, and then turn'd very pale.

PENN'A. LEGISLATURE

On Friday, Feb. 15th, the nomination of Thomas Jones to be Associate Judge in Chester county, was confirmed by the Senate.

"Str up the Animals."

Our readers undoubtedly recollect something about the charges made against our canal officers for proscriptio.

In the House, the Wyoming Coal Bill was again reconsidered, and after some amendments was agreed to.

On Wednesday, the Senate passed a bill for re-casting the brass cannon as recommended by Gov. Riter.

sterling worth, that ensures him a place equally pre-eminent with the former. True Job has a trade, "but whata's a trade when a man's got a soul!"

MARRIED. On Tuesday evening 19th February 1839, by the Rev. David Williams; Mr. HENRY KNEESE, to Miss. NANCY E. daughter of Mr. Asahel H. BROWN, all of this borough.

How strange it is, that Nancy Brown should take A little Kneese to share her joys of life: How strange, her little Kneese would dare to break

The cords of kindred love, and call his aunt his wife!

Our neighbor NANCY is no longer BROWN, Her little Kneese has wash'd her BROWN away: May heaven, with lasting joys, their union crown.

And LITTLE KNEESES bless their marriage day!
